1971 Viesca

Candle of Marlin High School

It is better to light just one little candle
Than to stumble in the dark.

Better far that you light just one little candle;
All you need's a tiny spark.

If we all prayed a prayer that the world be free,
The wonderful dawn of a new day we'd see—

And if everyone lit just one little candle,
What a bright world this would be!

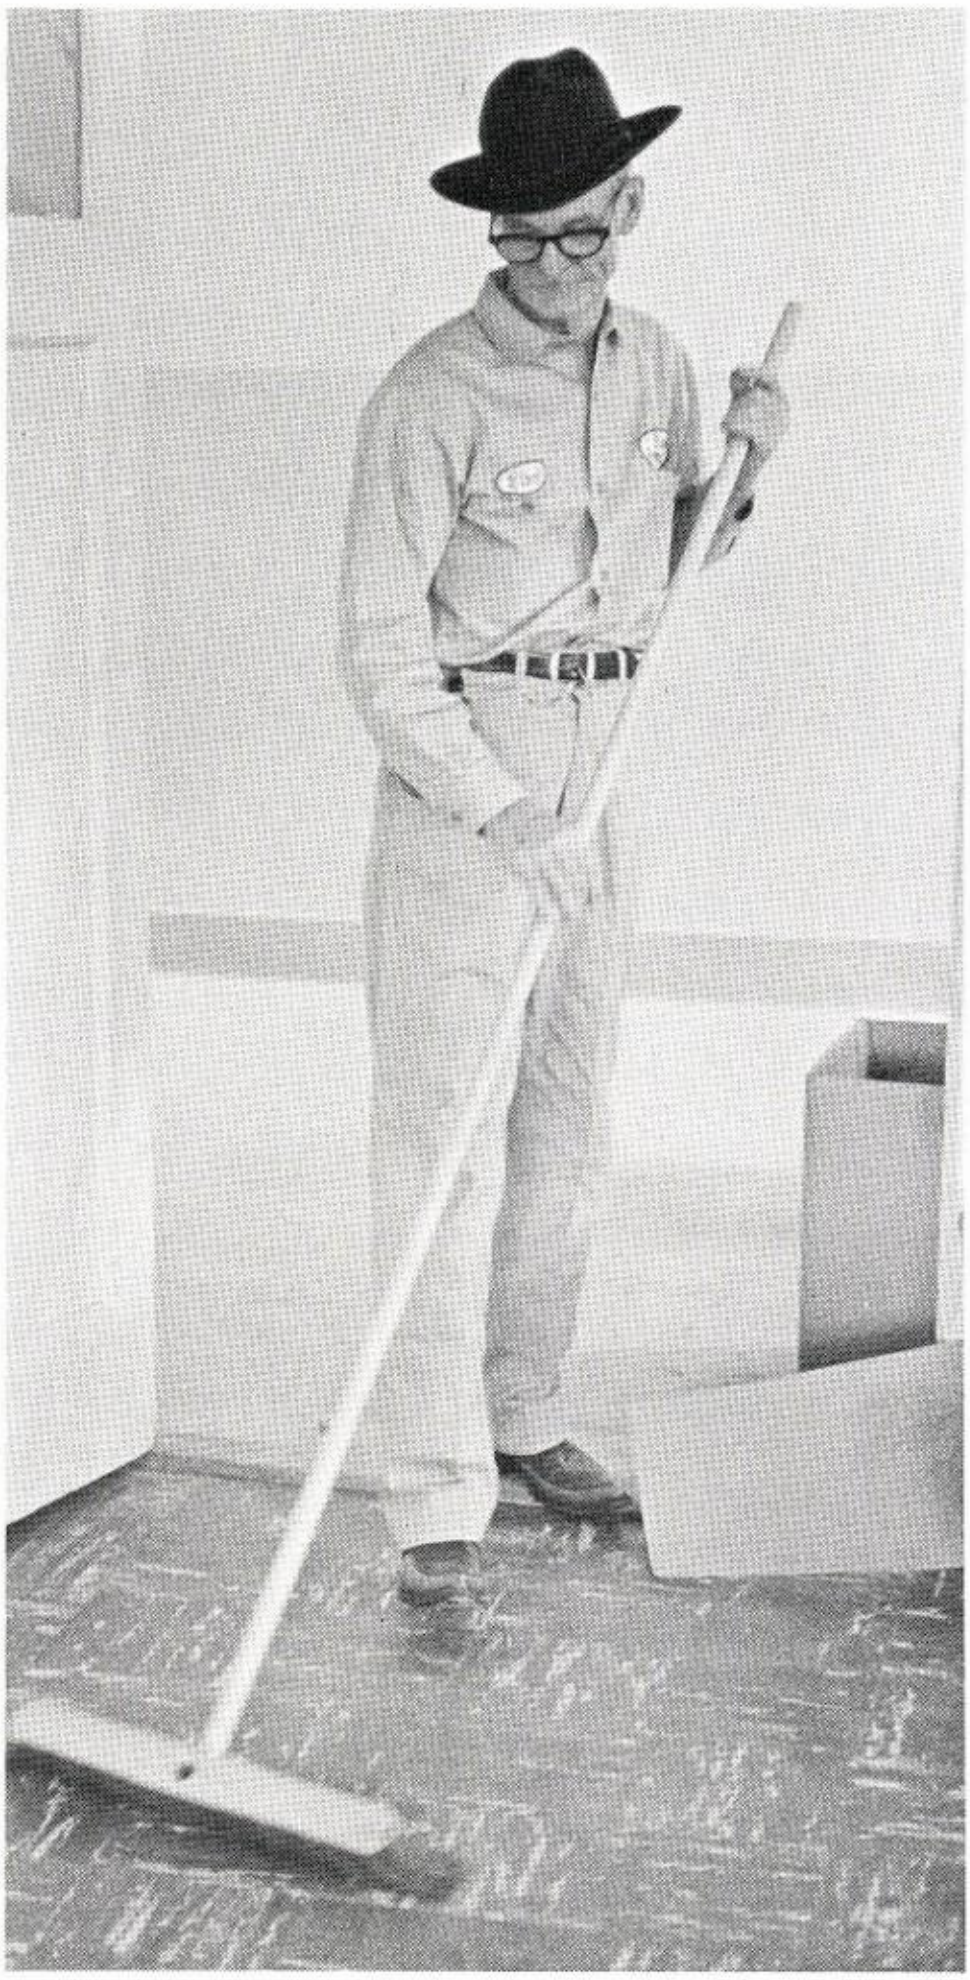
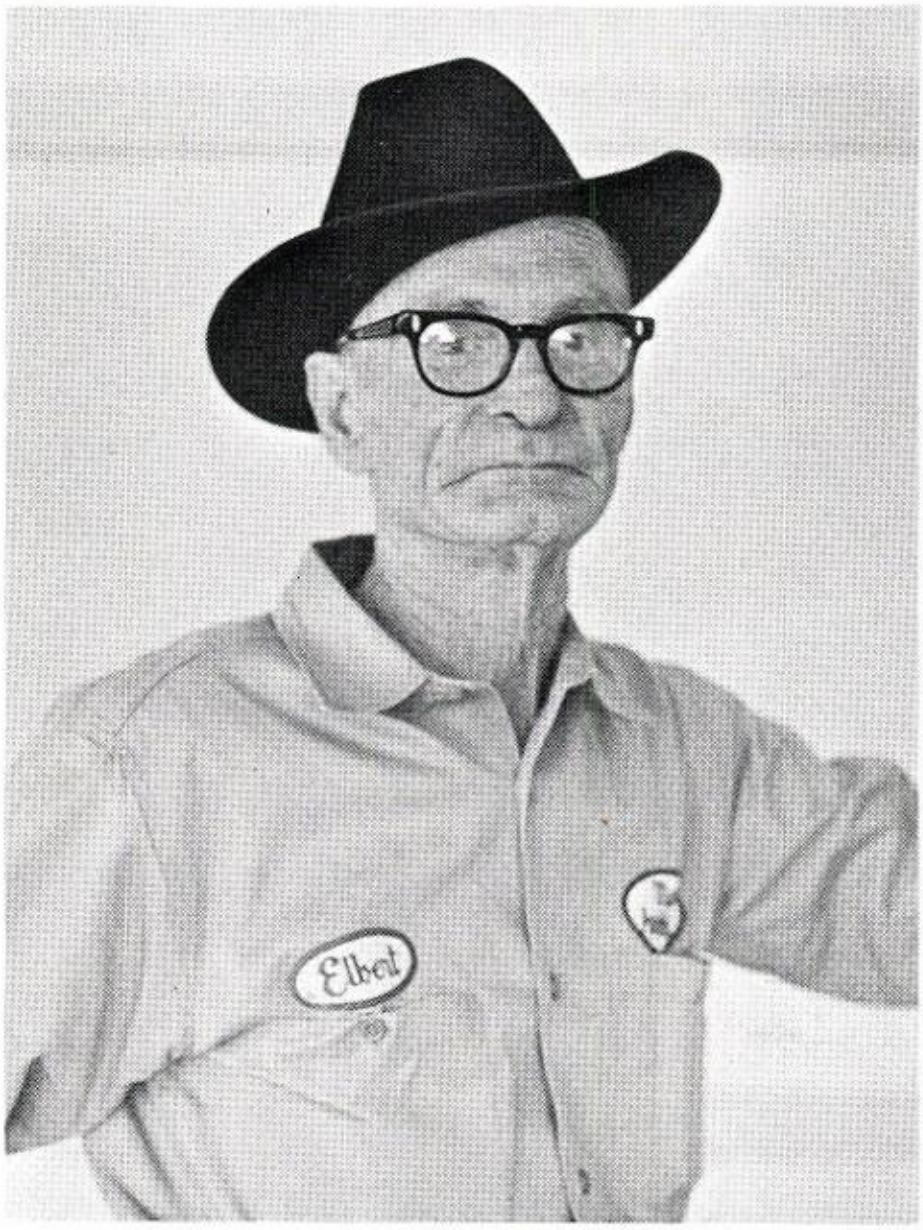
1970 Viesca is Dedicated to

Mr. Elbert Watkins





For thirteen years, Mr. Elbert Watkins has served as custodian of Marlin High School.

The students and faculty of M.H.S. are indeed grateful to him for the time he takes to make the minor as well as major repairs that make life at school run a little more smoothly.

Men who give of their time such as he does are definitely examples which can be followed.

It is with pleasure and gratitude that the Viesca Staff dedicates the following pages to Mr. Elbert Watkins.

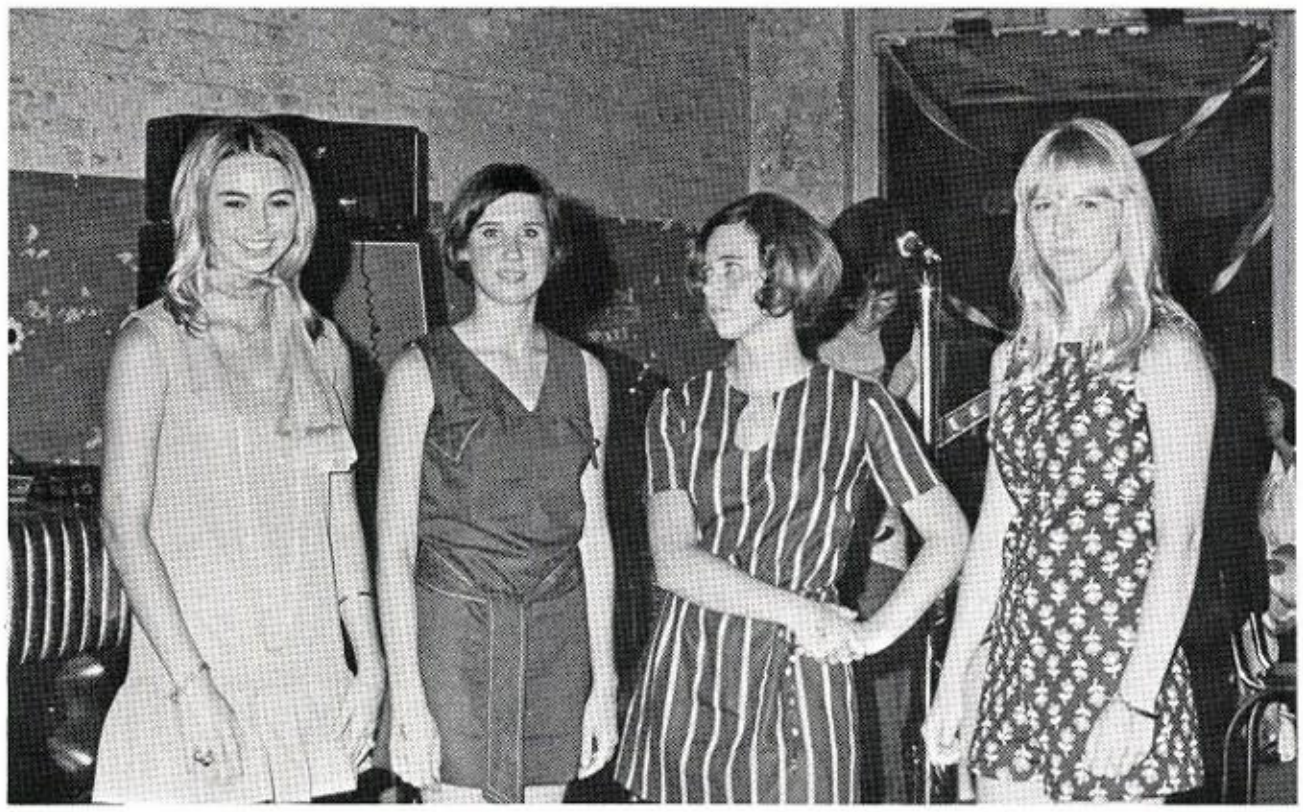
Student Life

Spirit marks this generation.

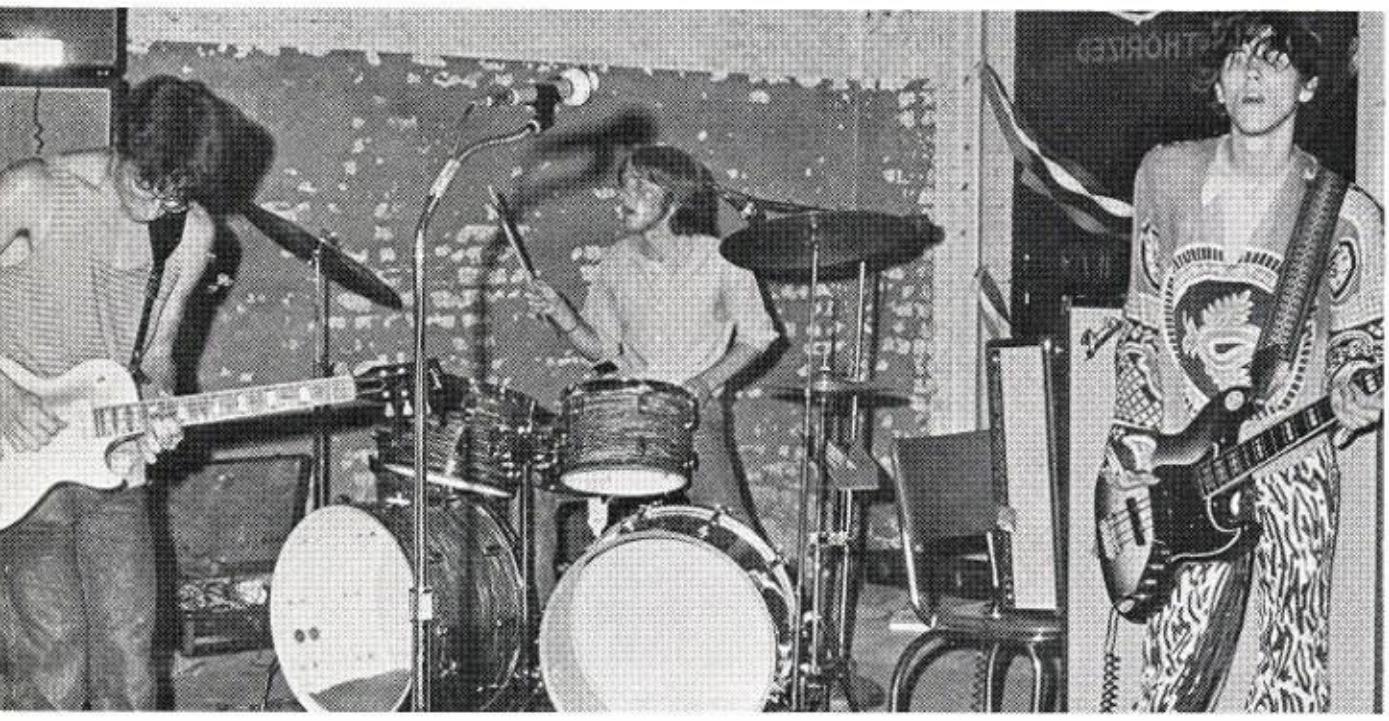
And lights a candle of determination.

Fire of the Fourth

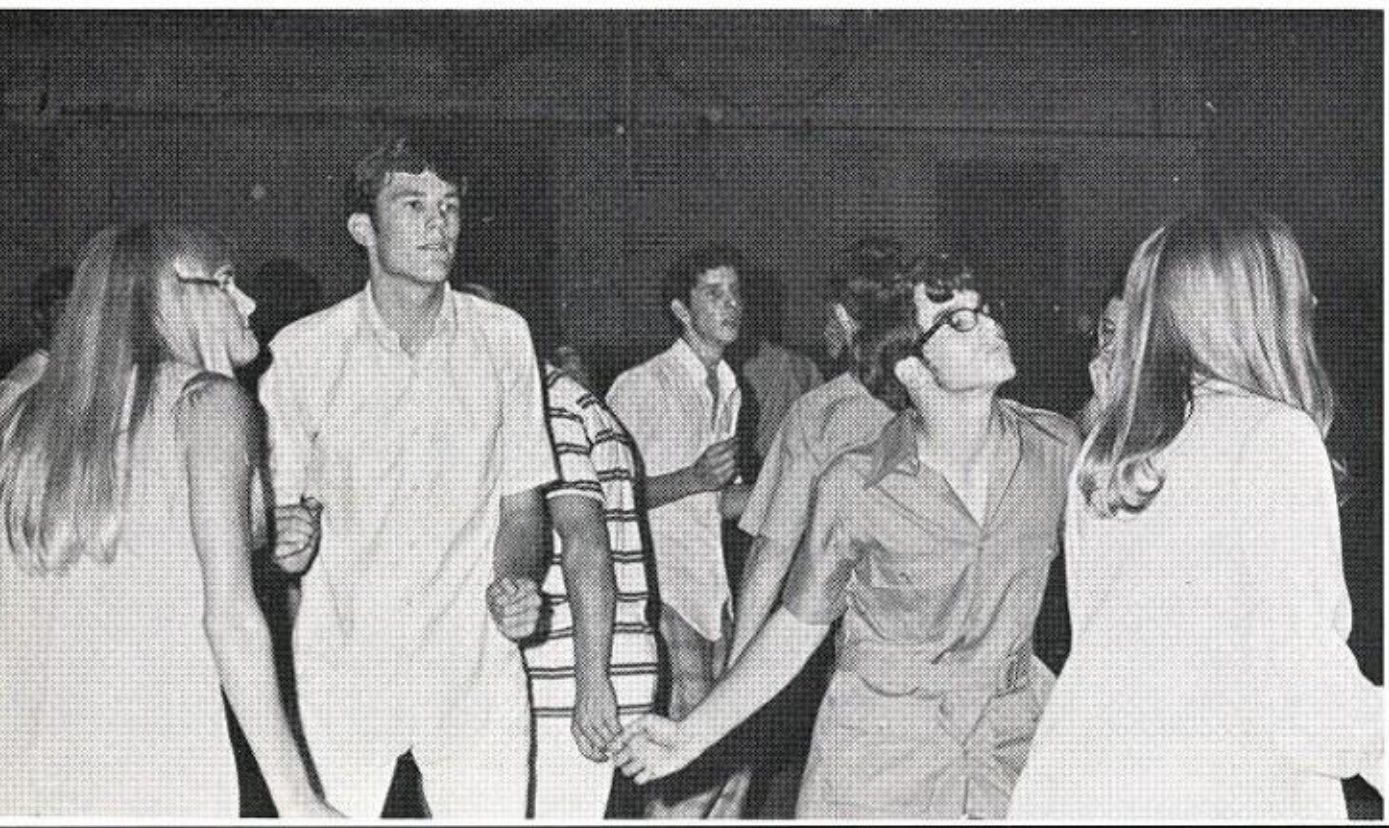
Fireworks explode in the souls of young people as Independence Day brings with its heritage a dance to highlight the summer.



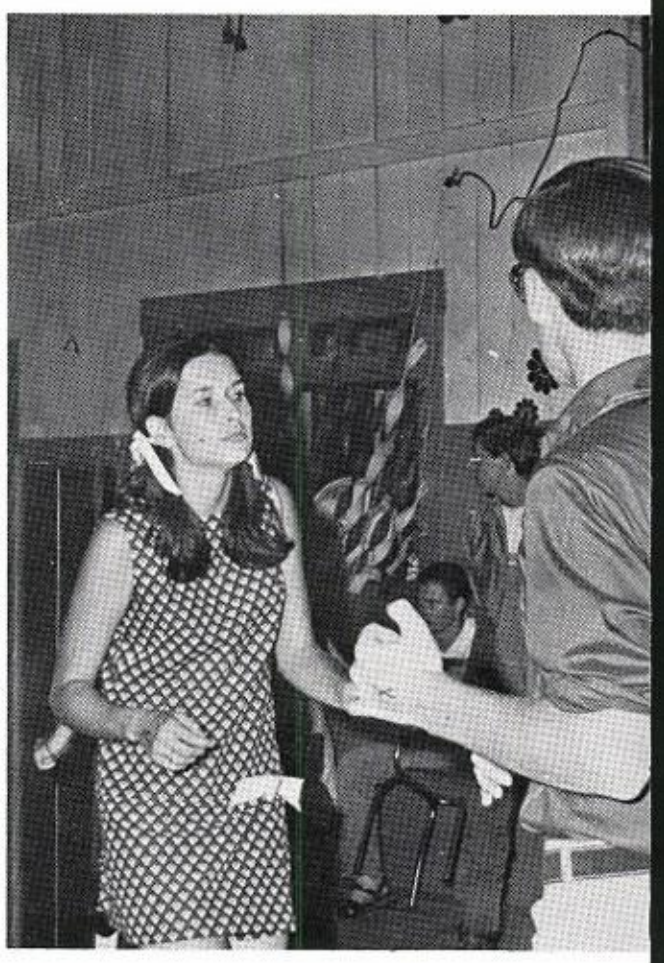
Four of the sponsors.



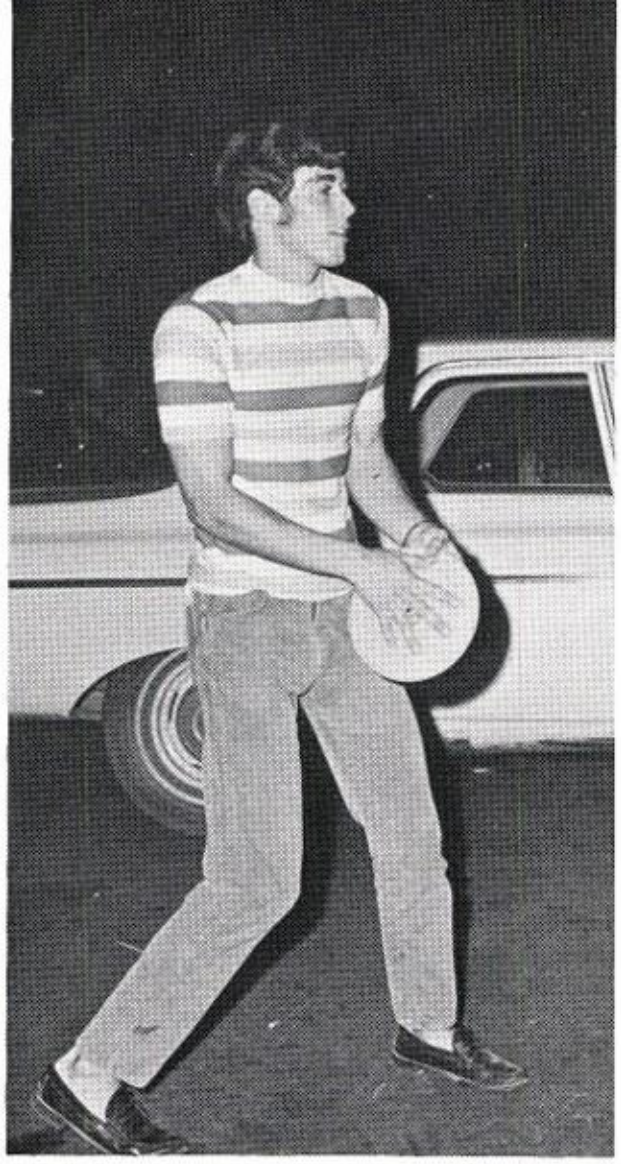
The sound of The Society.



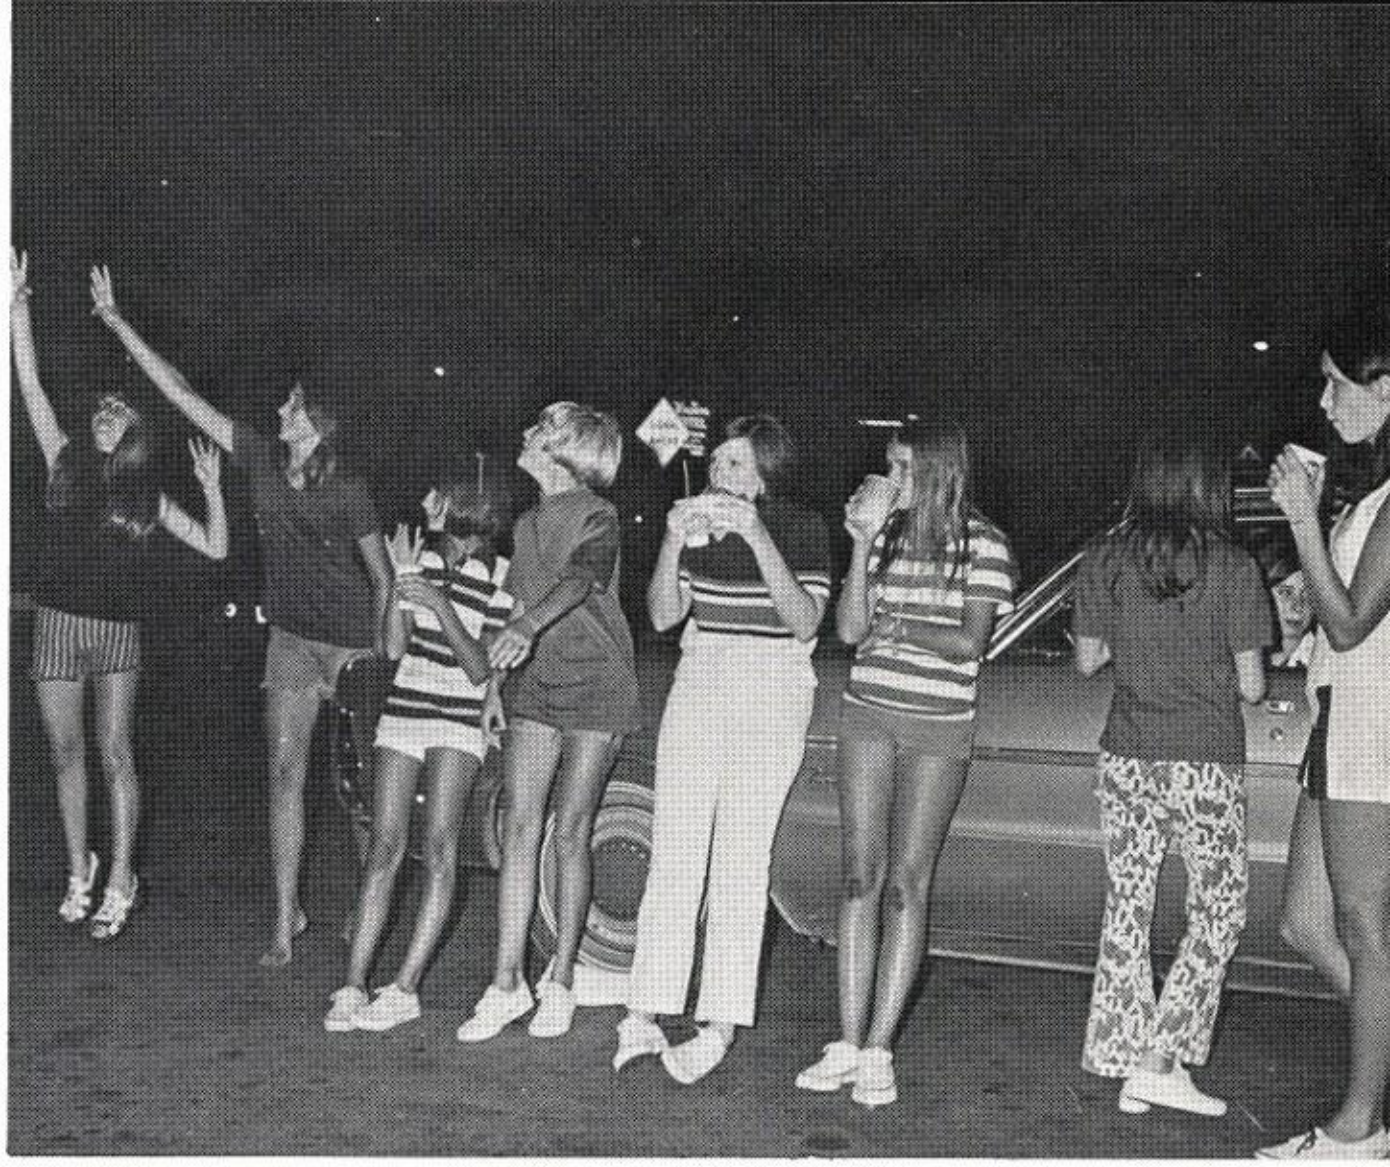
Duh, I am only three and a half years old.



Does everyone have sore throats?



Who'll catch it?



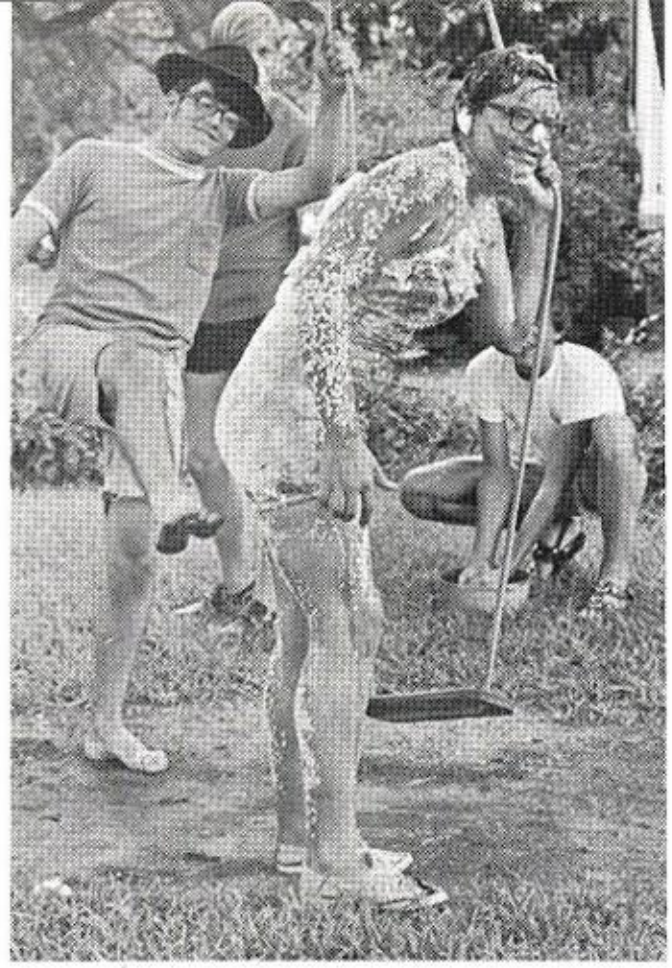
Fish: We can!

SR: We doubt it!

"Uncles" Hal and Bob want YOU!

Band Begins

During August, the Marlin High School Band, under Mr. Spencer, begins practice in preparation for lighting spirit's candle.



Senior brutality?

Fish furnish spirit!

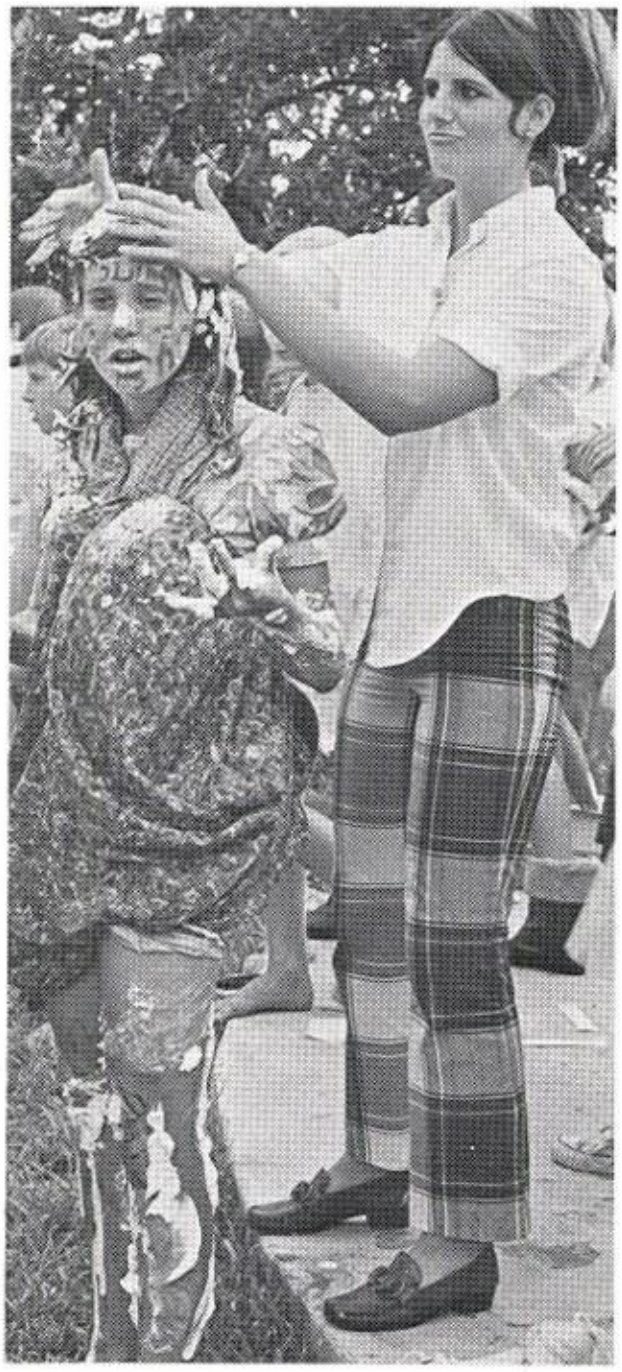
Look! Here comes the Easter Parade!

Definitely the next Miss Universe!

Behold . . . the finished product and the producers!

"Fishy" Fun

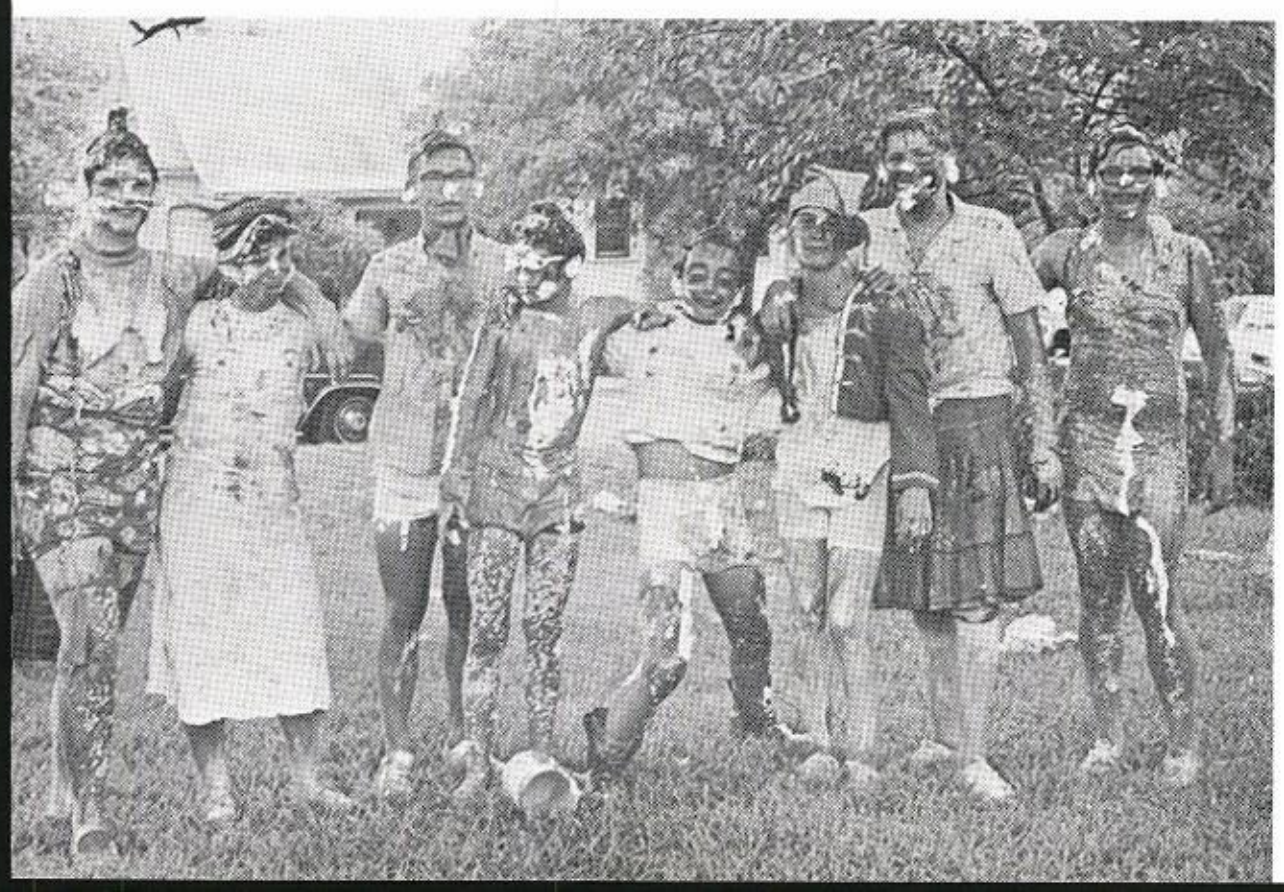
The fish initiation sparks the wick of fun for many band members—Fish and Seniors.

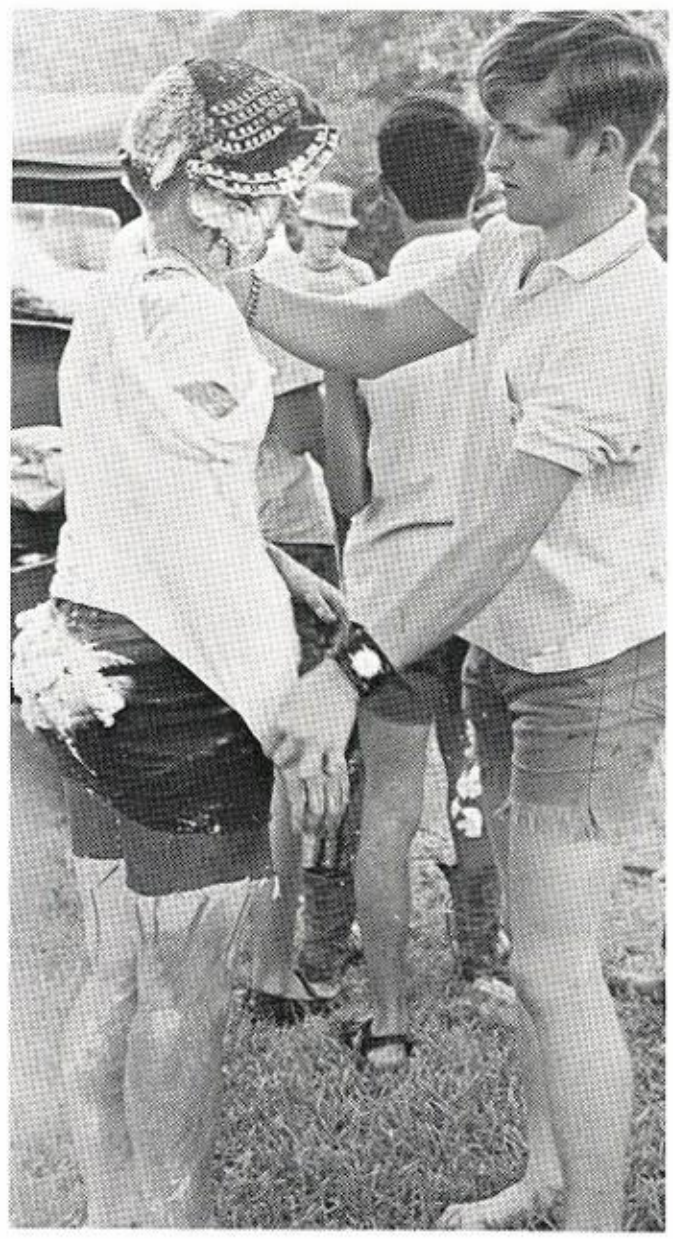


Why me? Why me all the time?

There's always some bad along with good!

We stick together because we're the only ones who can stand each other!





Are you thinking of becoming a fashion designer, David?

Who's that famous person hiding behind those Foster Grants?

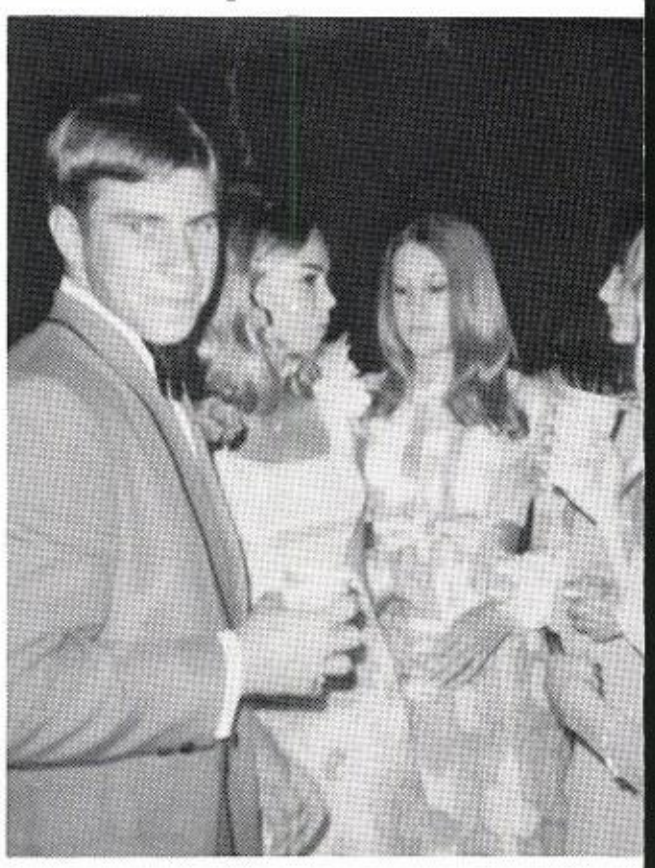
Formal Fling

Everyone enjoys Terry's spiel.

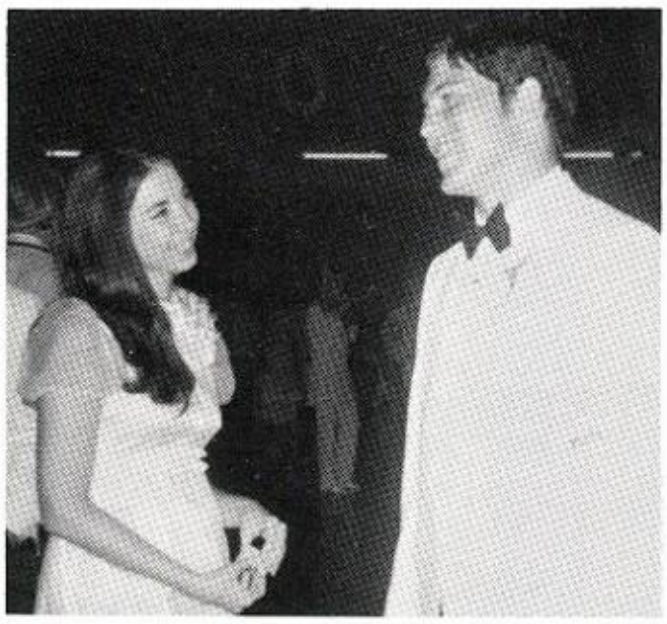
Marlin's Formal Line-Up

Yes, Doyle, you look very debonair tonight.

Obviously Diane and Doyle enjoyed themselves.



David, how did you get all the girls?



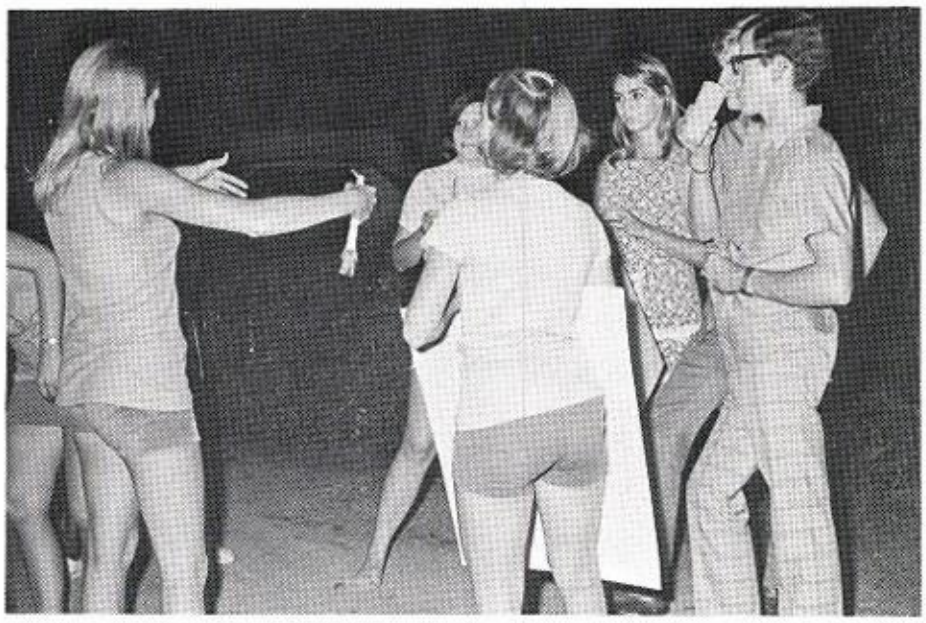
What do you mean you can't dance, David?

What, Lis? Dancing alone?

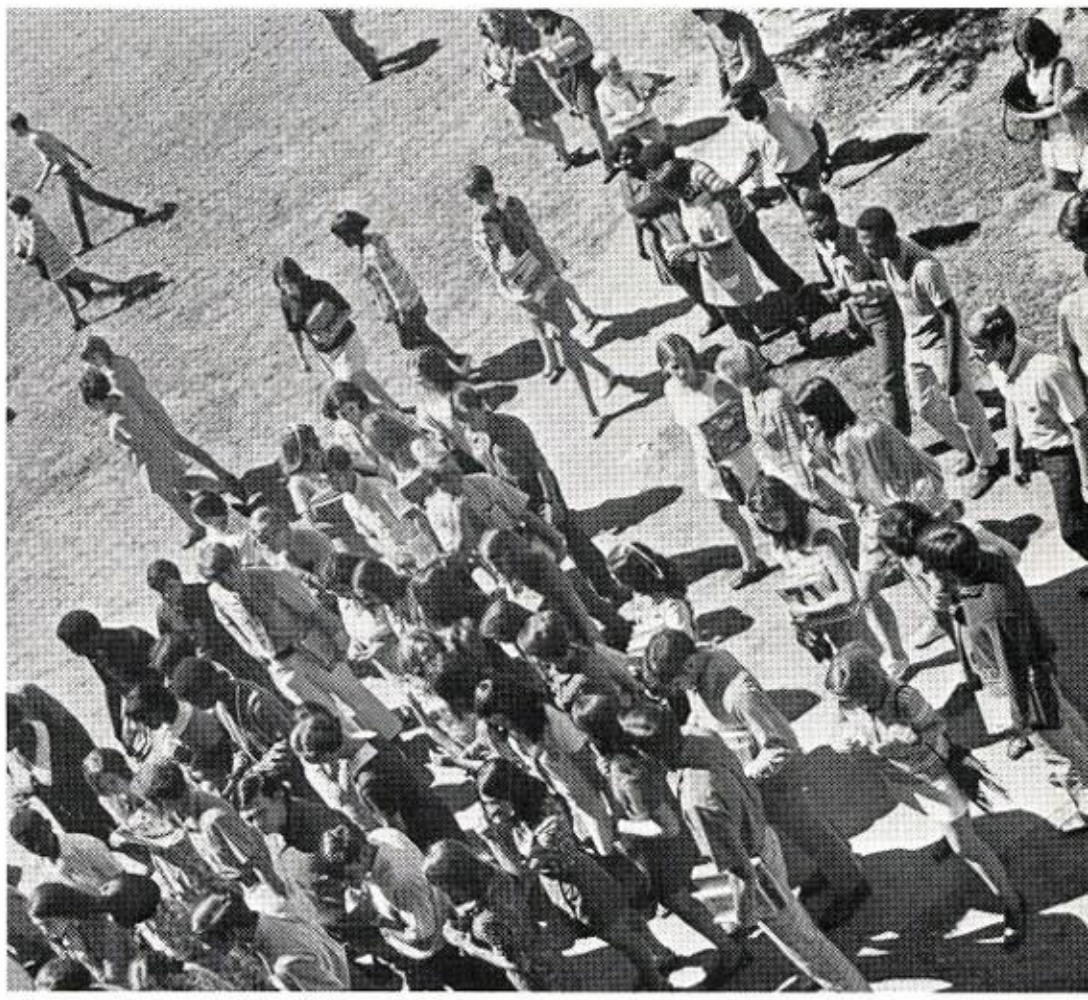
The Pizza Inn will never be the same.

School Begins

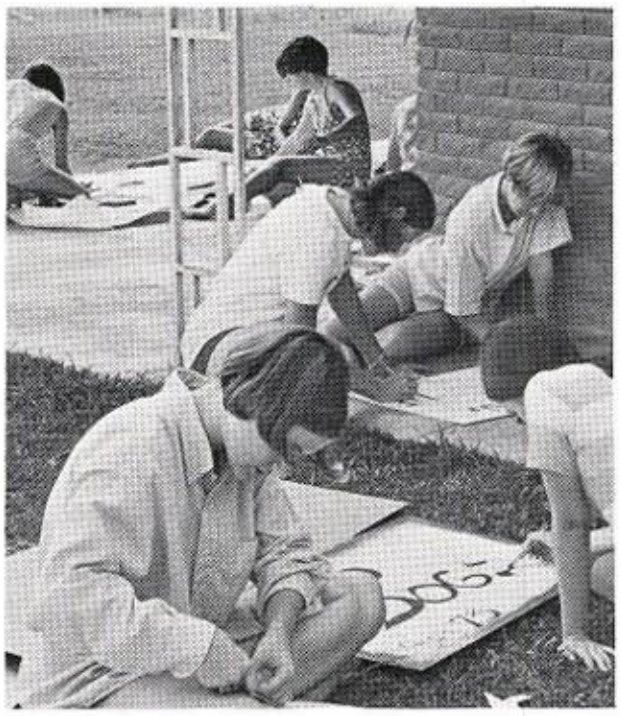
The 1970-1971 Marlin High School Year begins, and the match that lights the candle of spirit is Spirit Week, encouraging competition and kindling a fire within students.



Would You Believe It Was This Big?



Spirit Week is full of excitement and activity. The seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen all participate in the making of signs, attending pep rallies and mixers.



Spirited Sophomores.

Sports

A whistle sounds, competition begins, and Spirit's candle of sports burns a bright orange, urging victory, fairness and teamwork. It distills excitement and pride in all who participate whether on the field or in the grandstands.

Mighty Men of M.H.S.

The coaches of the Marlin High School football teams are, in a sense, candle-lighters. They, with the aid of the managers, work to make the M.H.S. team one of the best.

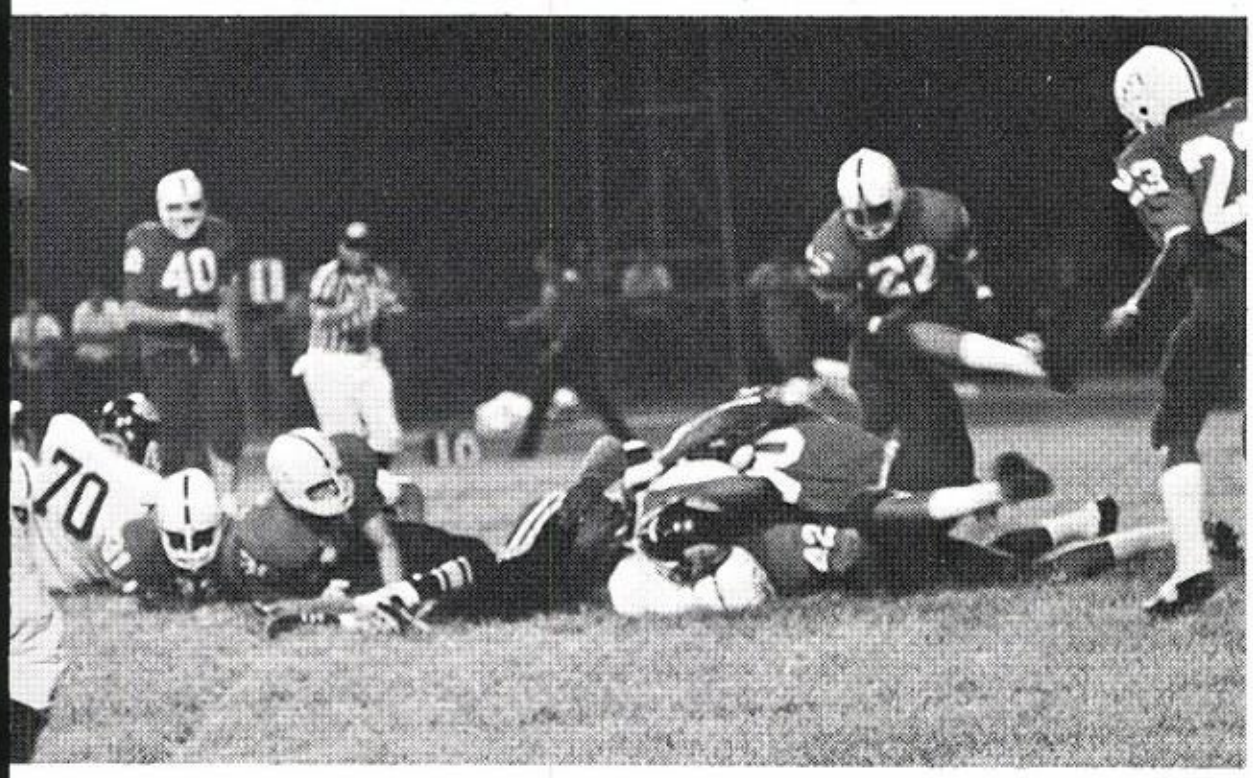
Games

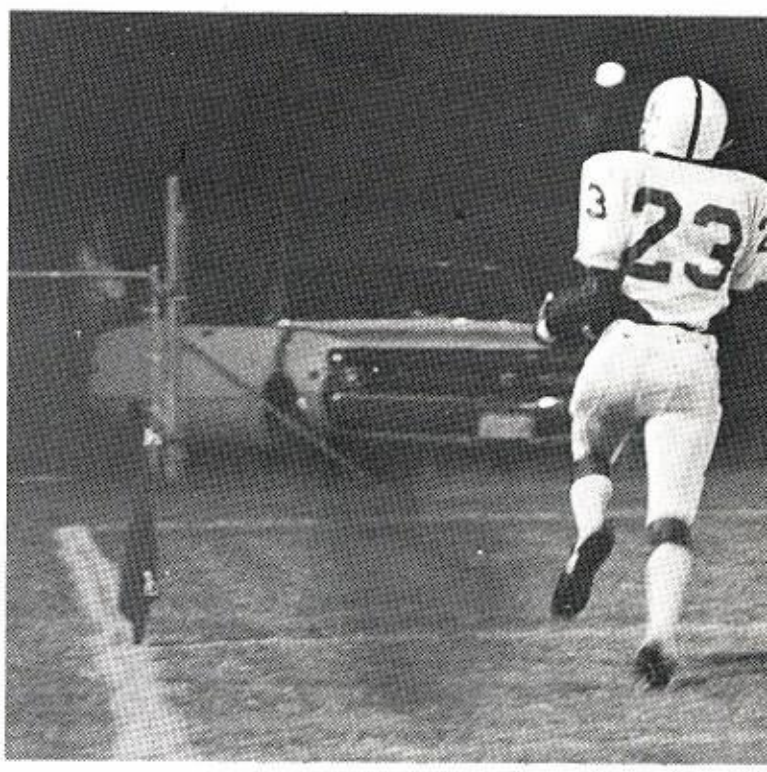
MARLIN vs. ROSEBUD-LOTT

The Rosebud-Lott Cougars defeated the Bulldogs in the season opener 14-0. The dogs' only chance for 6 came when D. Grogan drove for a TD—but the TD was offset by an offsides penalty against Marlin. The Dogs were halted by their own fumbles; but the defense showed great improvements during the second half.

A. Davis's 35 yd. ramble set up the Dogs' first opportunity for six.



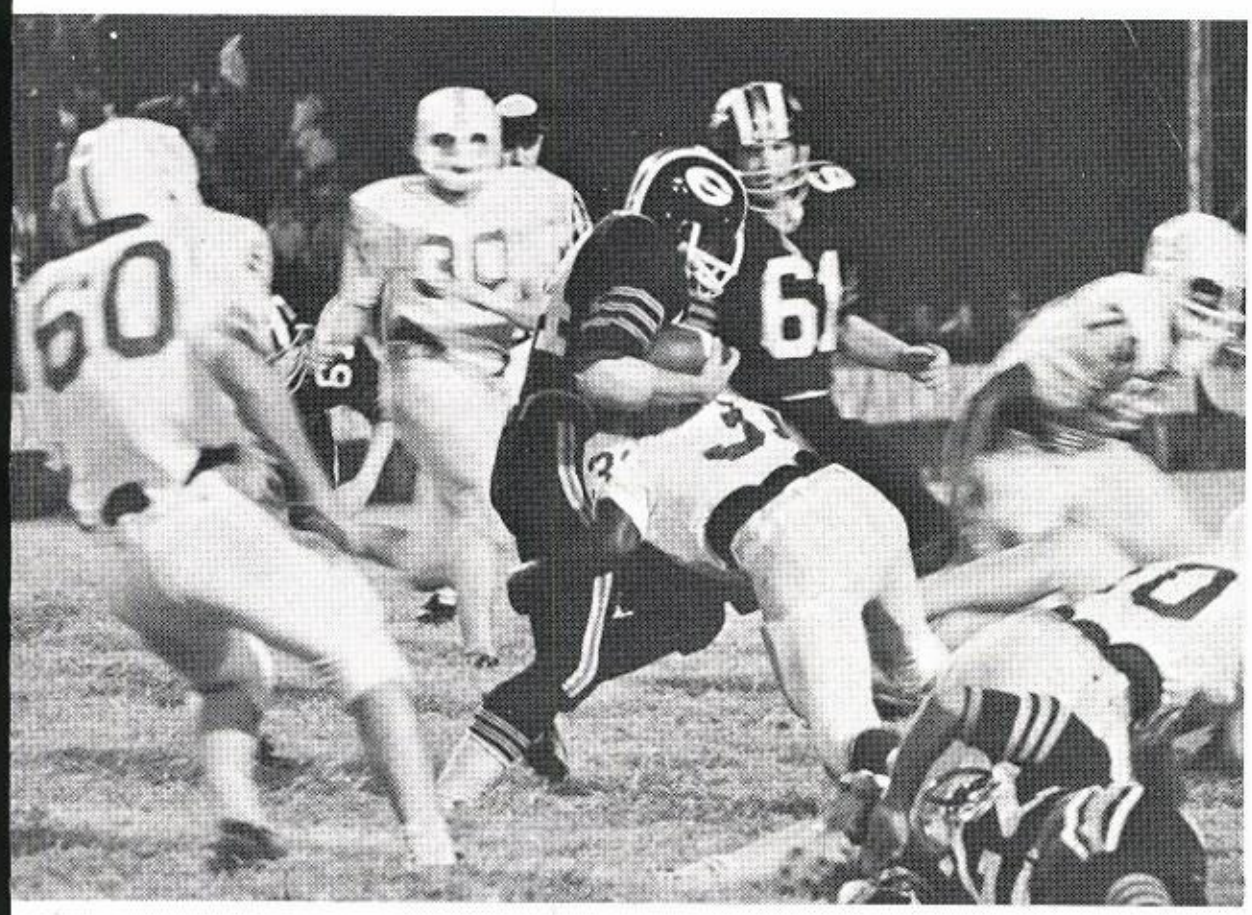
Marlin's defensive pride held the Cougars to very few yards rushing.



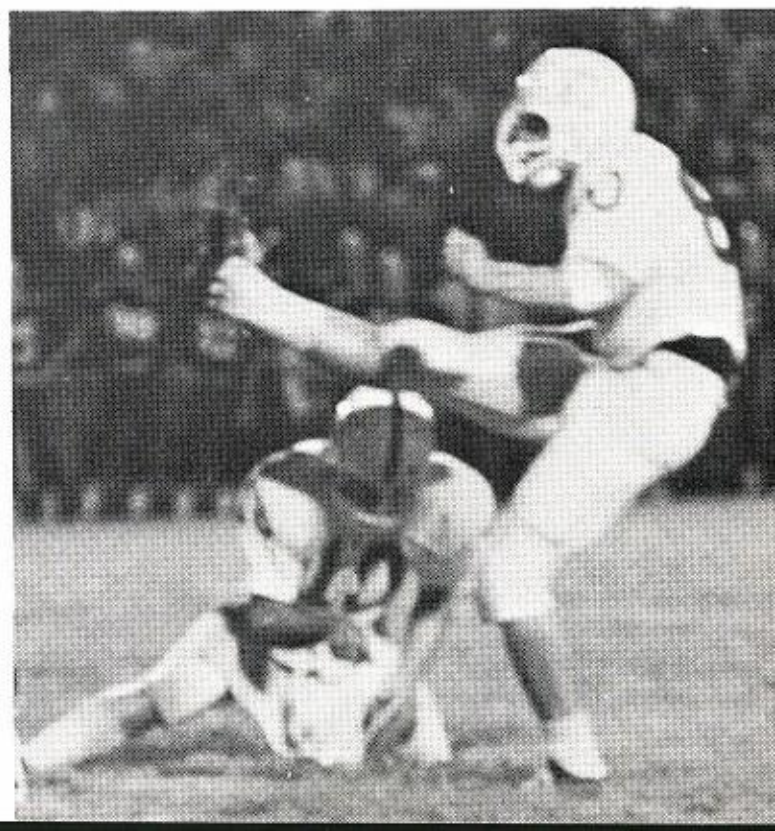
C. Gude on his 35 yd. punt return.

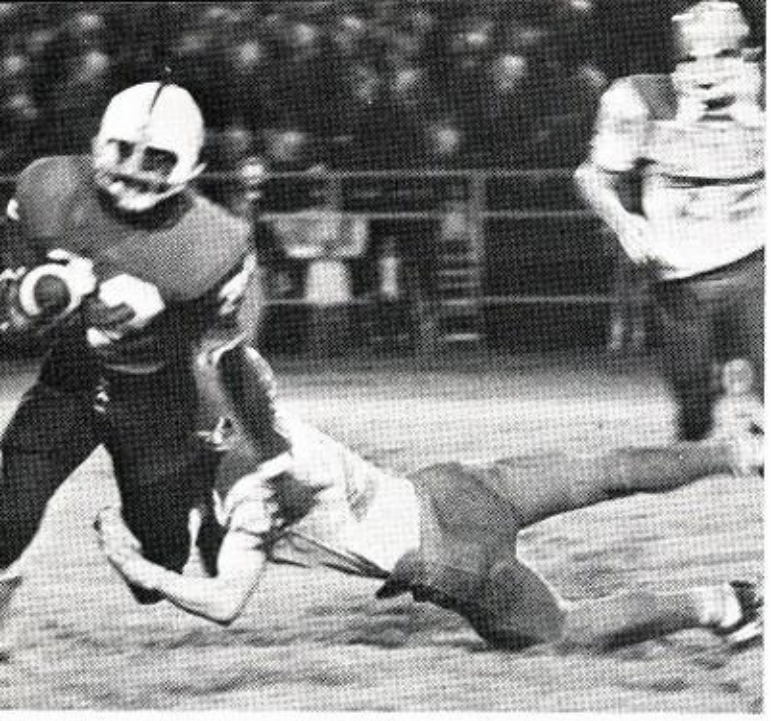
MARLIN vs. GATESVILLE

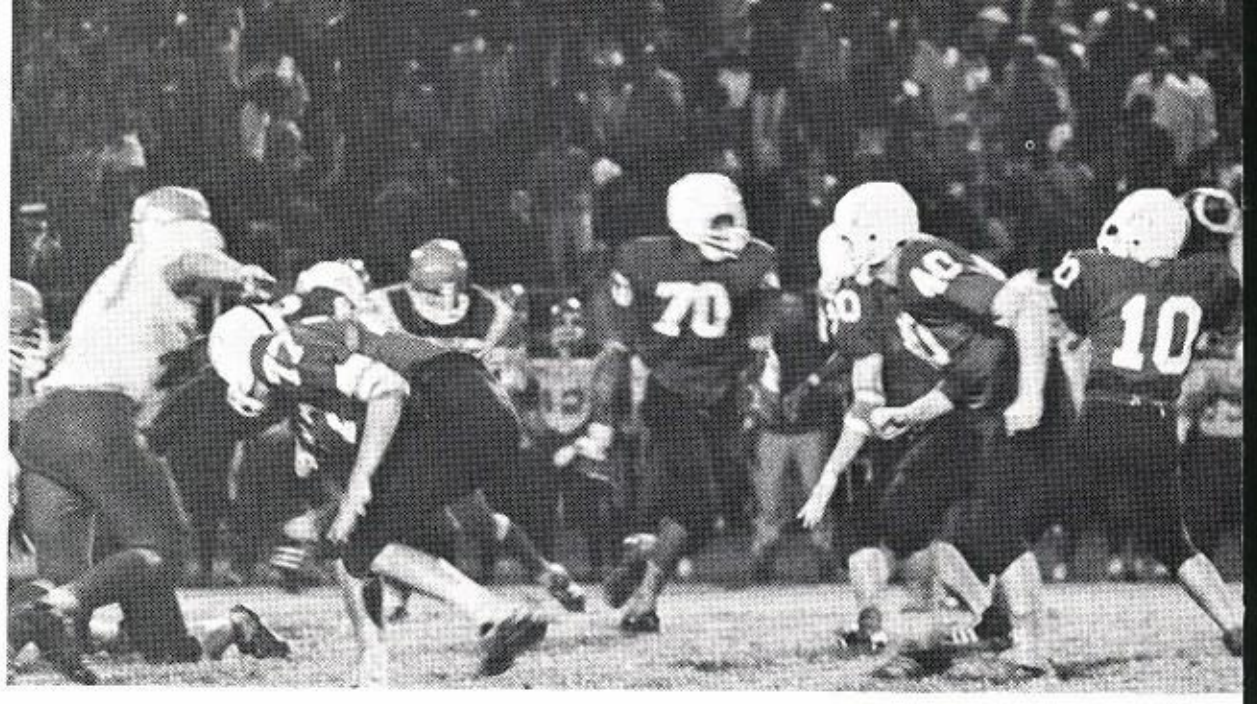
Marlin was on the board late in the 1st quarter with J. Drews' 36 yd. field goal. After losing a valuable fumble, the Dogs recovered with D. Daniel connecting C. Gude for a TD. After the Hornets scored in the 4th qt., C. Gude ran 65 yd. for the winning TD. Marlin 16-13



L. Diles (31) spearheading the Marlin defense during the 3rd period of play.







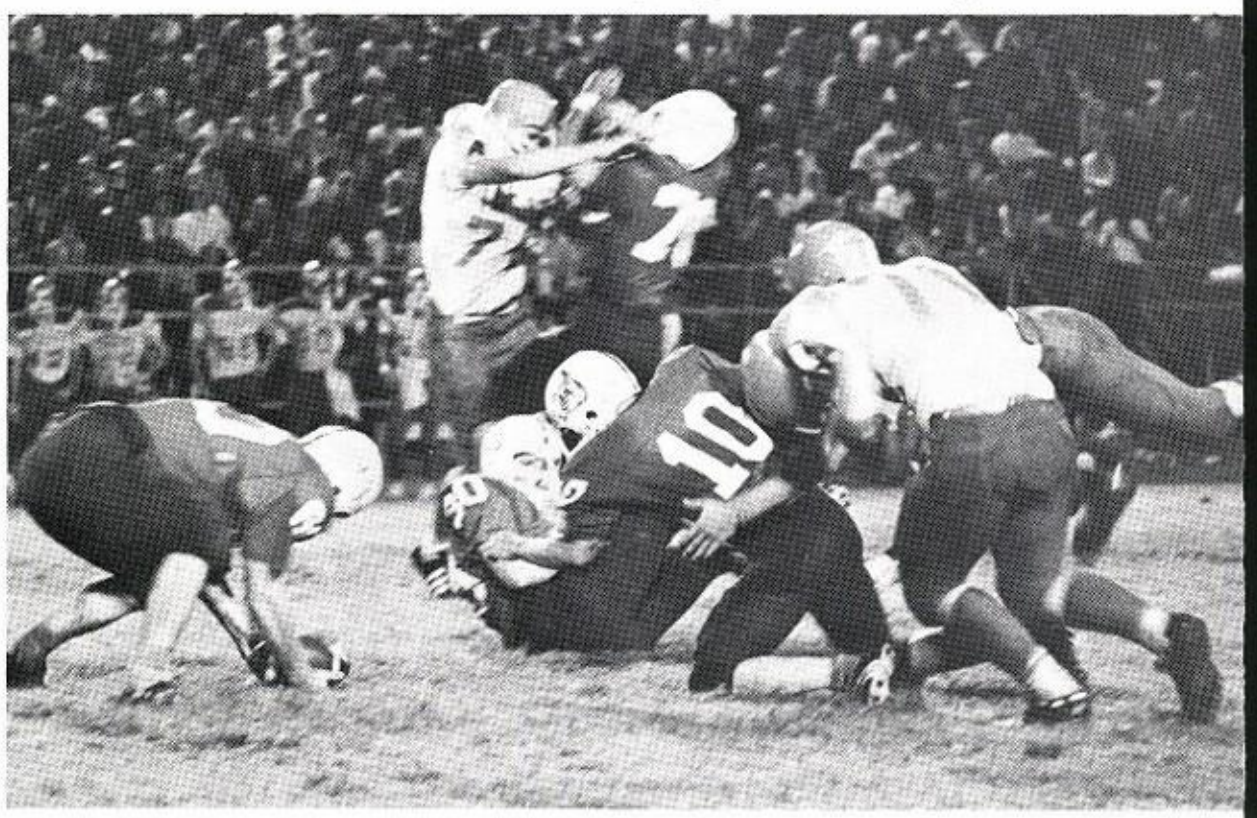
Marlin tried passing after failing to penetrate the Tigers' line.

MARLIN vs. BELTON

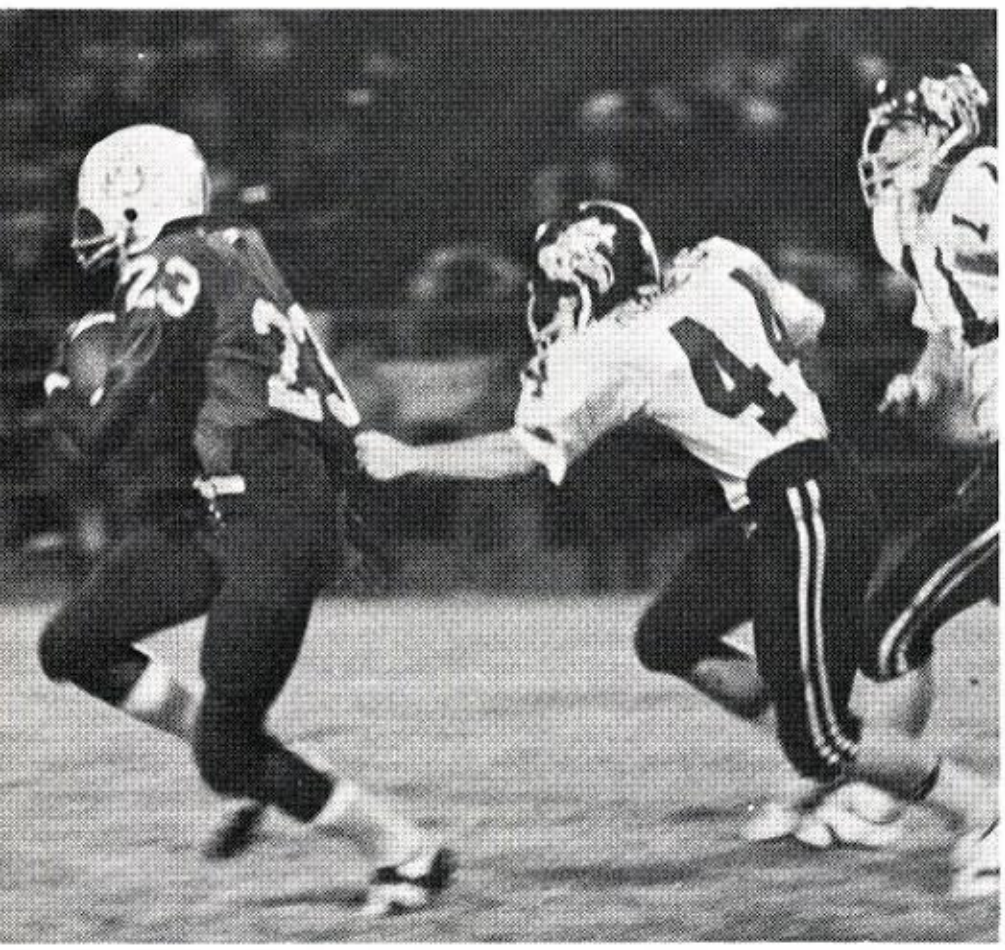
The Dogs were defeated 38-6 in their last non-district game against Belton. A. Davis was the nucleus of Marlin's only TD drive. D. Daniel climaxed the drive with a 20 yd TD pass to J. Drews.

MARLIN vs. ATHENS

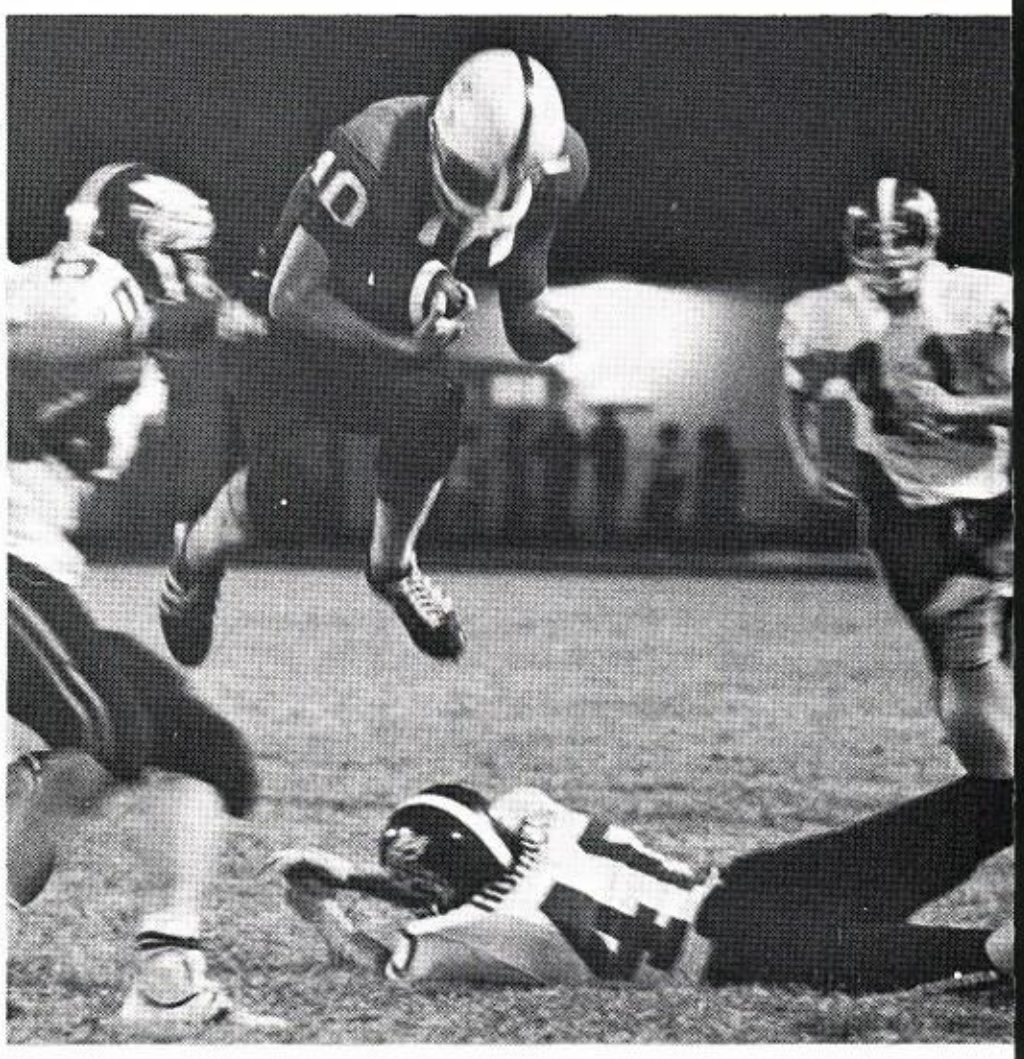
In the district opener Marlin opened with J. Drews' field goal. Athens raked 15 pts. off Marlin's fumbles. After the Canines drove to the Hornets' 5 yd. line, Athens intercepted, but then fumbled with Marlin recovering on the 6 yd. line. With 17 seconds left, Marlin lost a decisive fumble. Final: Athens 15-10.



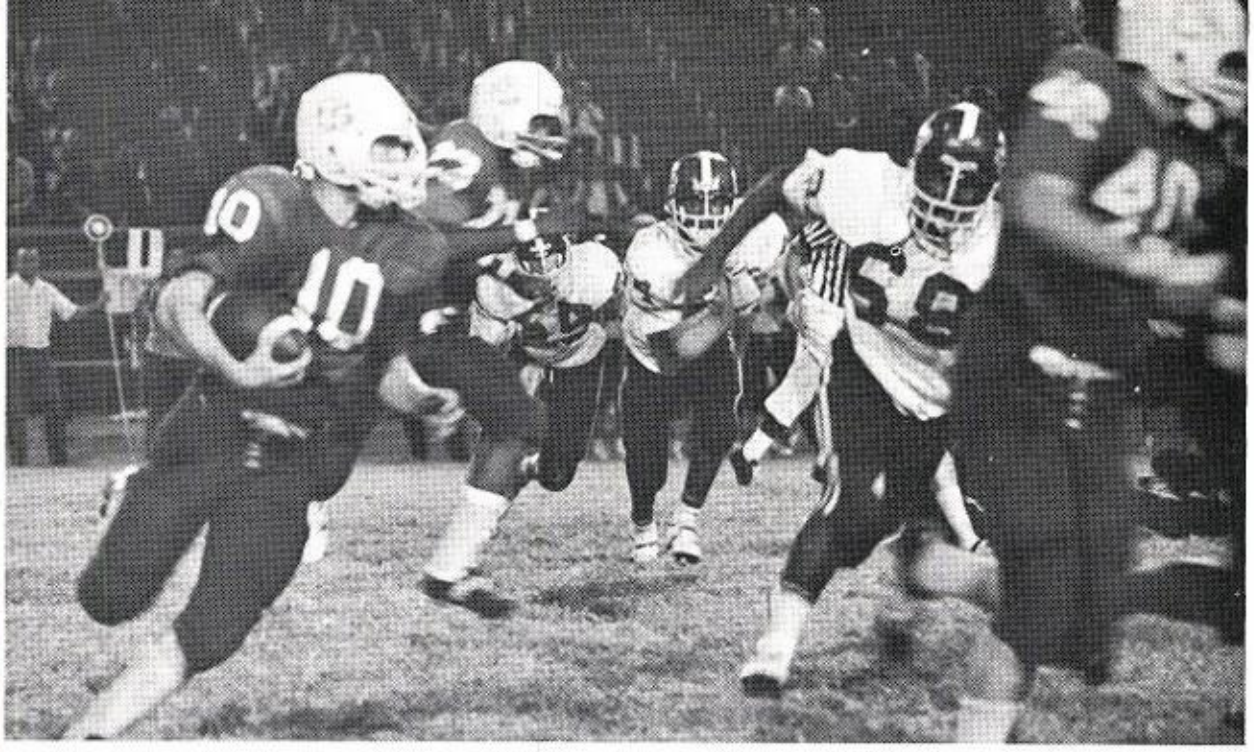
R. Walker luckily recovered one of Marlin's numerous fumbles.



C. Gude dashed around end for a 16 yd gain to the Hornet 3 yd line—setting up their only TD.



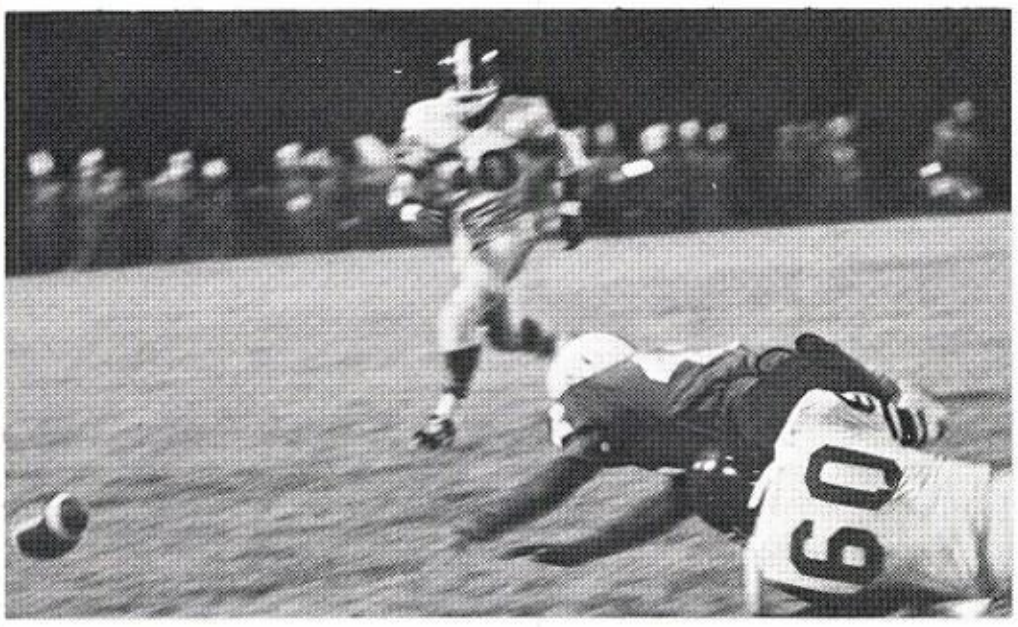
Finding no receivers, D. Daniel was forced to dive into a Hornets' nest.



D. Daniel, receiving effective blocking, scampers for a sizable gain.

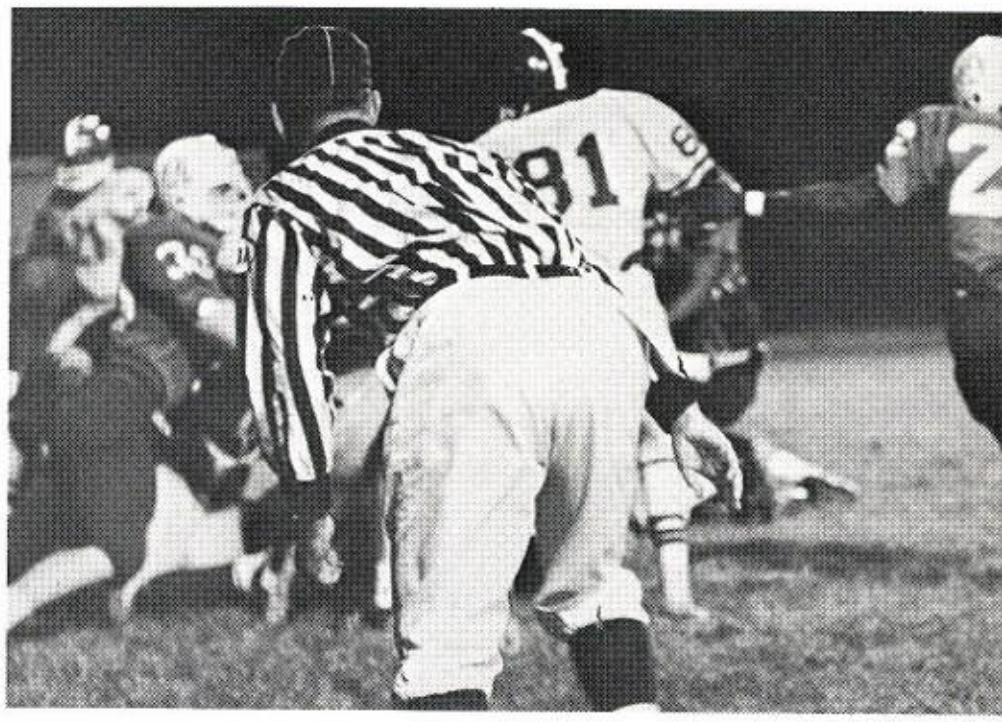
MARLIN vs. LA VEGA

The Canines bounced back from their hard taken loss to the Athens Hornets to defeat the La Vega Pirates 12-7. The Pirates started the scoring with a blocked punt, later turning into a 7-0 lead. The Dogs plunged back 56 yds. for a score, 7-6. D. Daniel optioned around end for a 47 yd. TD. The Canines' tight defensive wall kept La Vega from scoring. The Dogs made many dramatic stands late in the 4th quarter, but never broke. The defensive walked off the field a very proud unit.

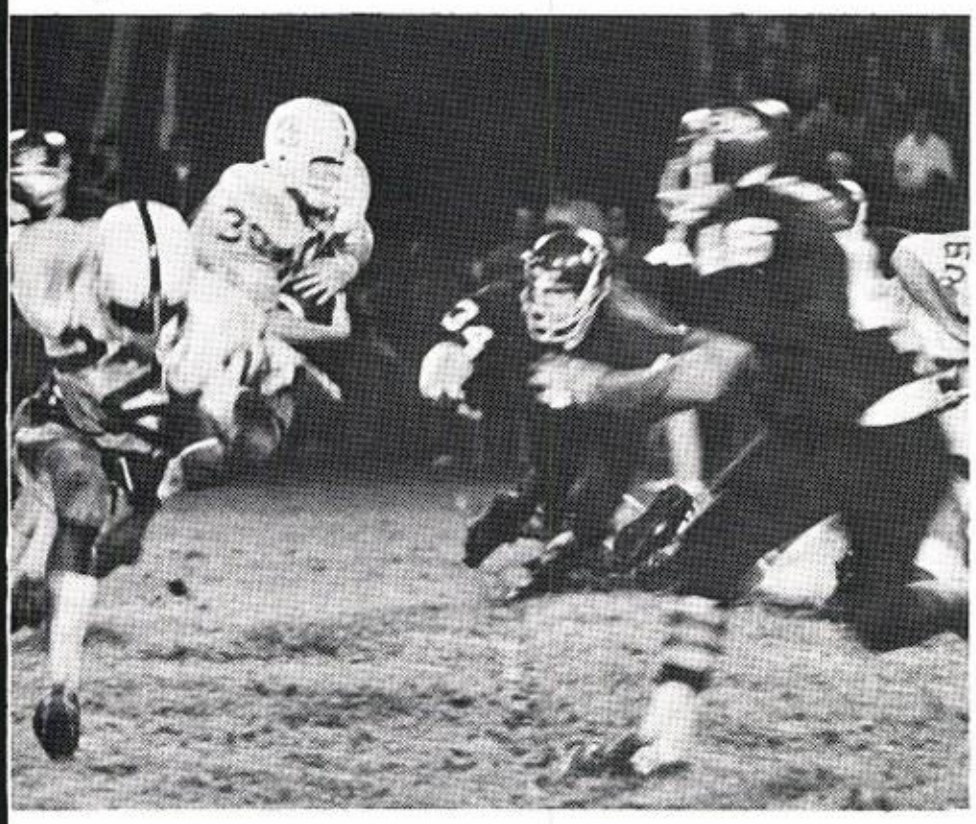


MARLIN vs. MOORE

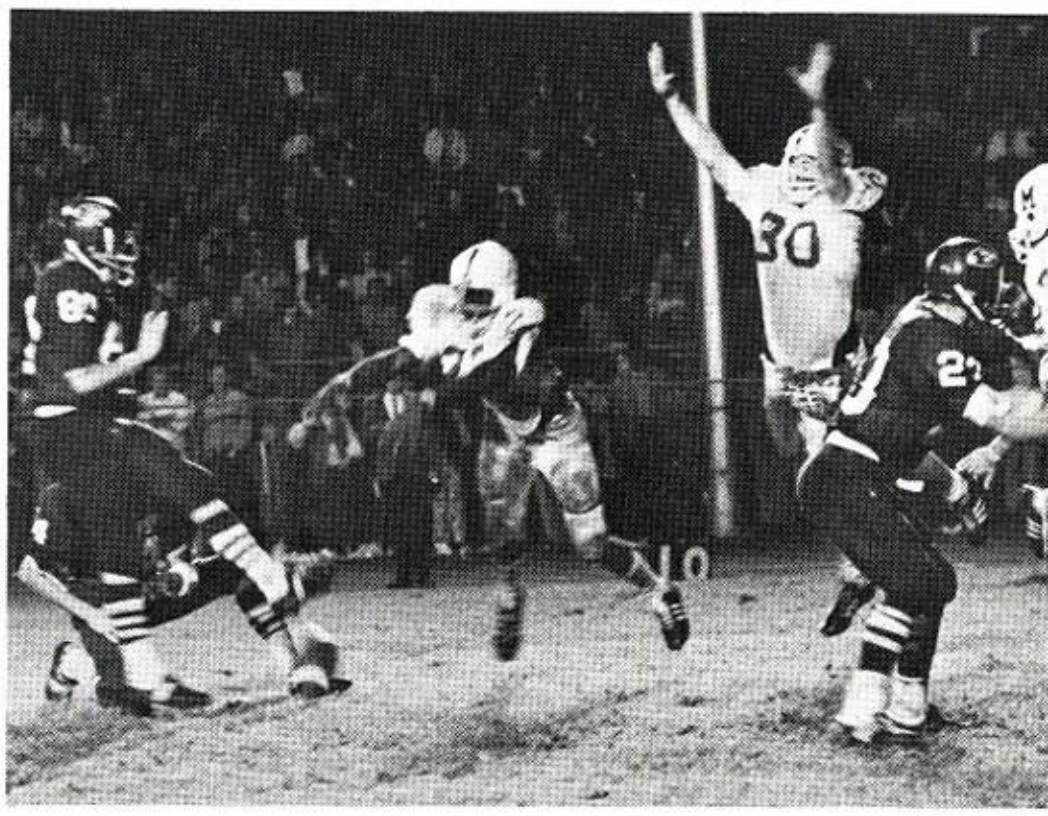
The Moore Lions defeated the Marlin Bulldogs 21-0. All three Lion TD's came from Marlin fumbles. Marlin's defense held the Lions scoreless for the rest of the game. Once again the Canines' defense made many spectacular goal-line stands.



An END zone shot shows Marlin repelling the Moore Lions at the 1 yd. line.



FB M. Harden (30) is pictured punching through the Lions' defense.



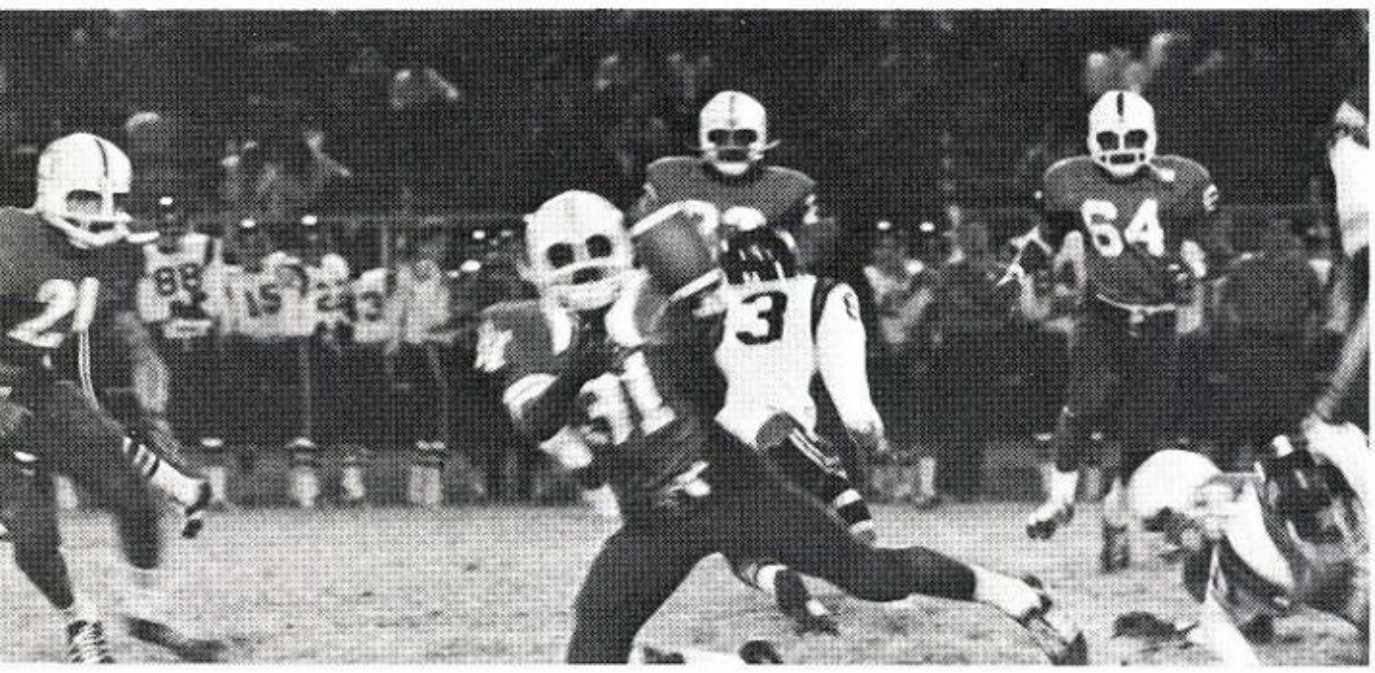
MARLIN vs. ENNIS

The Dogs baffled the 1-rated Lions by scoring first in the 1st. qt. Ennis scored 4 TD's, but Marlin'd defense was up for the last half and Ennis could score only once more. Ennis 33-7.

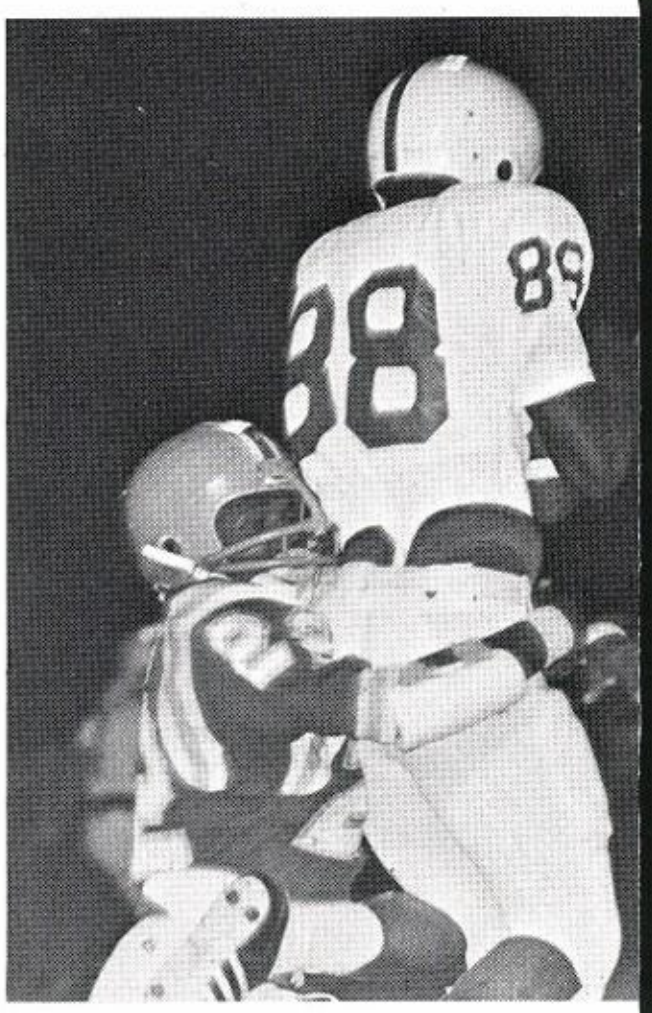
MARLIN vs. MEXIA

Marlin put together its greatest offense attack in seven years to win 40-6, Homecoming night. The powerful ground attack led by A. Davis, D. Grogan, was climaxed with a TD pass to FB M. Harden. The Blackcats were stopped by Marlin's fired-up defense. Interceptions by C. Gude and L. Diles along with S. Hay and B. Washington's defensive performances gave Marlin its greatest victory for the season.

A. Davis is shown making a 13 yd. run for a Bulldog touchdown.



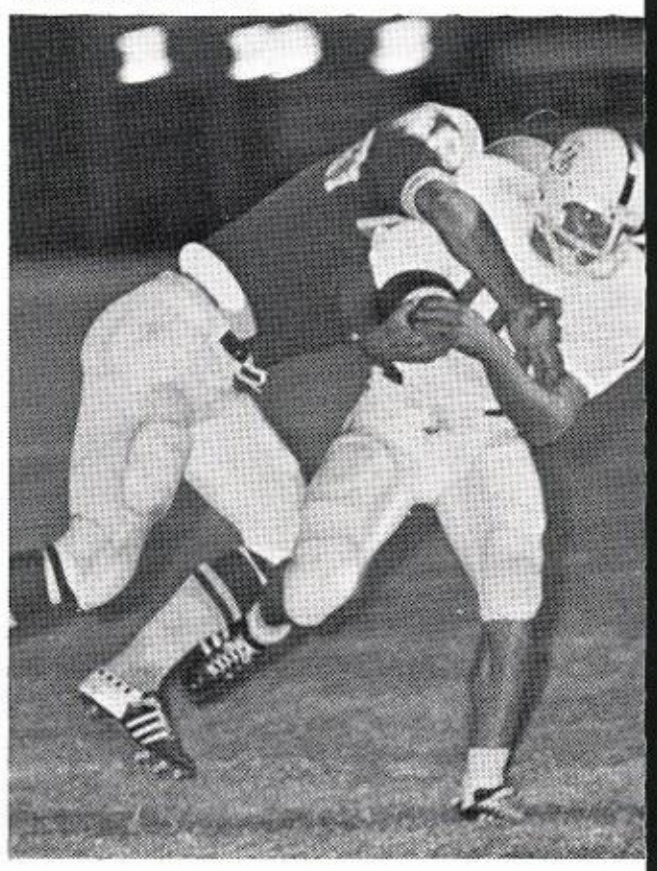
L. Diles makes his second pass interception of the evening.



T. Moore catches a completed pass from D. Daniel.

MARLIN vs. MART

The Bulldogs closed their hard fought season with a 24-14 loss to the Mart Panthers. Marlin recovered the Mart ball several times but couldn't score. Trailing 10-0, the Dogs bounced back with D. Ethridge scoring a 58 yd. T.D. After holding the Panthers at their own goal line, B. Dresner blocked their punt for a safety. The Dogs finally led when Daniel hit Ethridge for Marlin's last T.D. Mart scored twice again ending the season 24-14.



D. Daniel struggles for yardage.

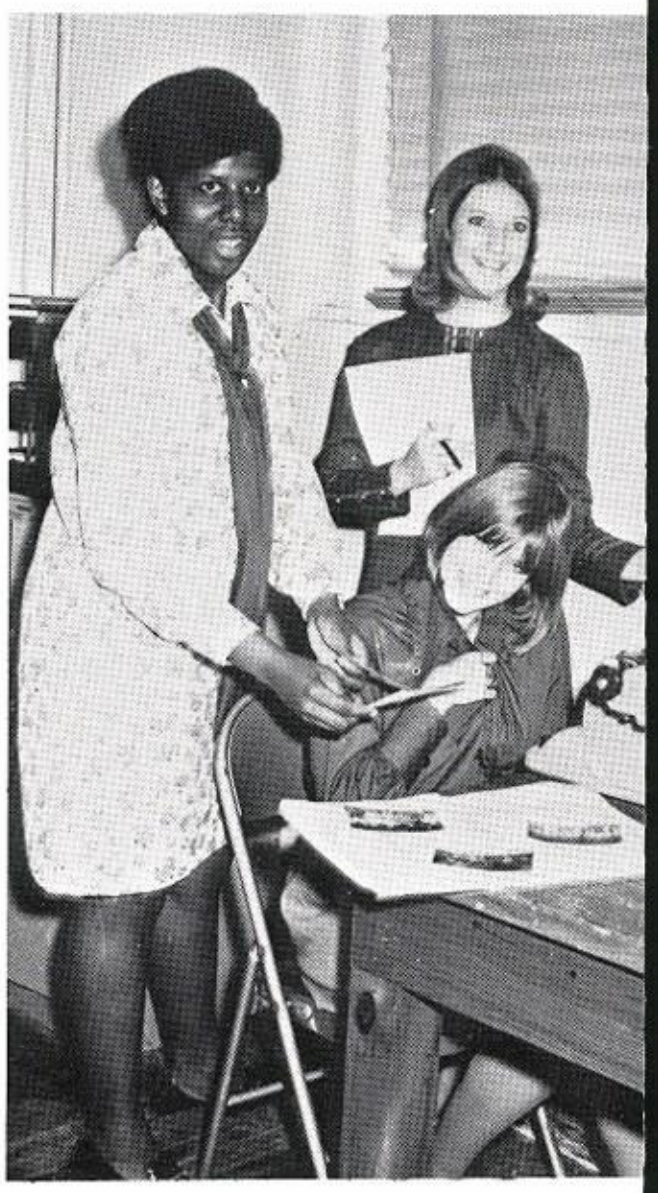
Cauldron of Memories

The Viesca staff, under the editorship of Ava Dickens, began working through the summer to make the Viesca a spicy brew of spirit and memories. Drawing layouts, taking pictures, and writing copy are just three of the ingredients used in meeting the deadlines and in adding flavor to the finished product.

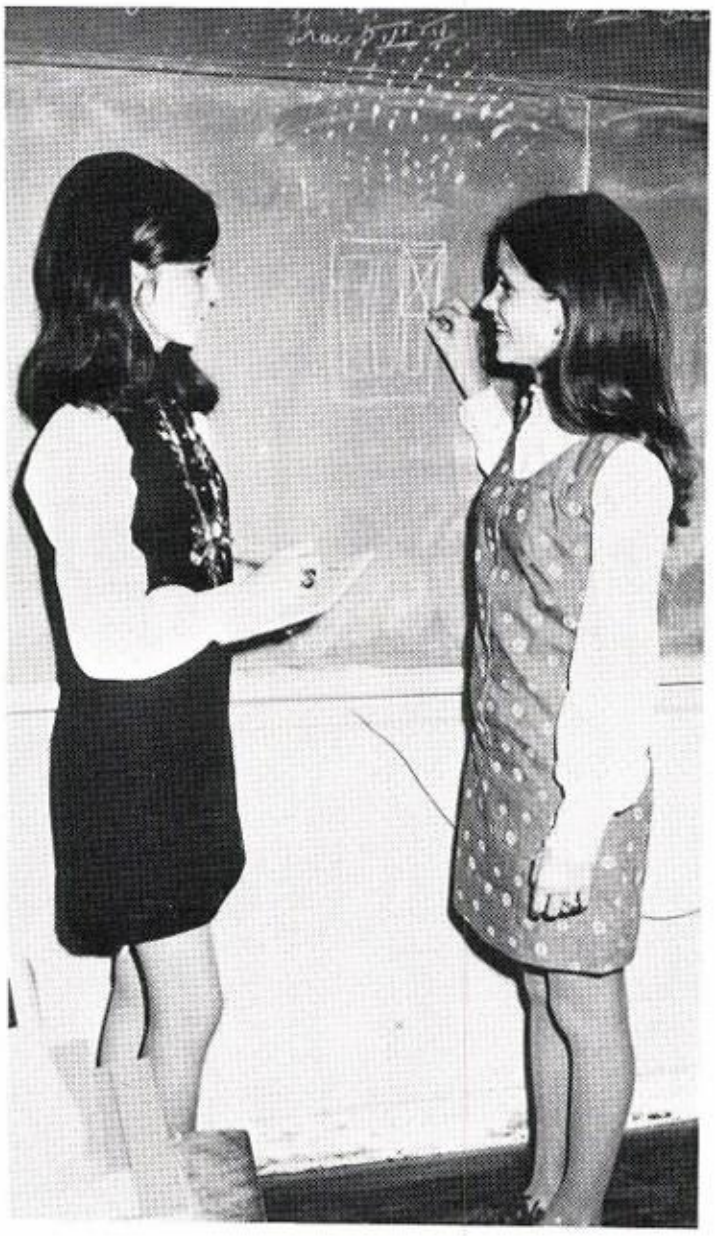
Editor, Ava Dickens, and Copy Editor, Jeanie Fischer, talk with Sponsor, Mrs. Elizabeth Hodges, about 1971 Viesca.



Layout Editor, Brenda Williams, confers with Typists, Gail Thornhill and Jane King.

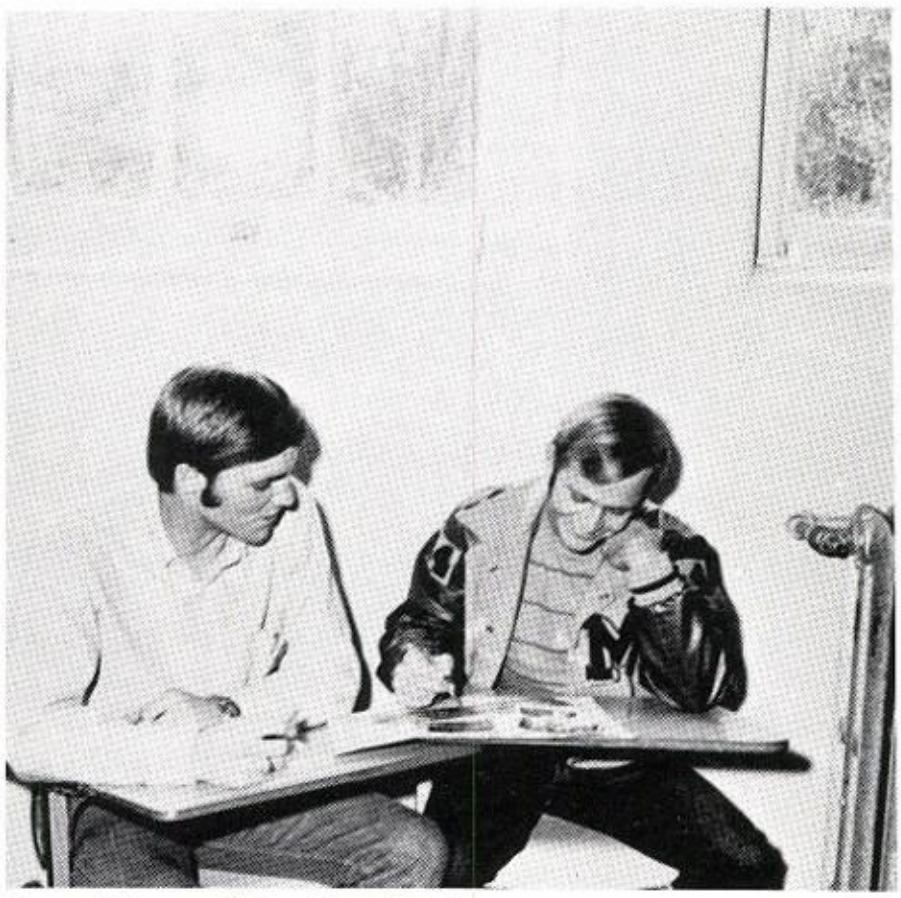
Wanda Estelle, Shiela Kenny, Linda Walker, Debra Weatherspoon, and Diane Gistinger draw up layouts.

Ruth Konz, Cindy Childs, Vicki Blaylock, and Carolyn Torgerson are the Junior representatives on the Viesca staff.

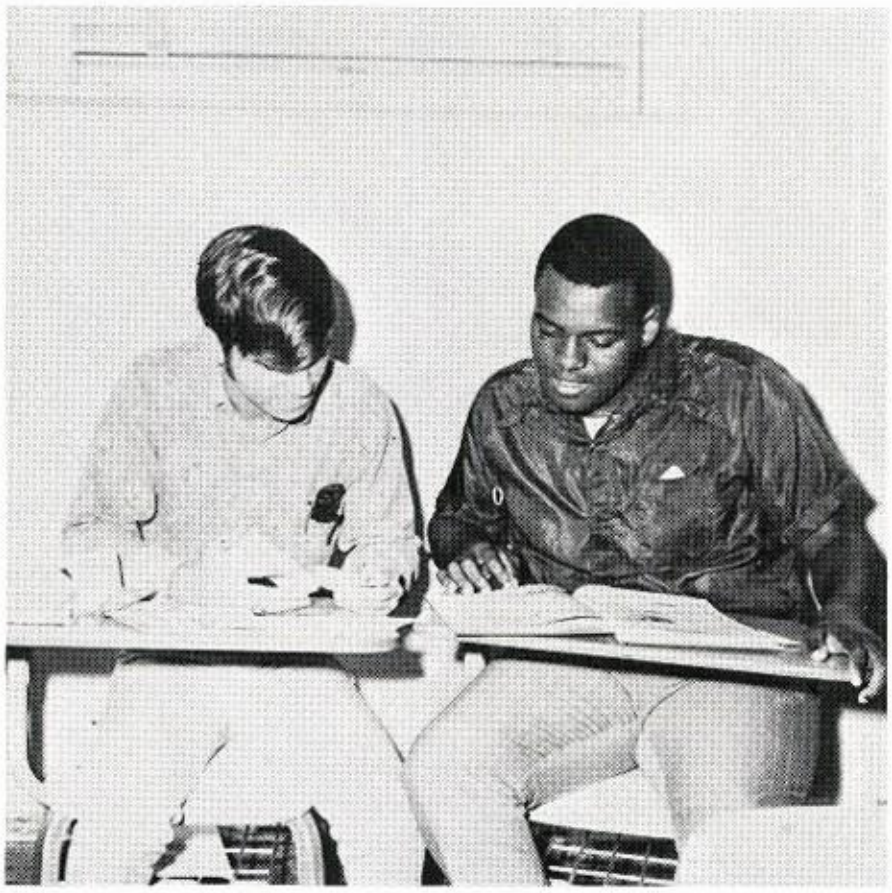


Artists, Polly McKinley and Nanette Hooks plan new layouts.

Photographers, Robert Langley, Jackie Brush, and Jay Chatmas discuss methods of developing pictures.



Scott Hay and Doyle Ethridge write up the sports news.



The business is handled by Business Managers, Randy Troup and James Soders.

The Bulldog

A new face and a new mind could well be the theme of the Bulldog as it was given a complete overhauling by editor Terry Blaylock and her staff. To publish a paper every two weeks, homeroom representatives, sports writers, feature editors, and typists work unceasingly to produce a prize winning product and a steady radiator of spirit.

Teen Gardeners

Flowers are a thing of beauty and the Team Gardeners' aim is to bring this beauty closer to the home. They learn the best cedures for growing garden plants and ways of making artificial arrangements that cast a ray of sunlight inside the home.

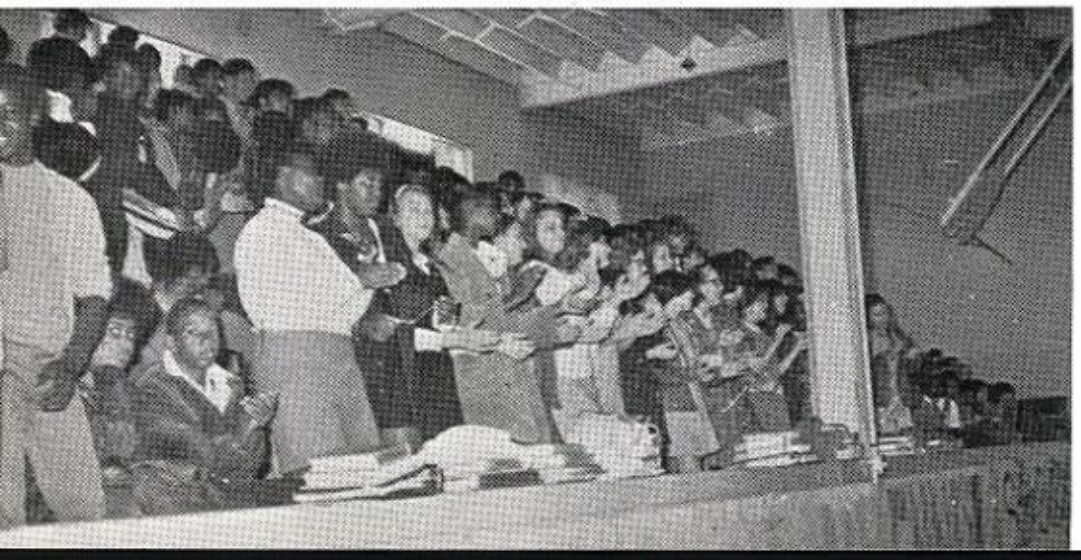
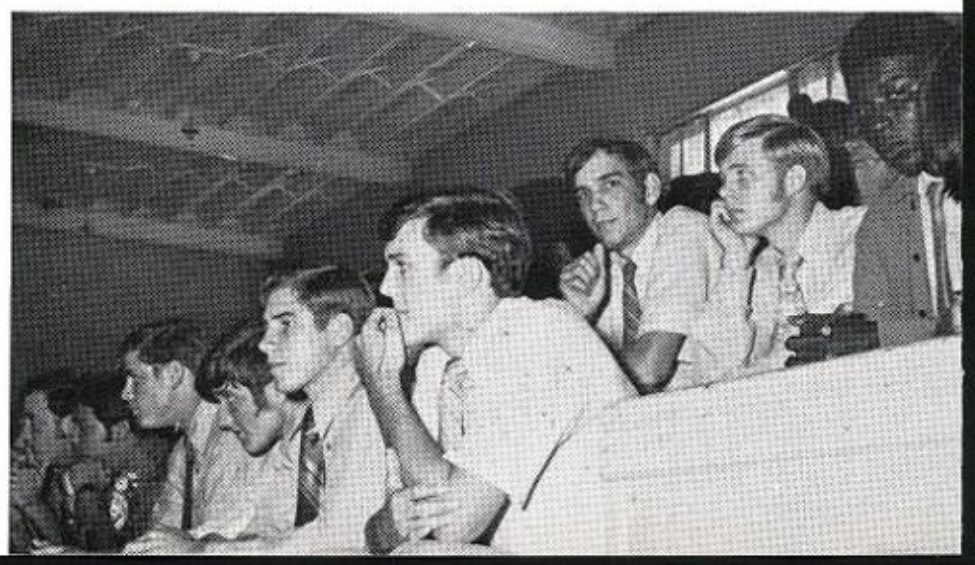
Pep Builders.





Weeks

Vigor and enthusiasm are irreplaceable. This was proven by the pep that students displayed this year at the pep rallies on Friday afternoons and during Spirit Week, as the Candle of Spirit's flicker very nearly became an uncontrollable fire.

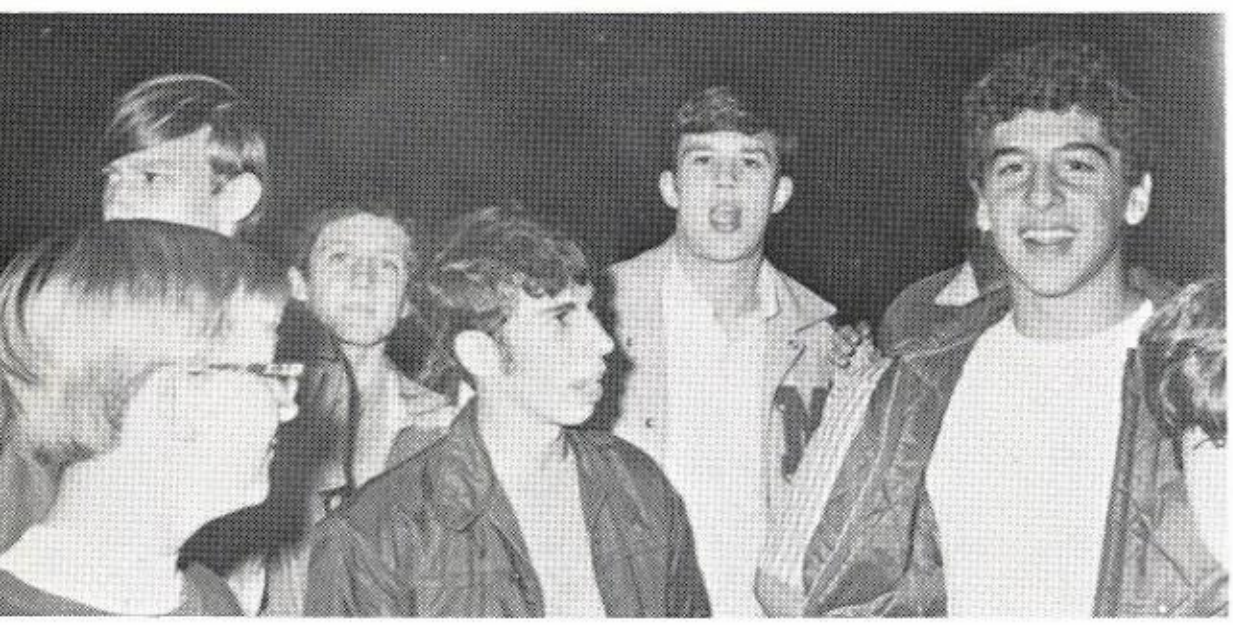
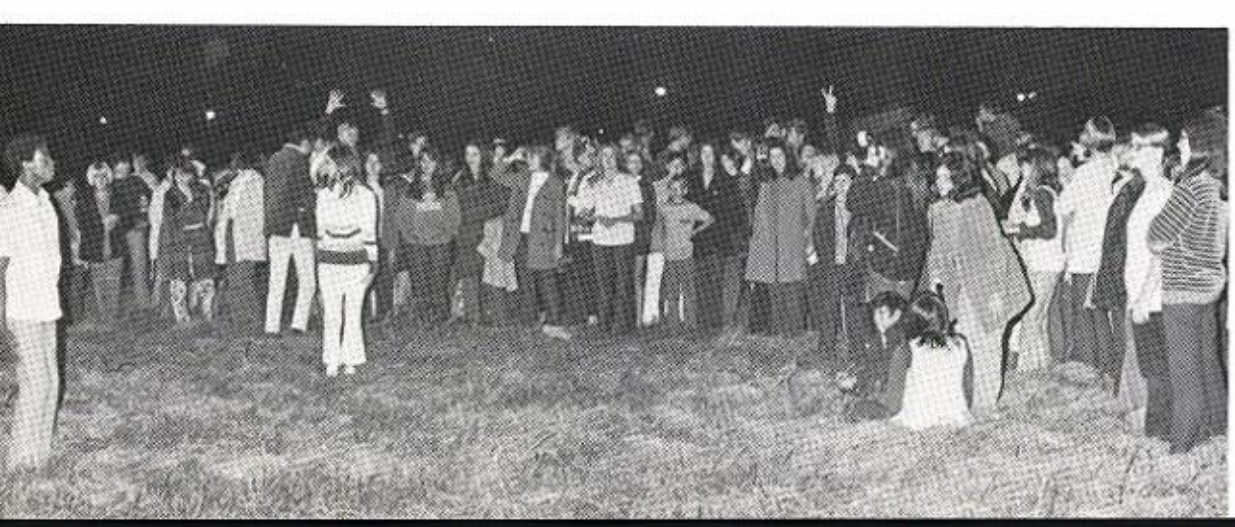
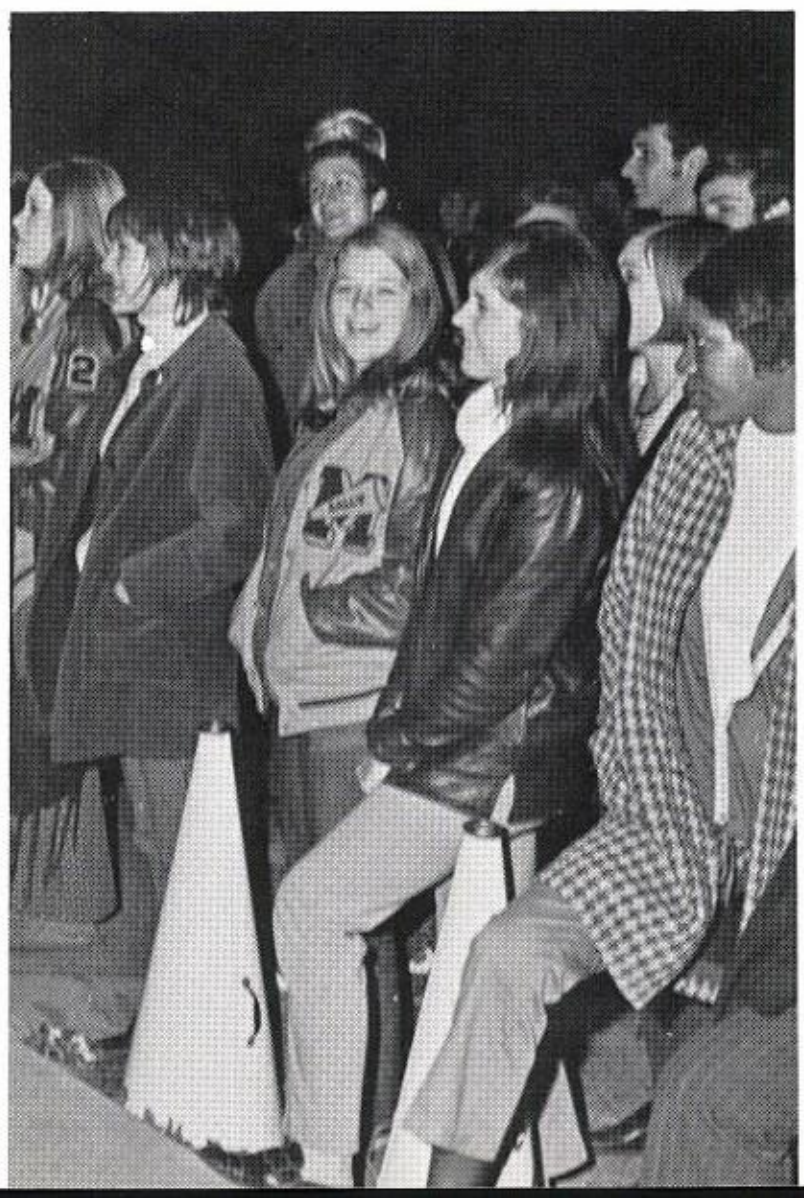
Hey, you guys, show some spirit! Bravoh!

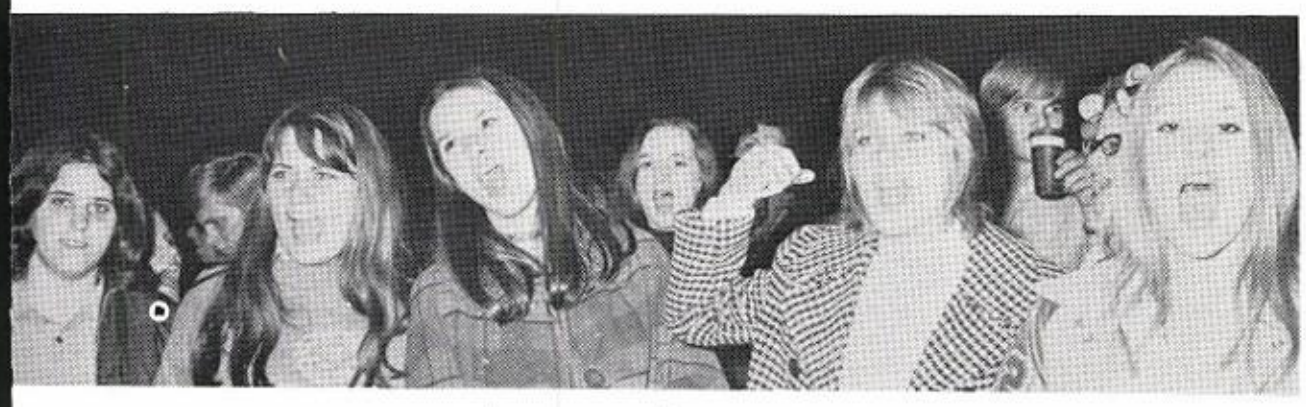






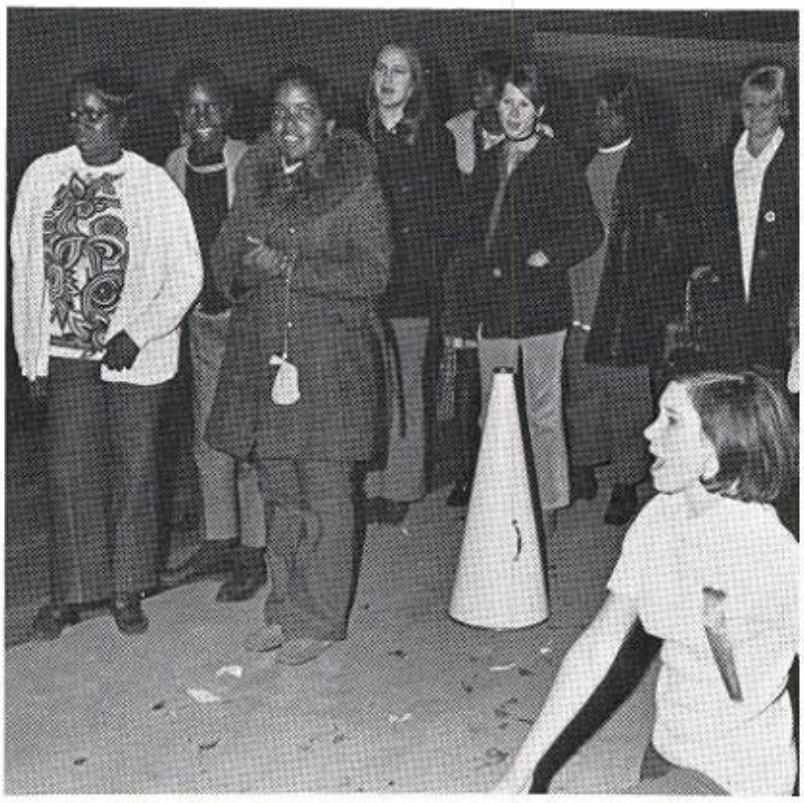
Vitality

The Thursday night pep rallies and bon fire were greatly responsible for the tremendous spirit that permeated Marlin High this year.



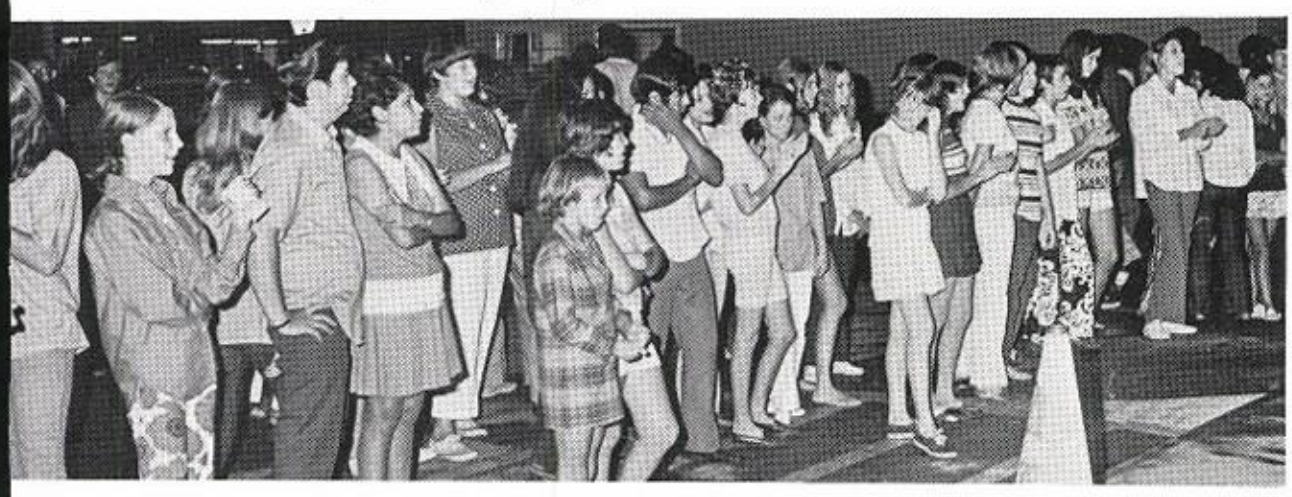
Who says we have cavities?

We've got spirit!

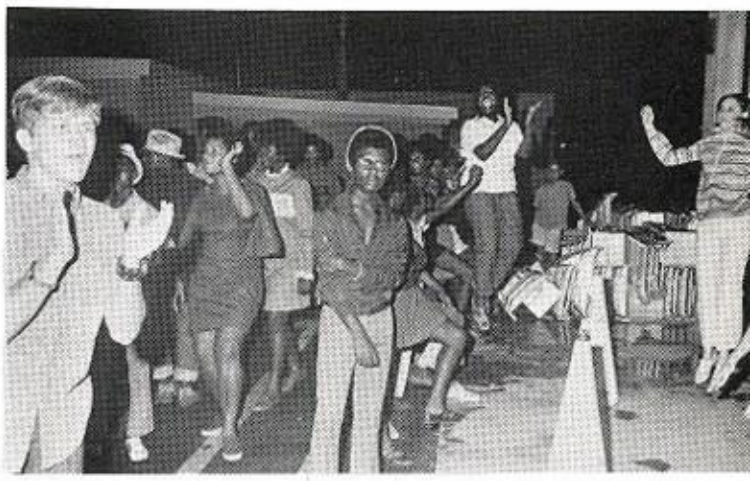


Is Diane pleading for spirit?

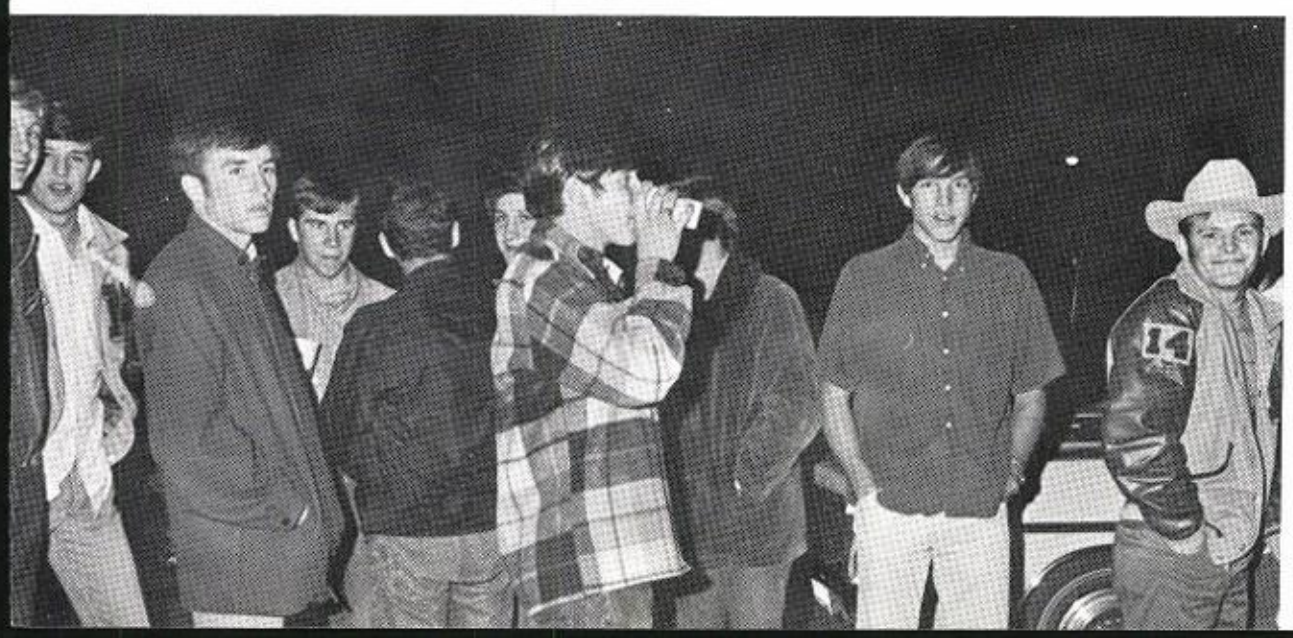
Bonfire + Spirit = Snake dance

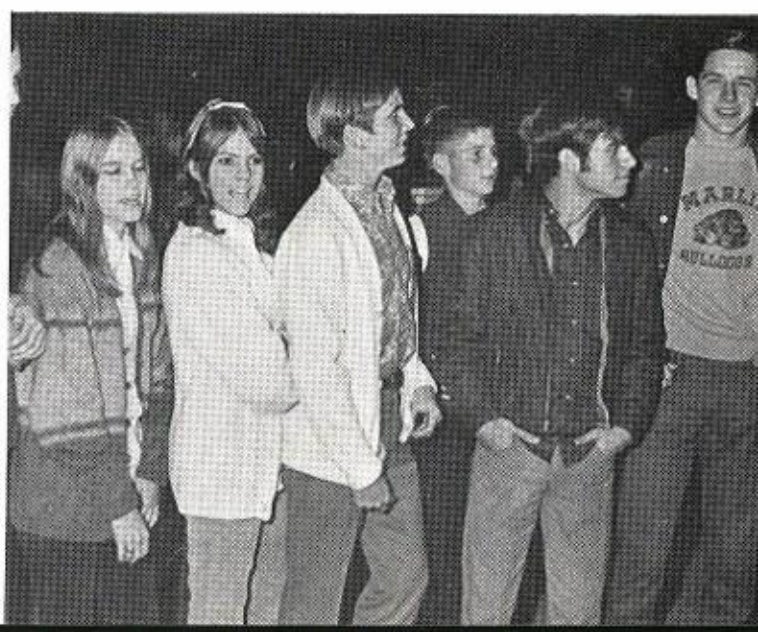


And spirit spreads to all!

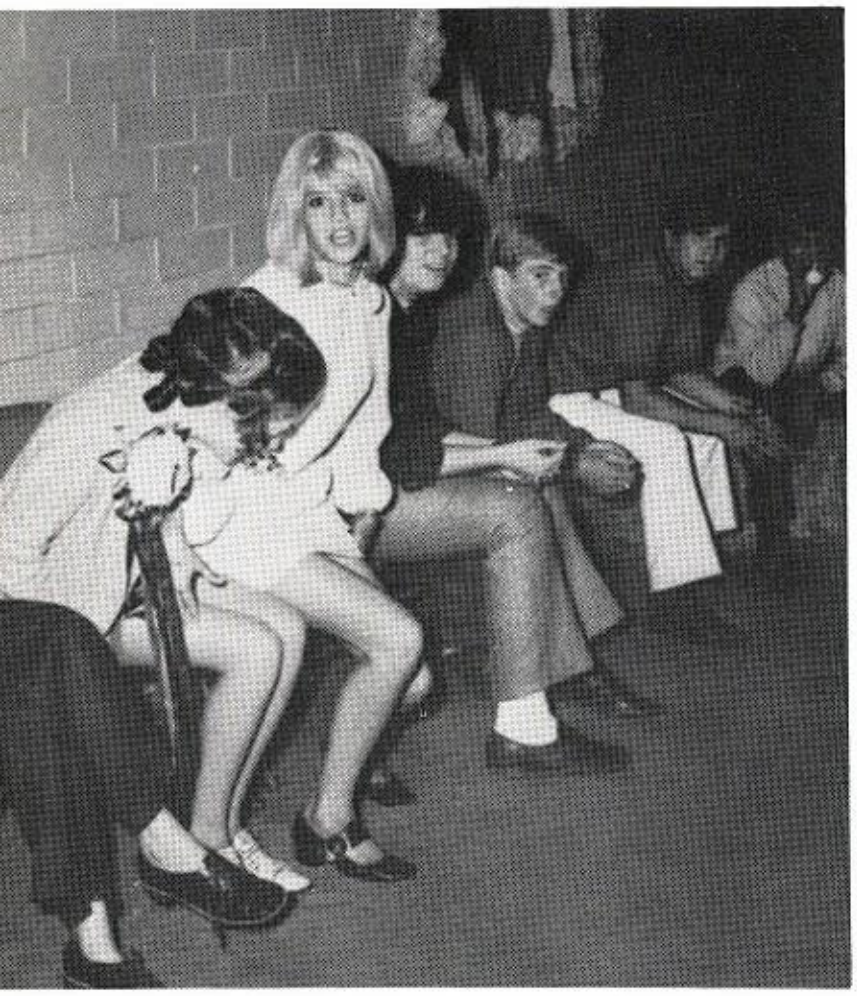


C'mon, Artis. Catch the spirit!

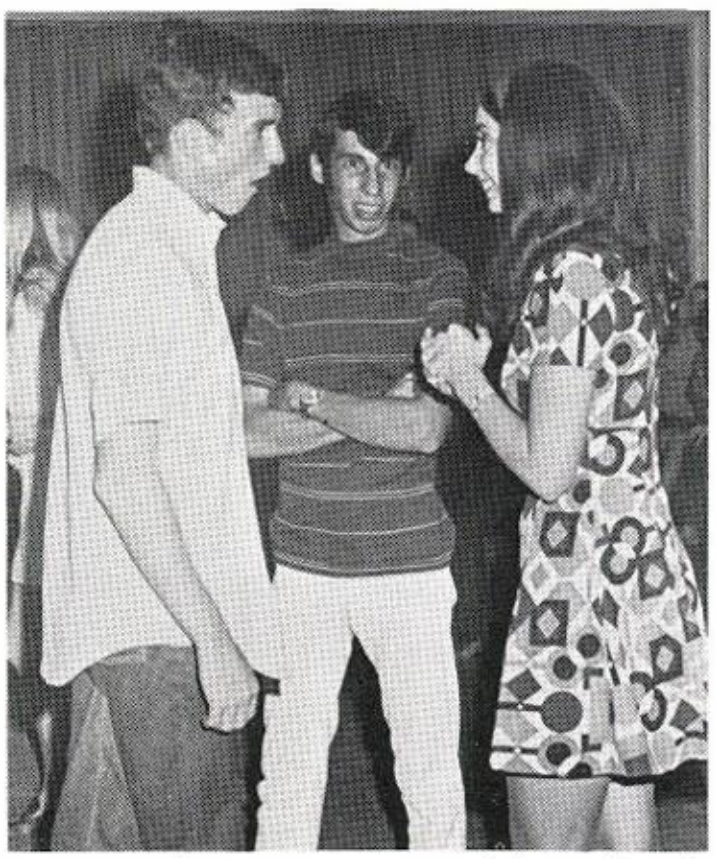




Mix, Mingle, Relive,

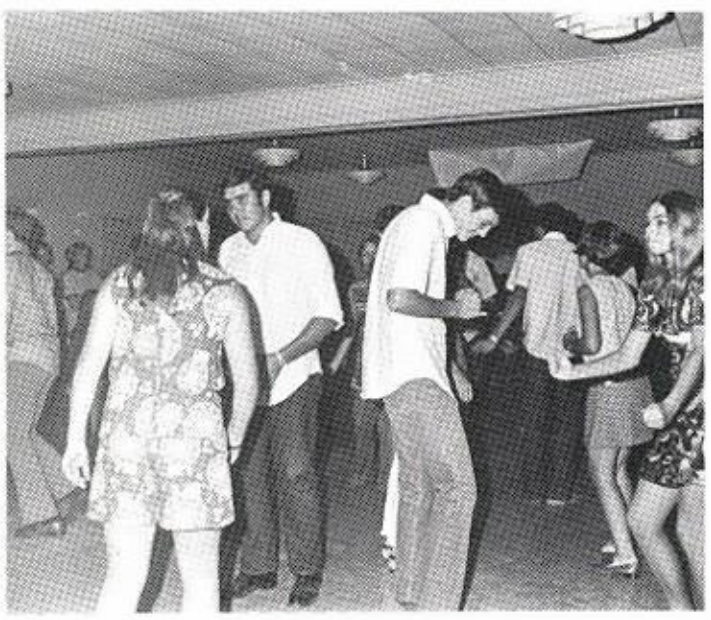


On your mark, get set, GO!



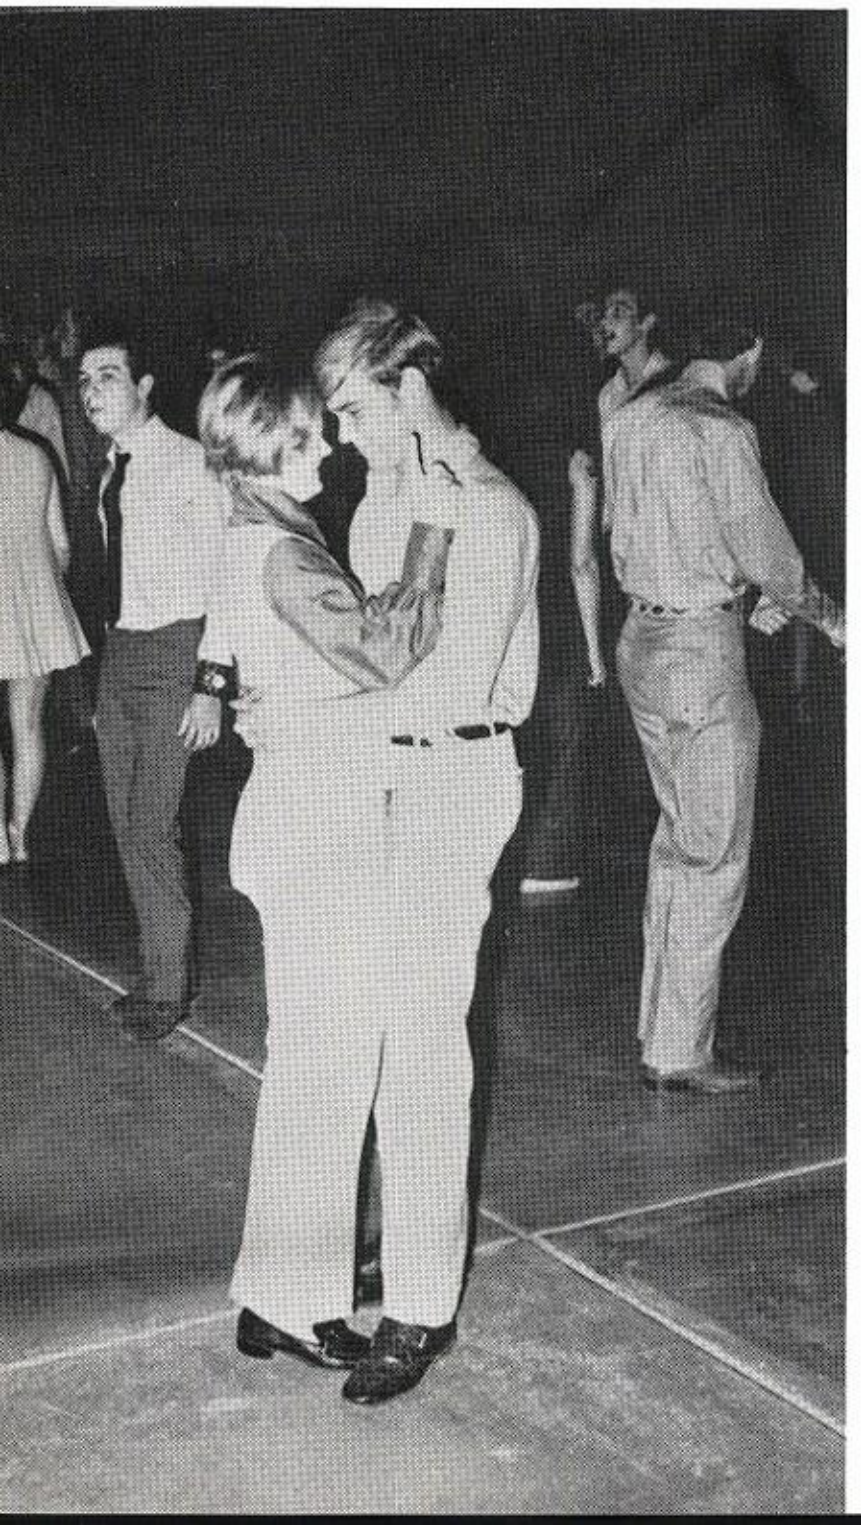
Ava, you don't expect me to believe that do you?

Maybe if I pull it, it'll grow faster!

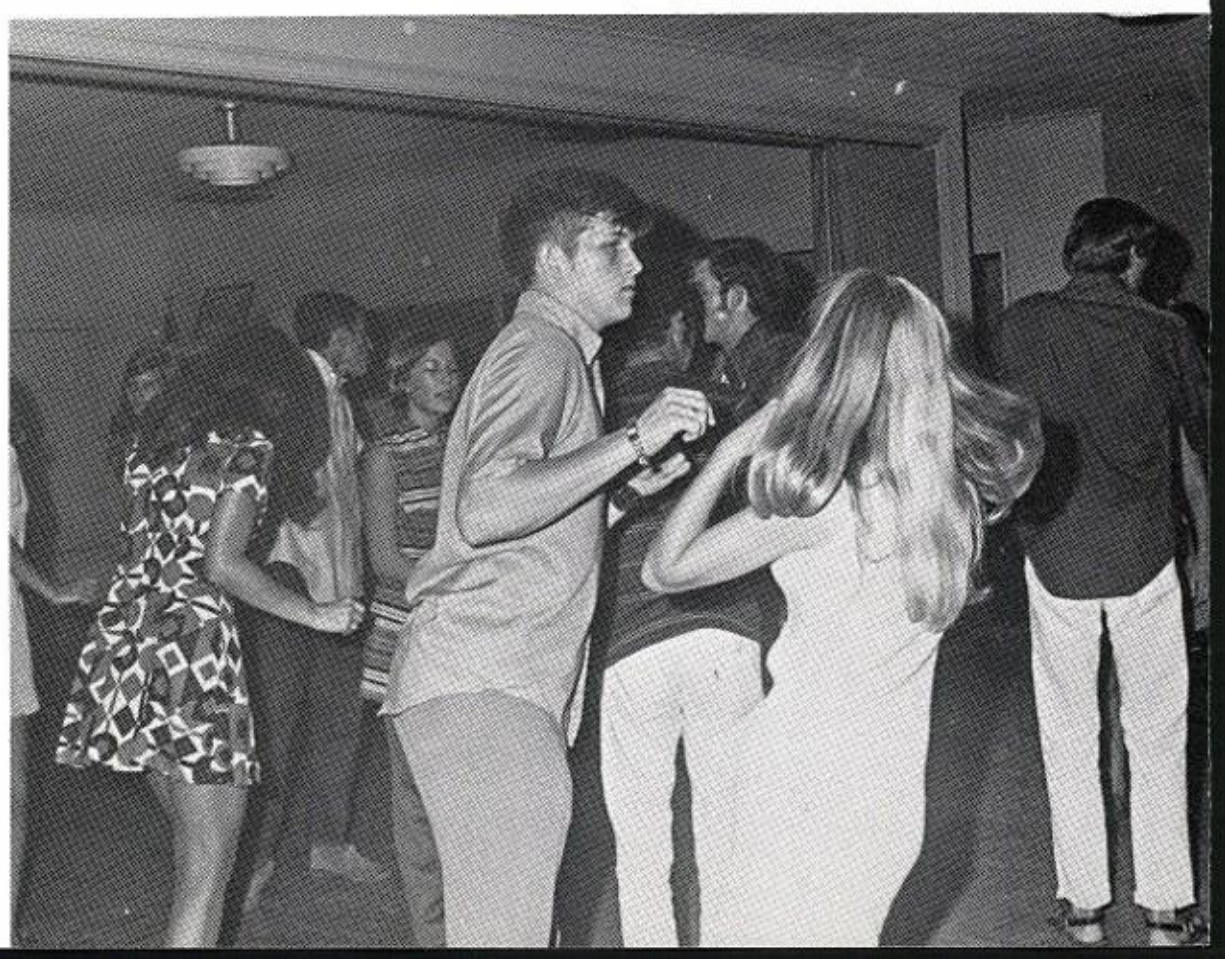


Dance to the music!

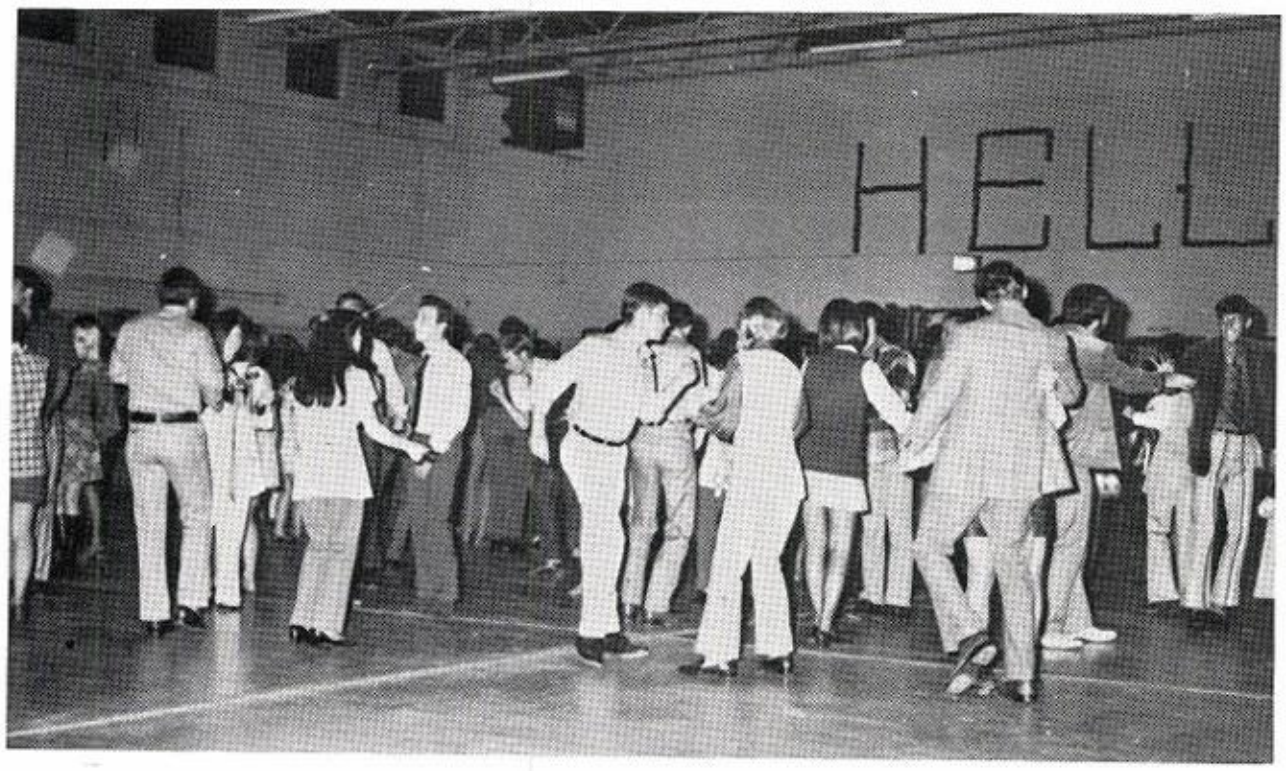
Happiness is . . .



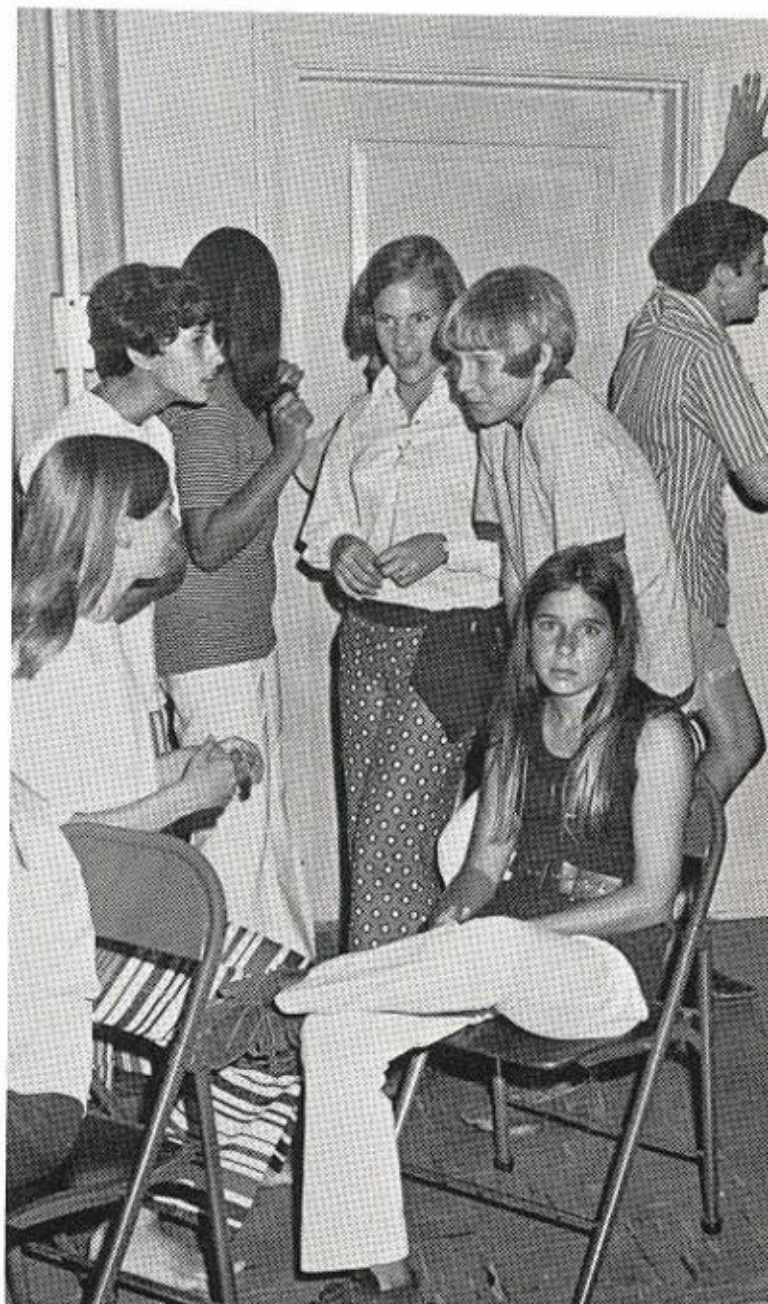
This is dancing?



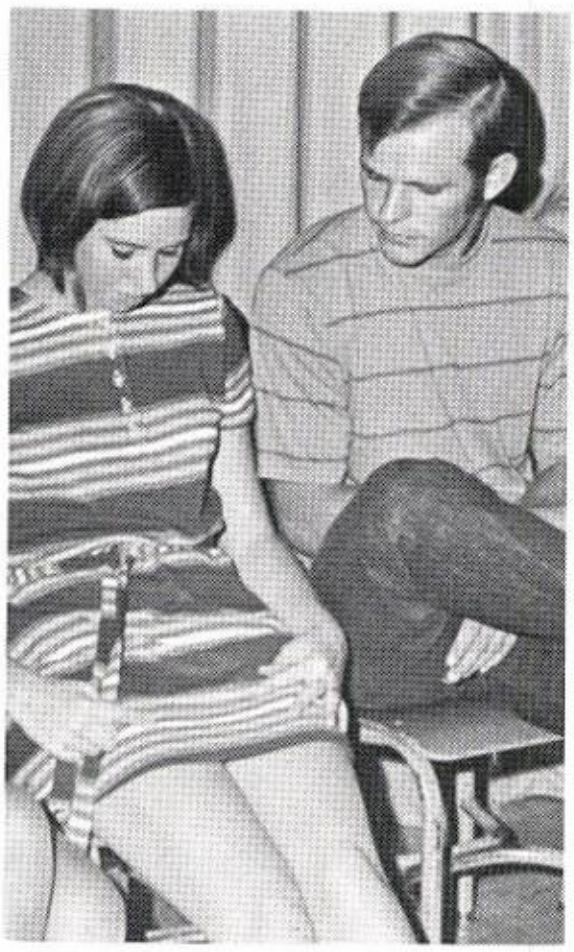
Rejoice!



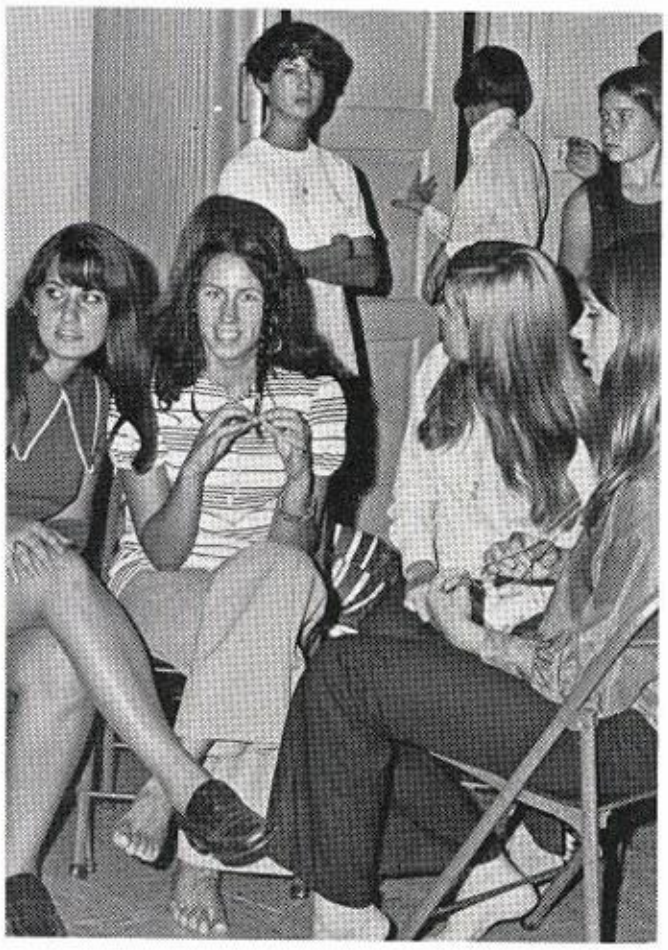
Gettin' it together



Ah, c'mon Mary Ann. Is it that bad?



Aw, Diane. It's not that short!



Gossip corner!

Do you really think she's after me?

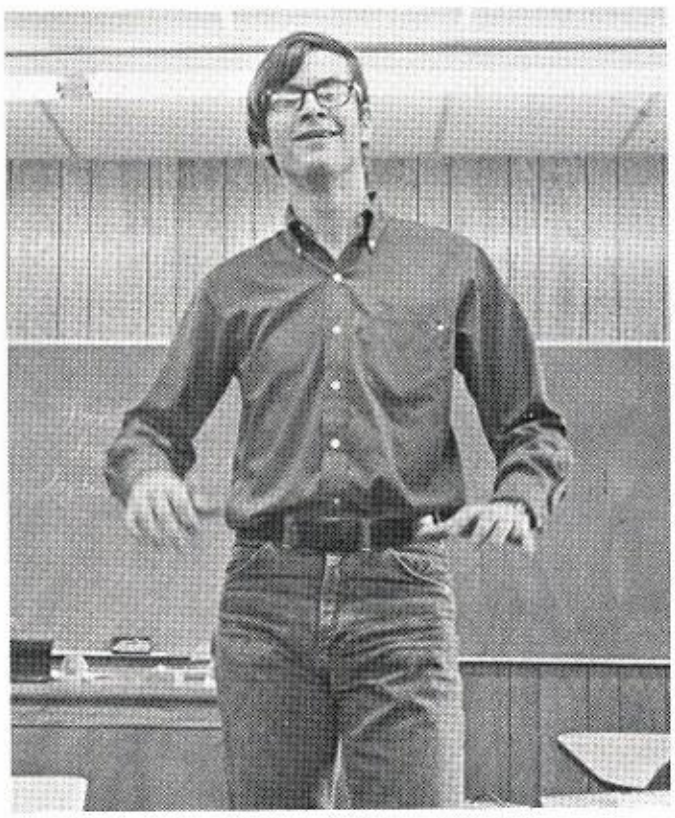
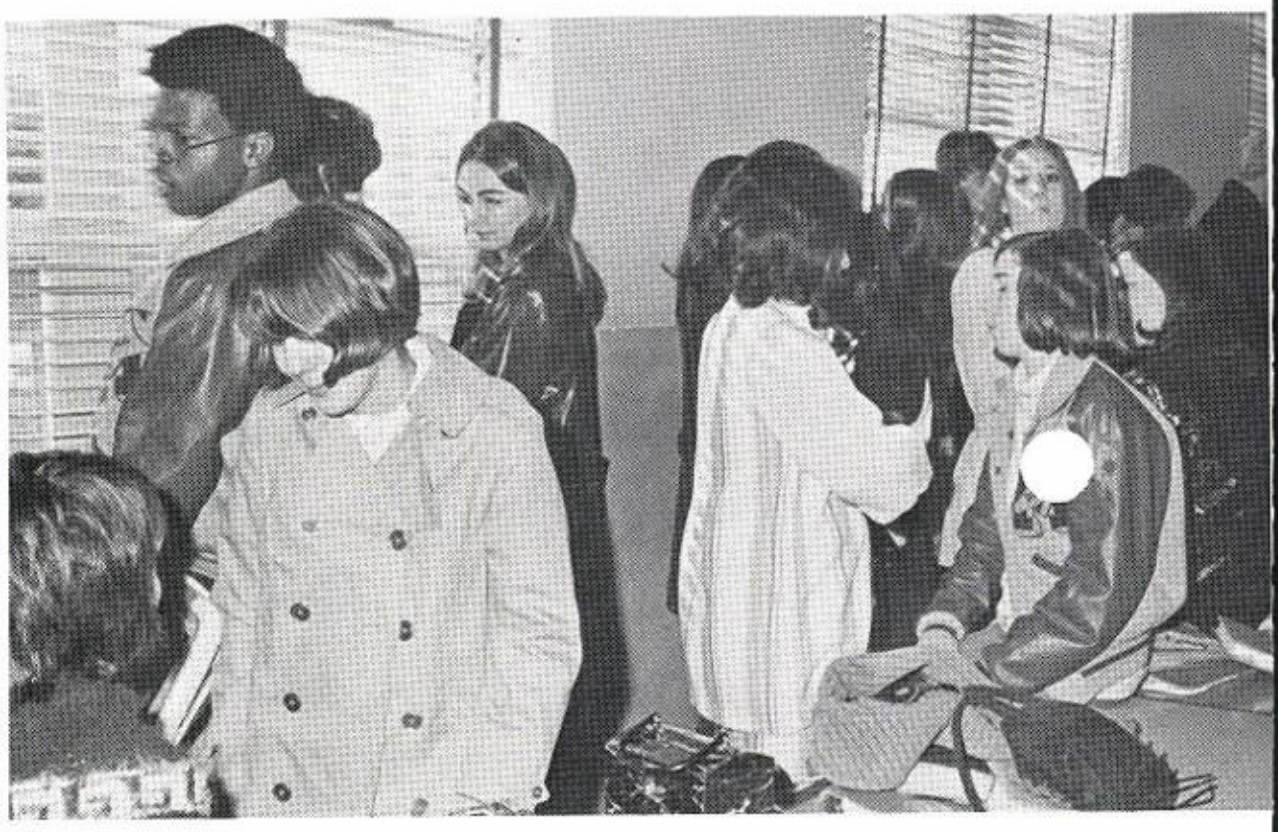
Break— Ten Minutes of

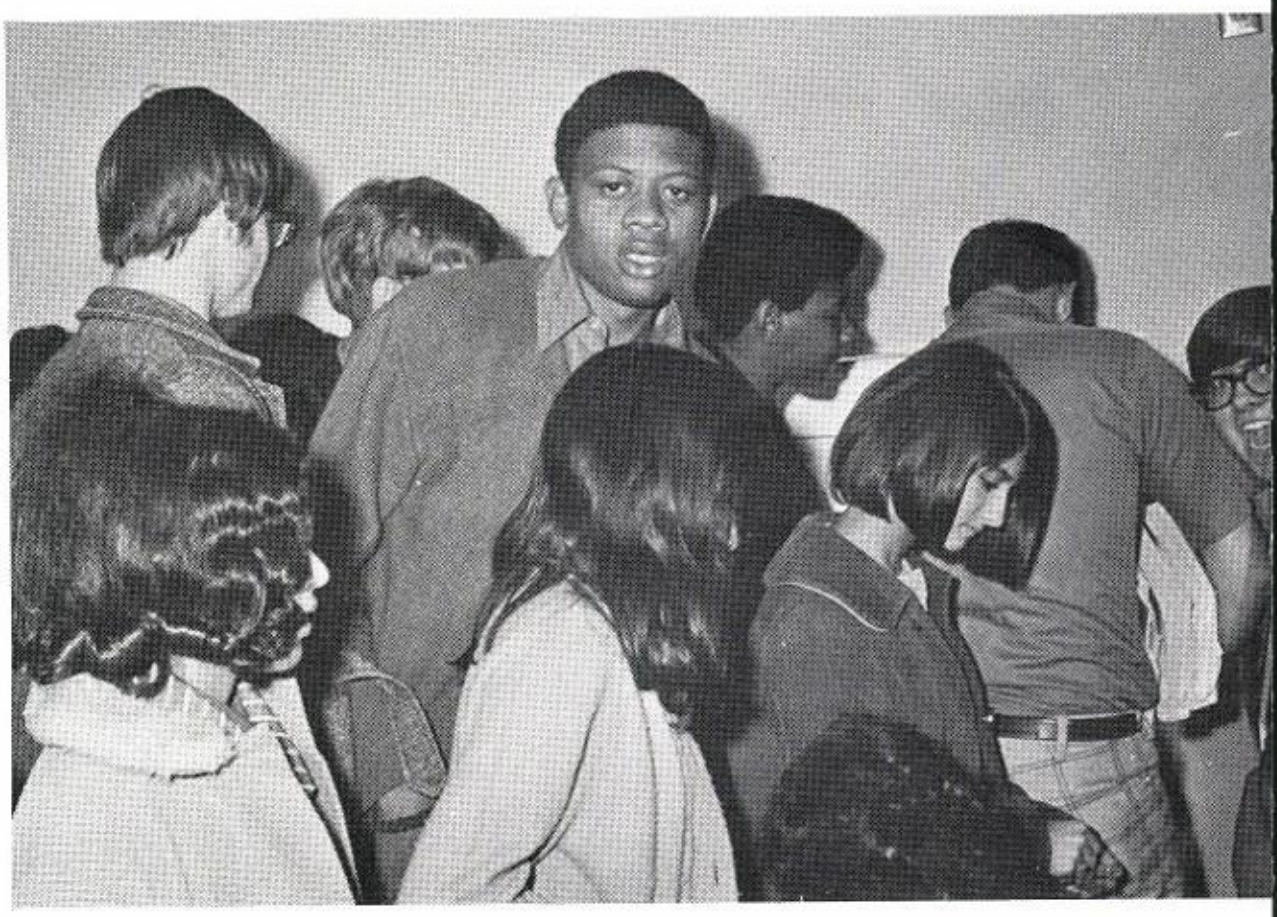


Break! Break! When's Break?

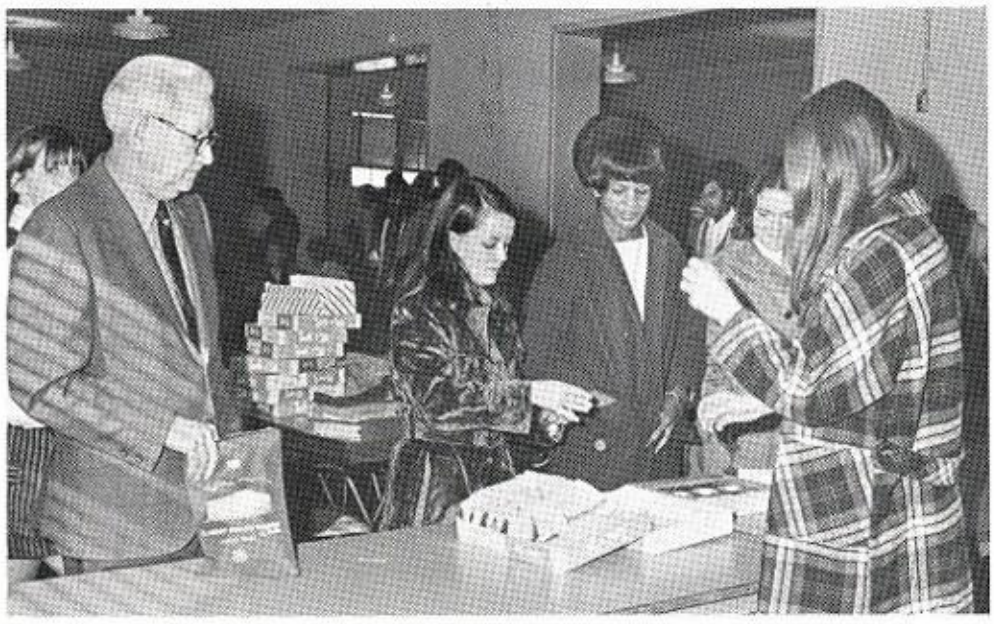


Ten minutes of relished relaxation!

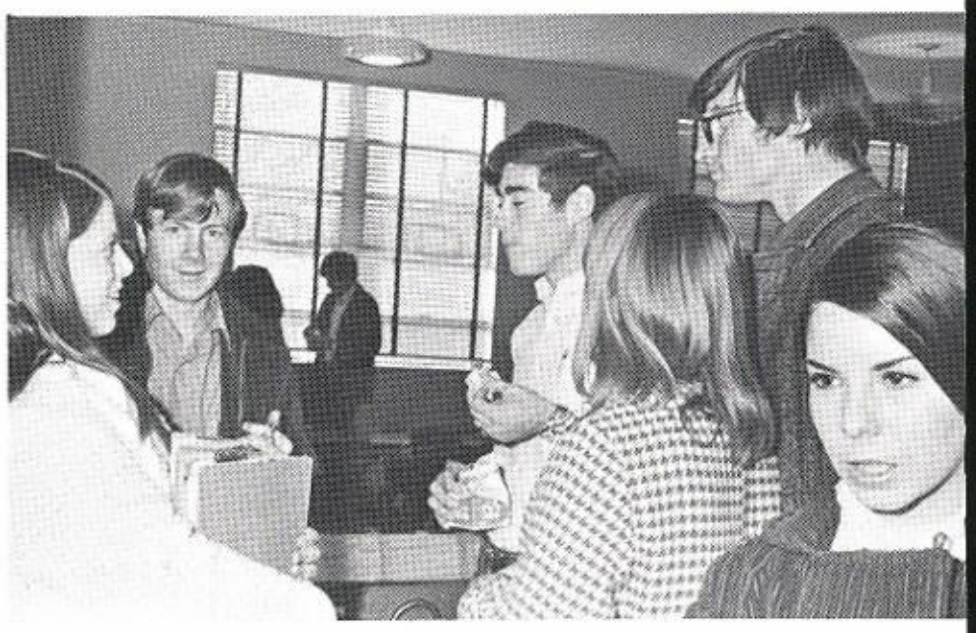
Friends are good for sharing.



Will I EVER make it to the machine?

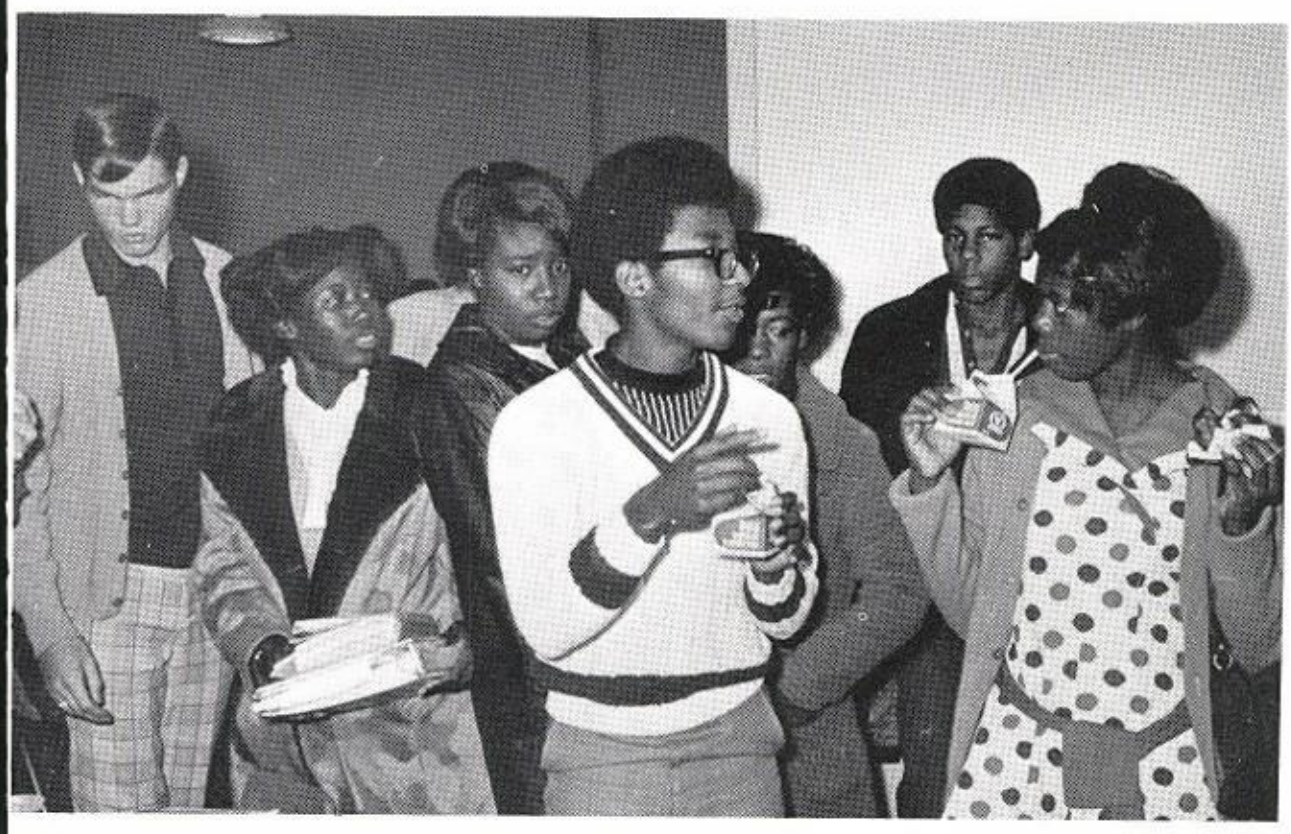


Every penny counts!

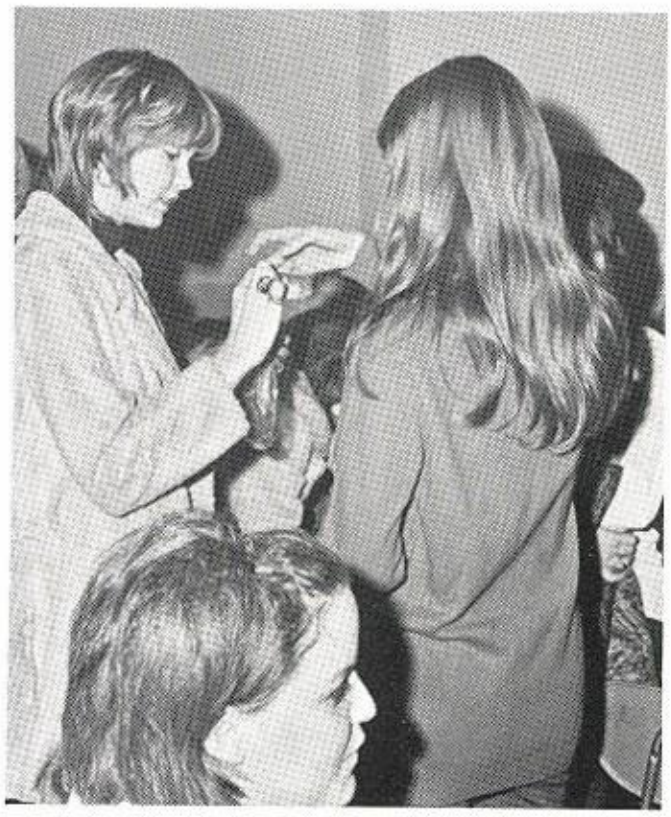


Easing hunger pangs!

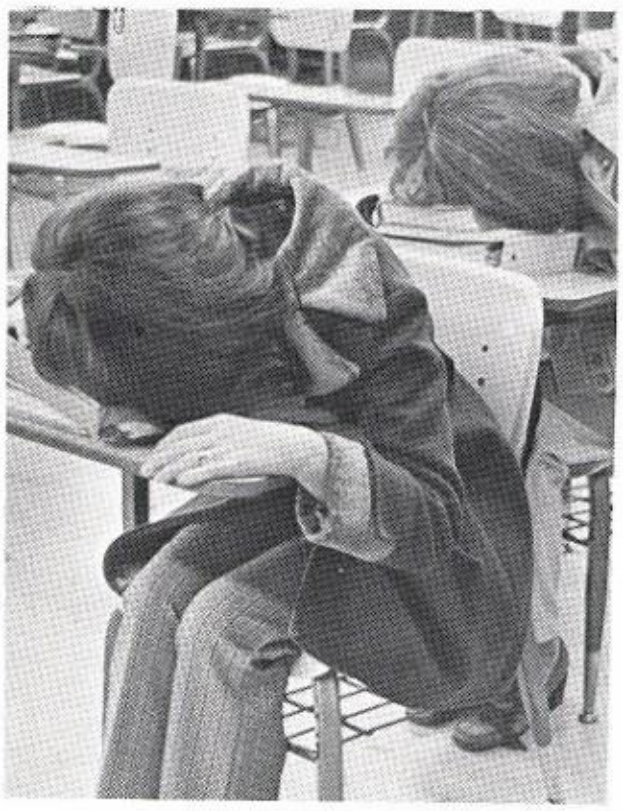
Relighting Your Wick!



May I dunk your doughnut in my milk?

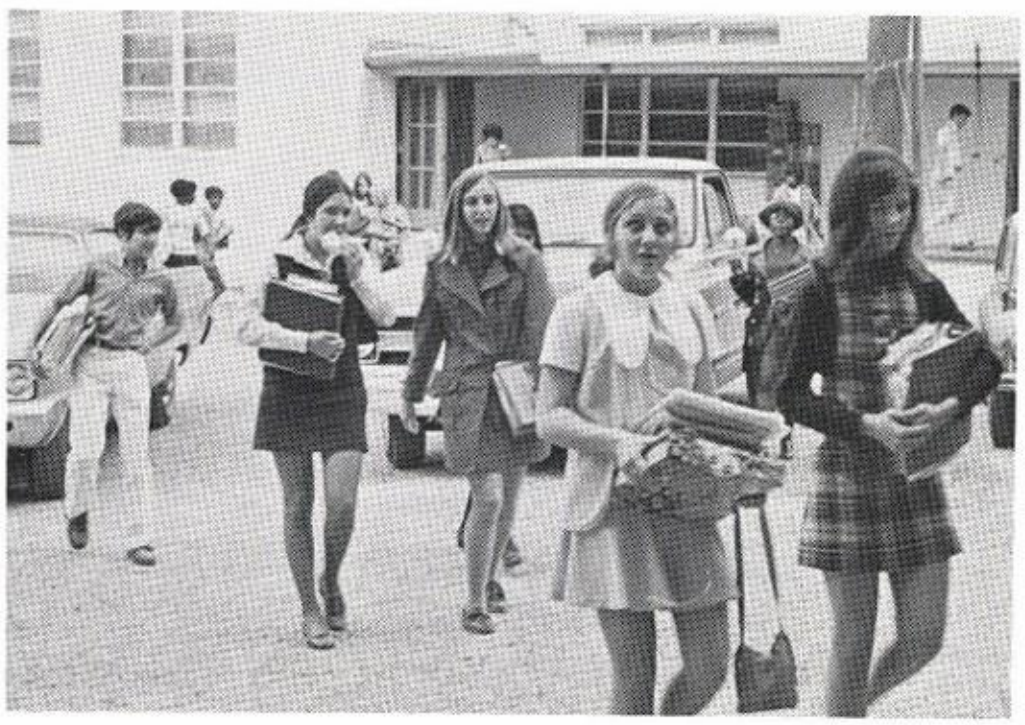


Don't take so much!

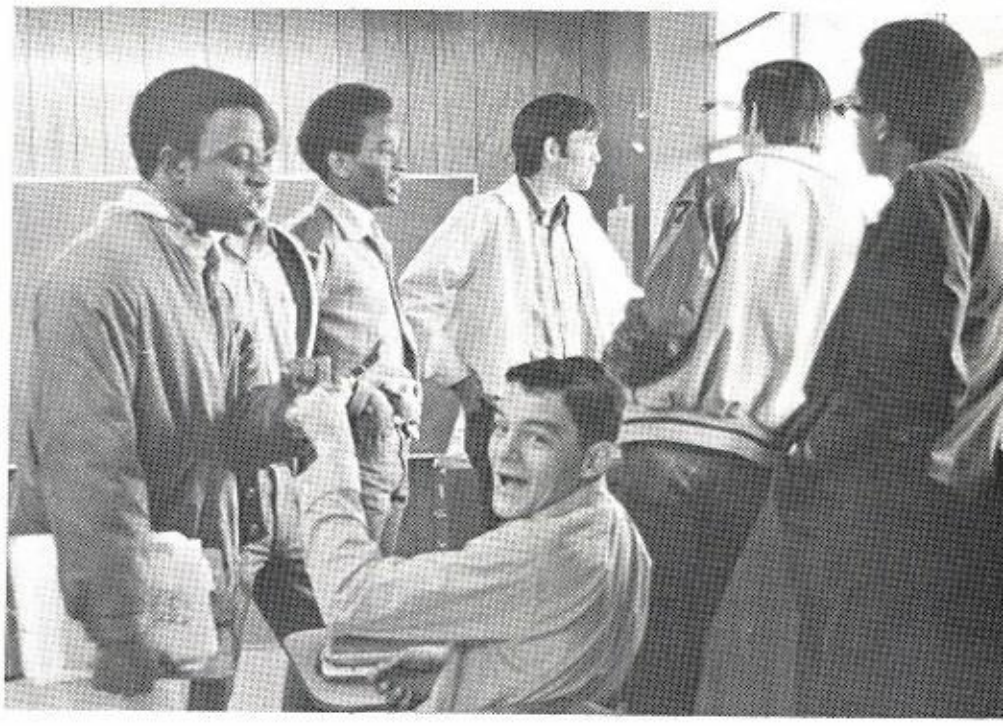


Catching a Quickie!

Break is being with others!



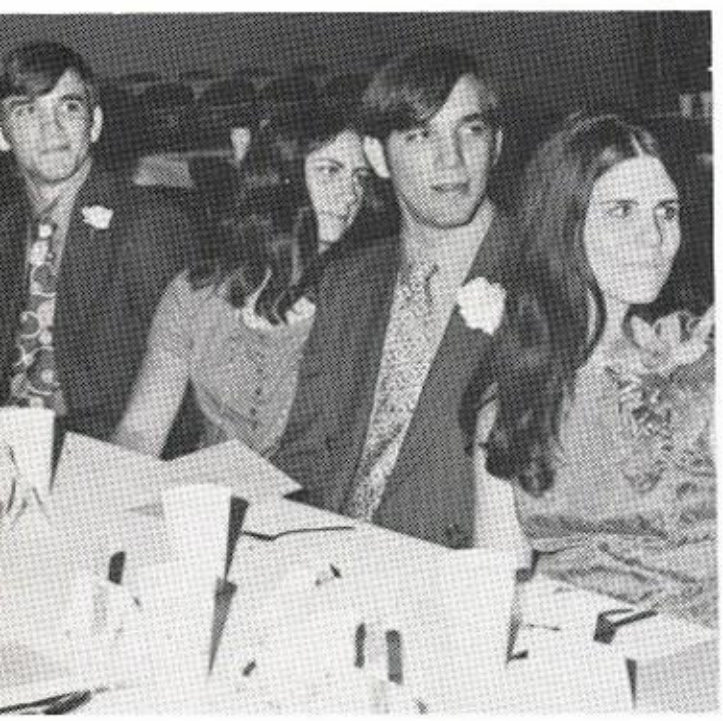
. . . then, back to the drawing board!

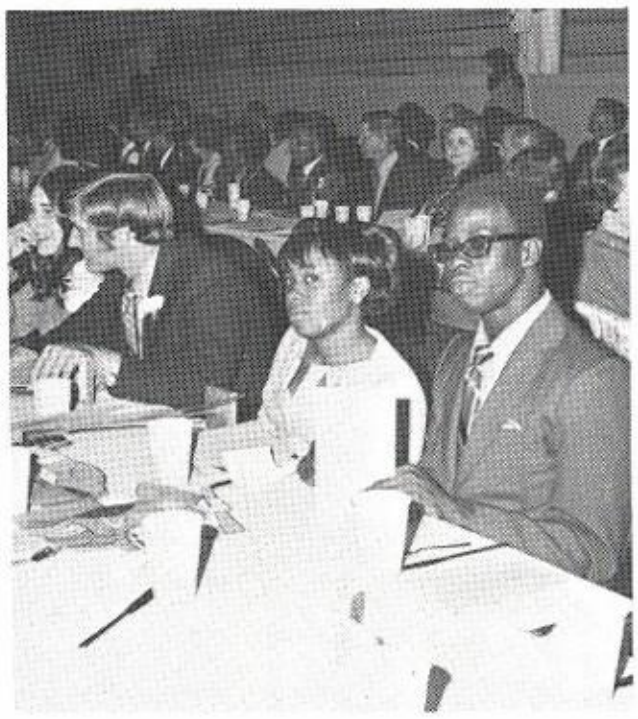


Boys: Break is over! Donald: Class is beginning!

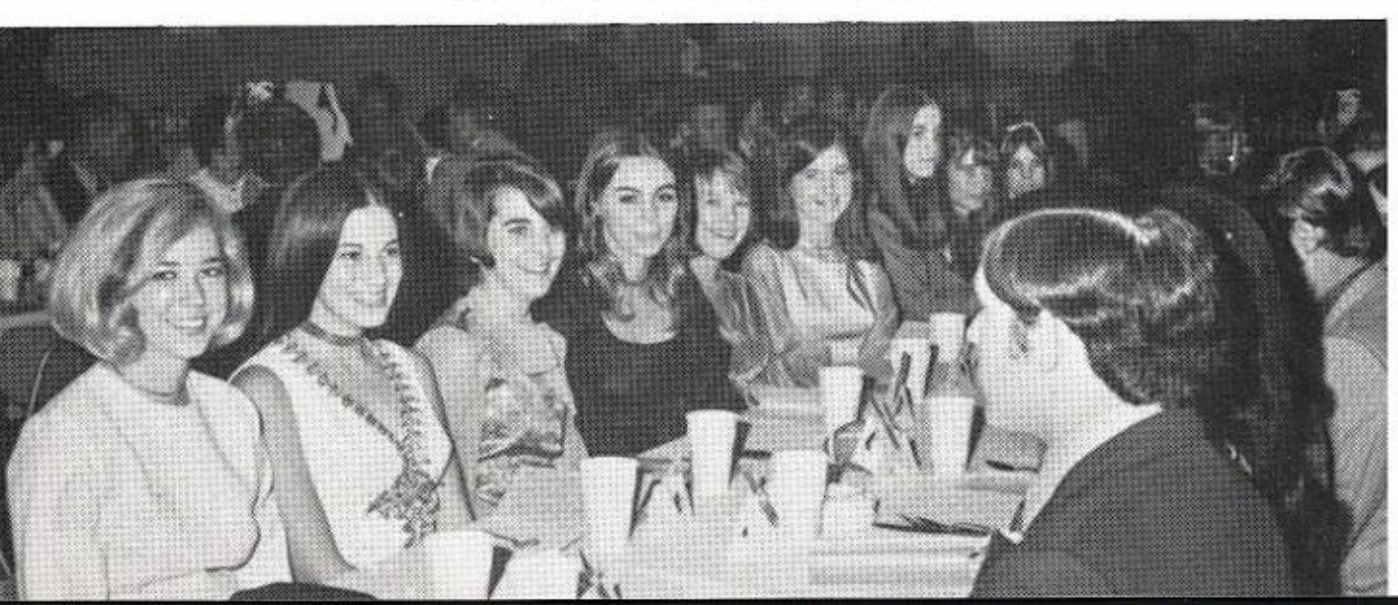
Of course we're enjoying ourselves!

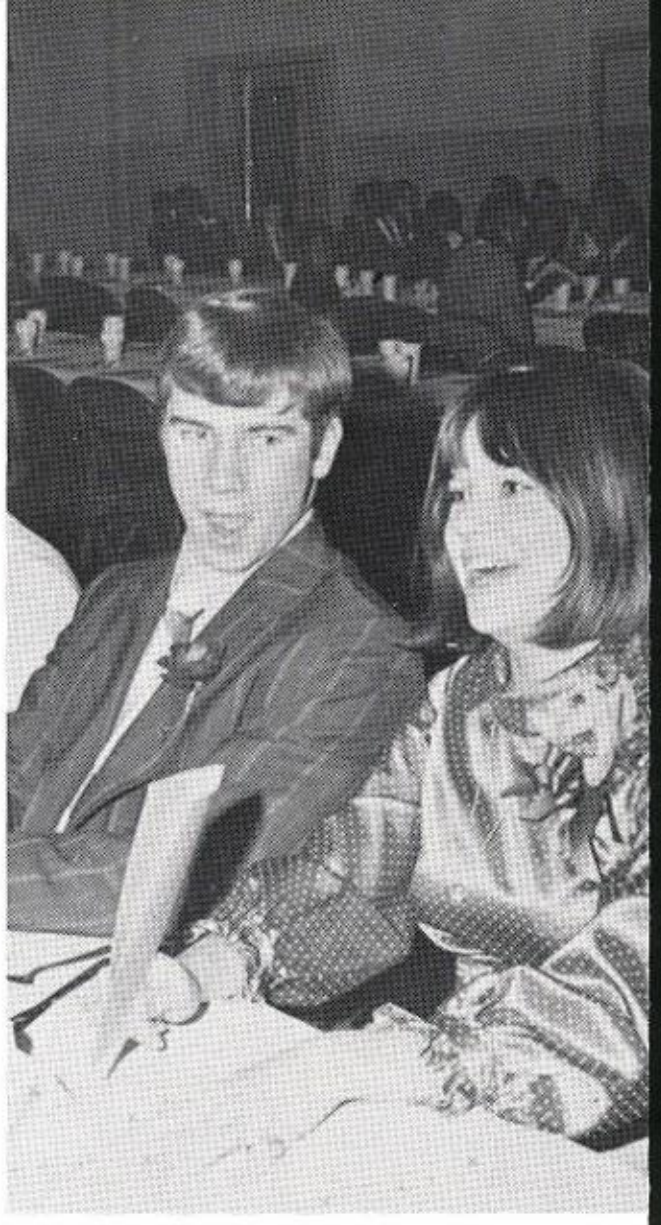
I hope the speaker is good!



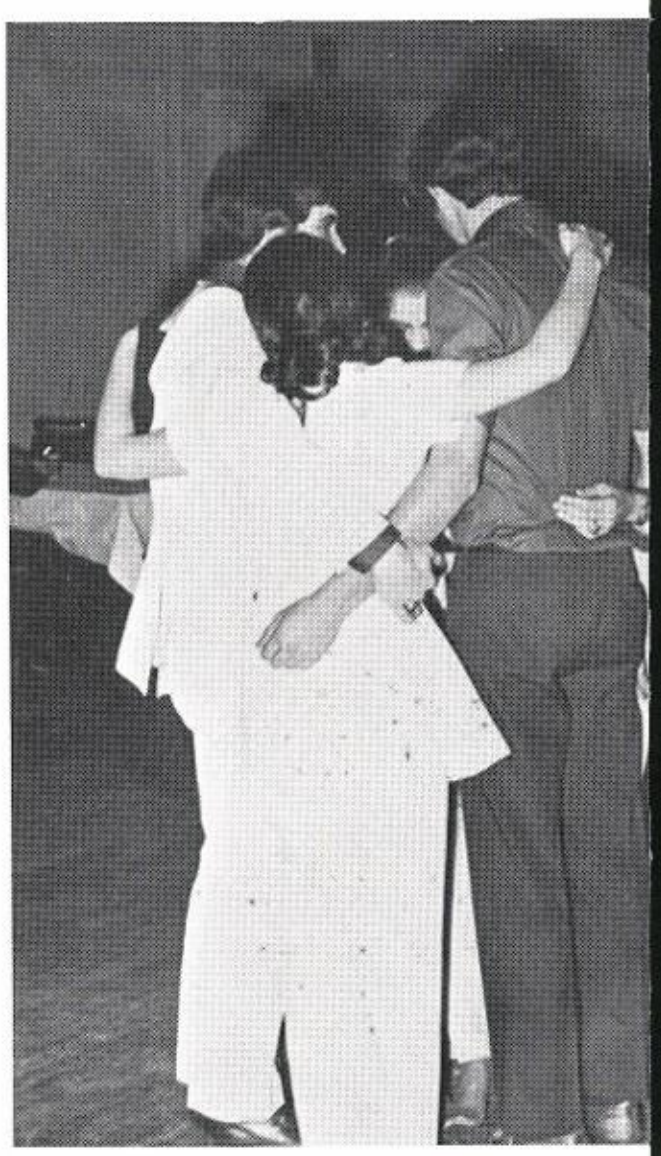


Such beautiful belles and beaus!



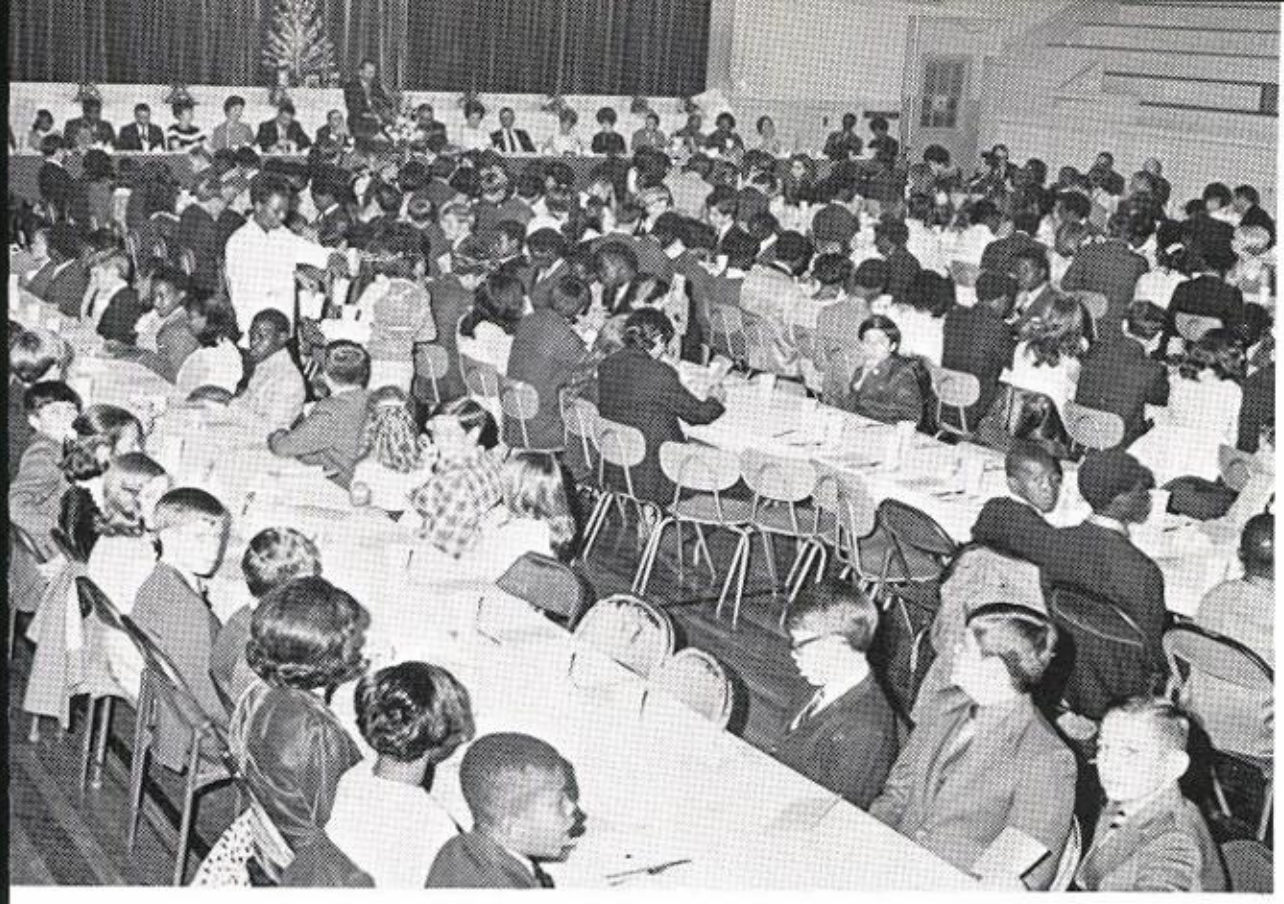


Sing along with Dottie and David!

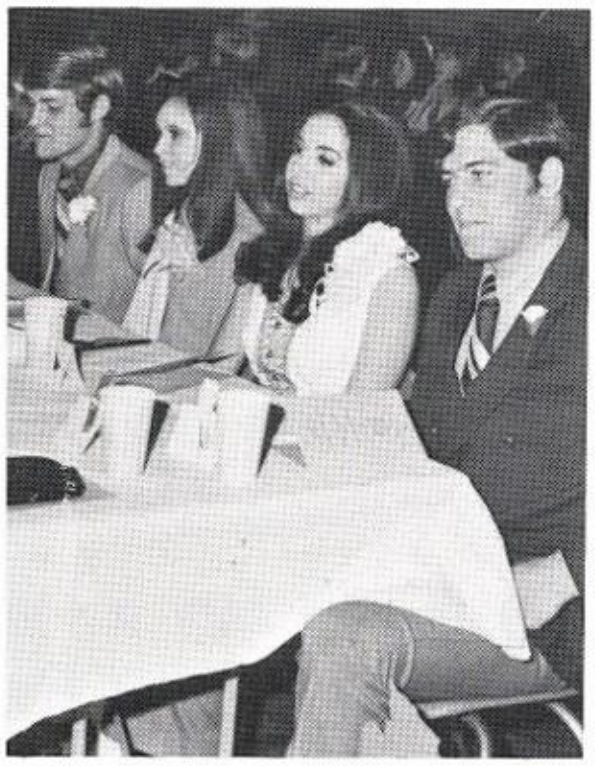


United we stand!

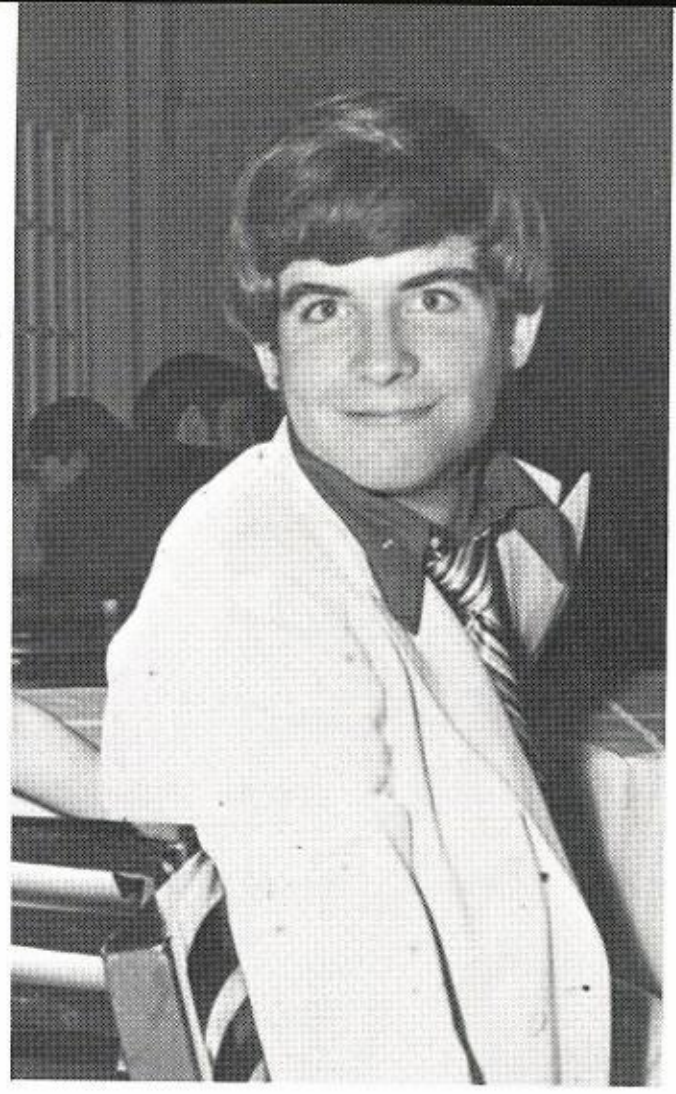
Gentlemen, observe the stag line!



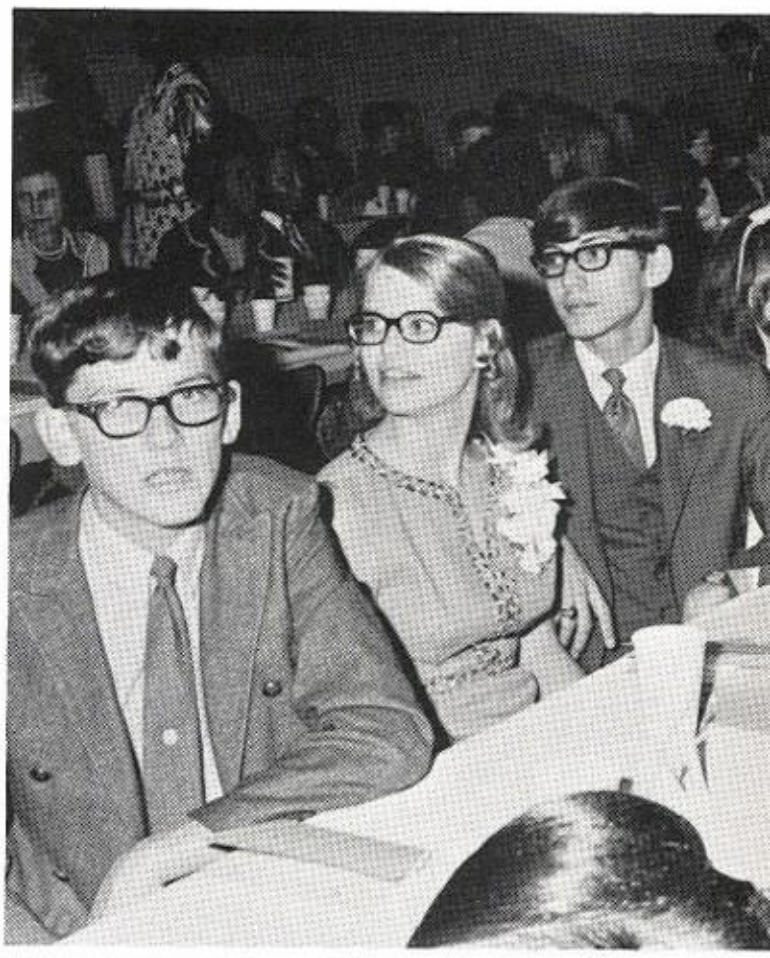
A bird's eye view!

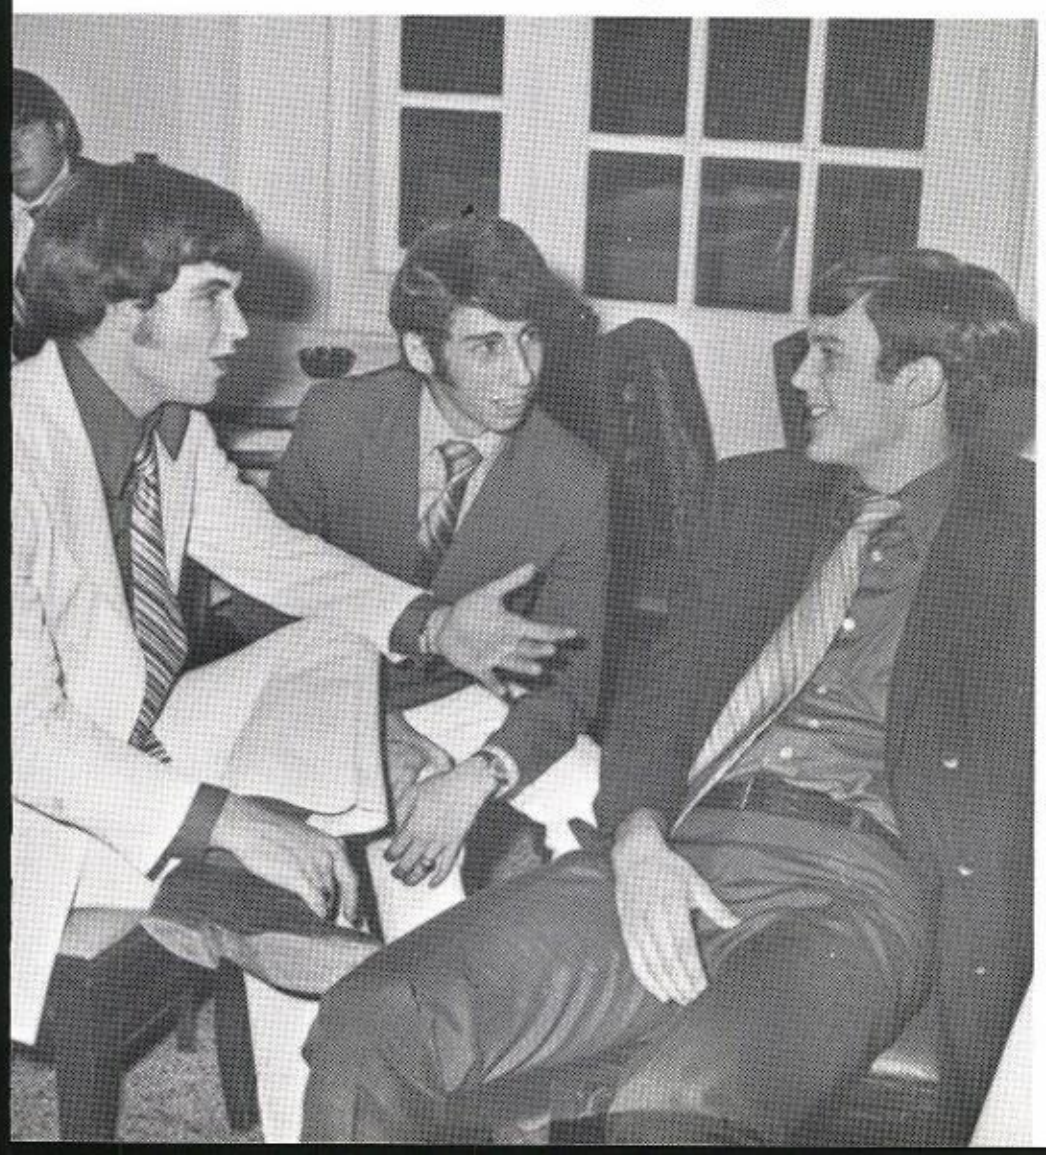


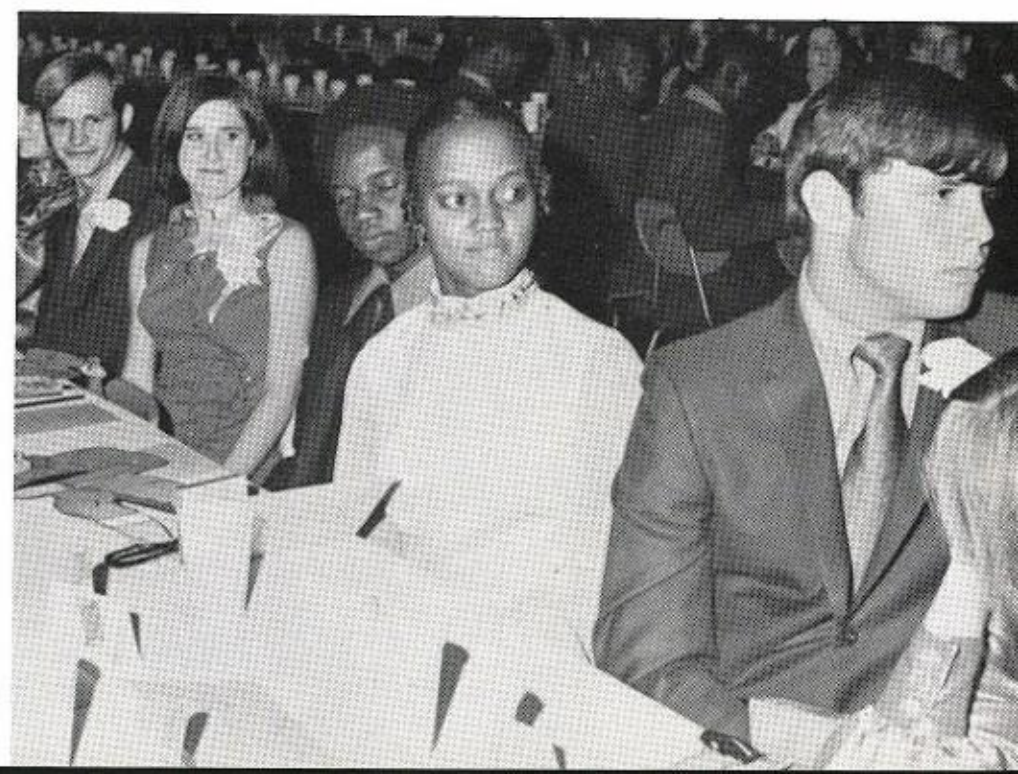
Boy, sure wish they'd bring the food!



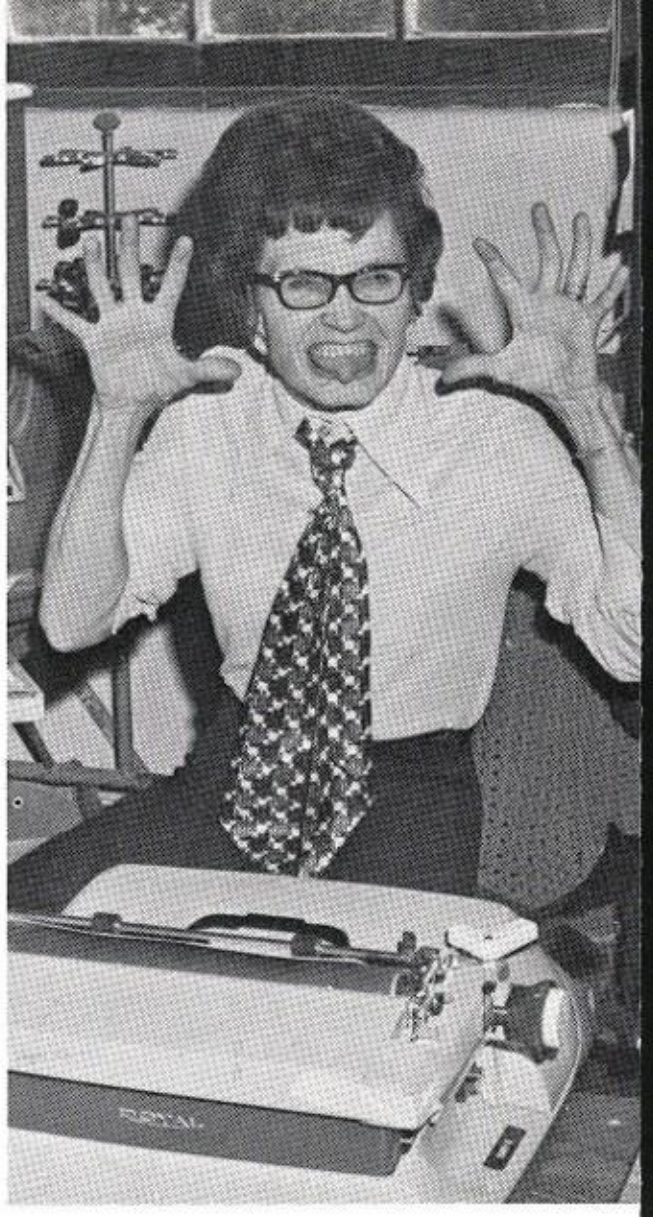
Susie's enjoying her first Marlin dance!

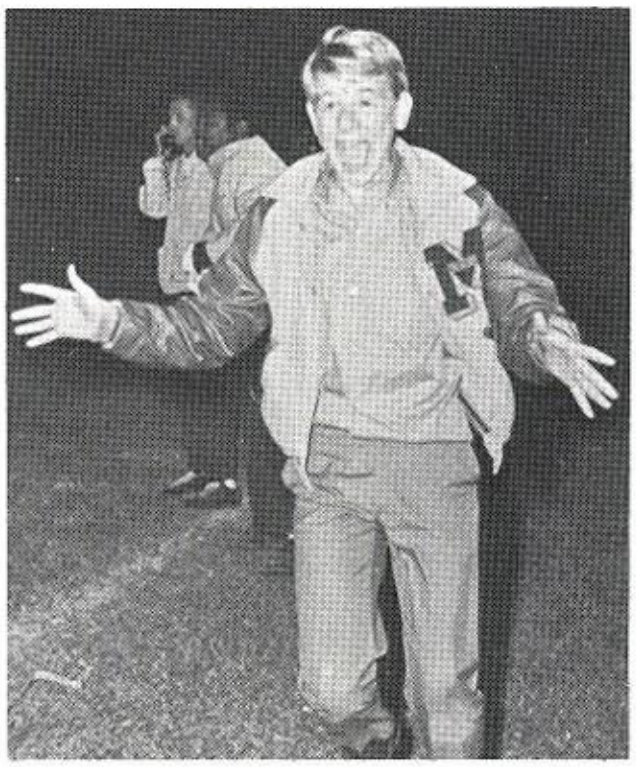


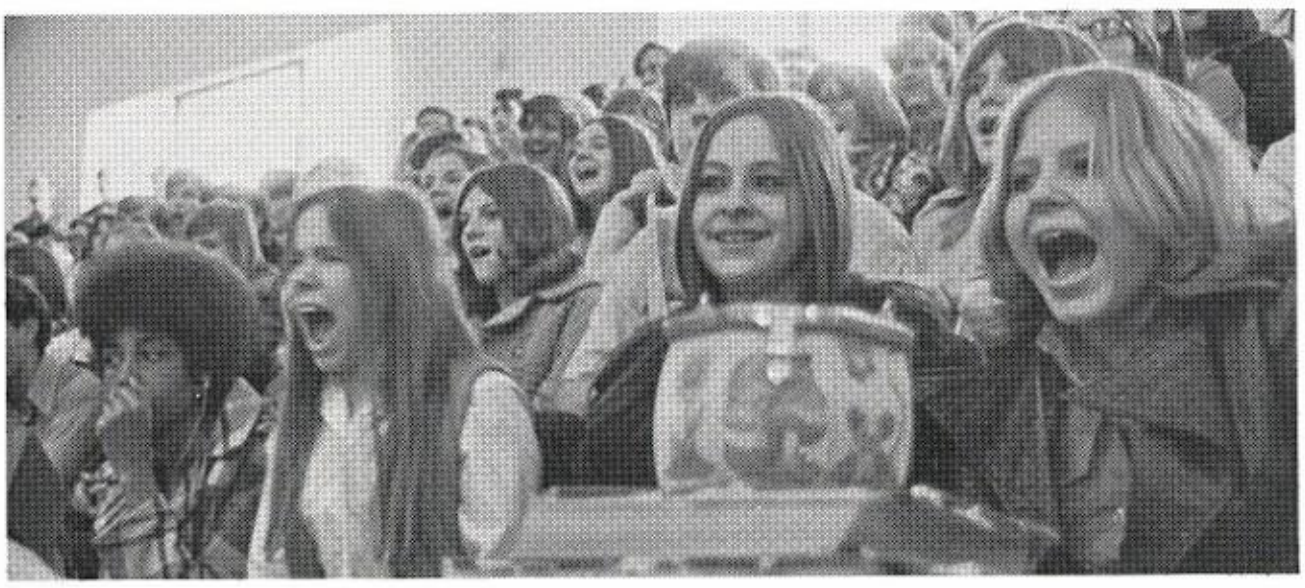




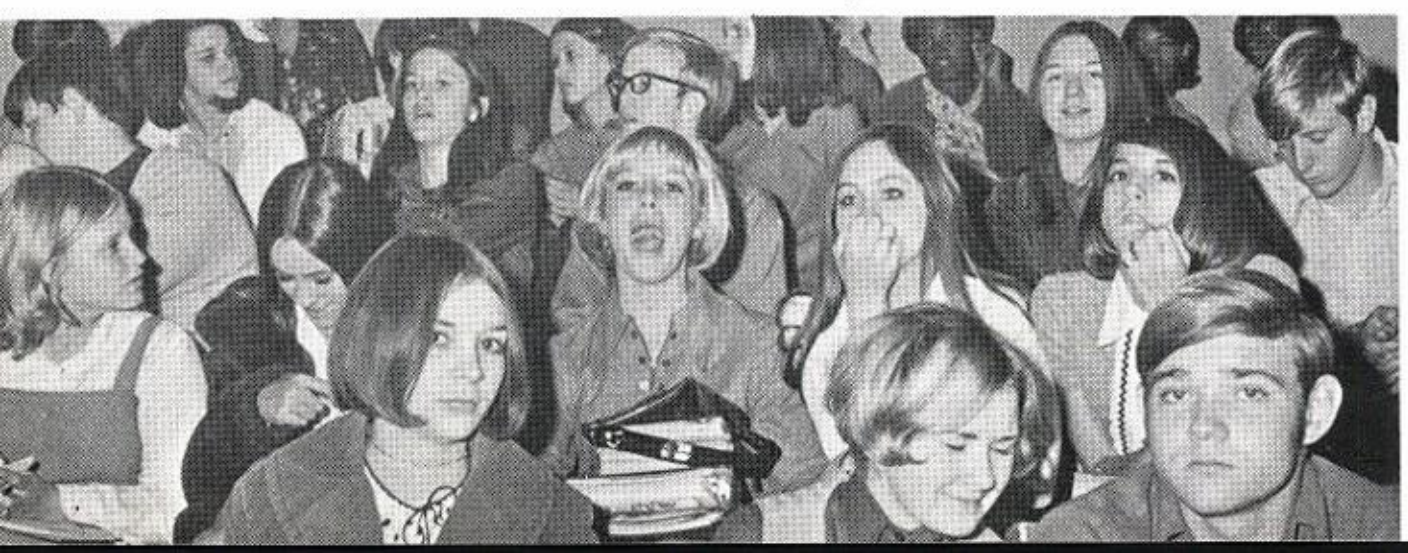
Teachers find humor in Mrs. Davis' antics.





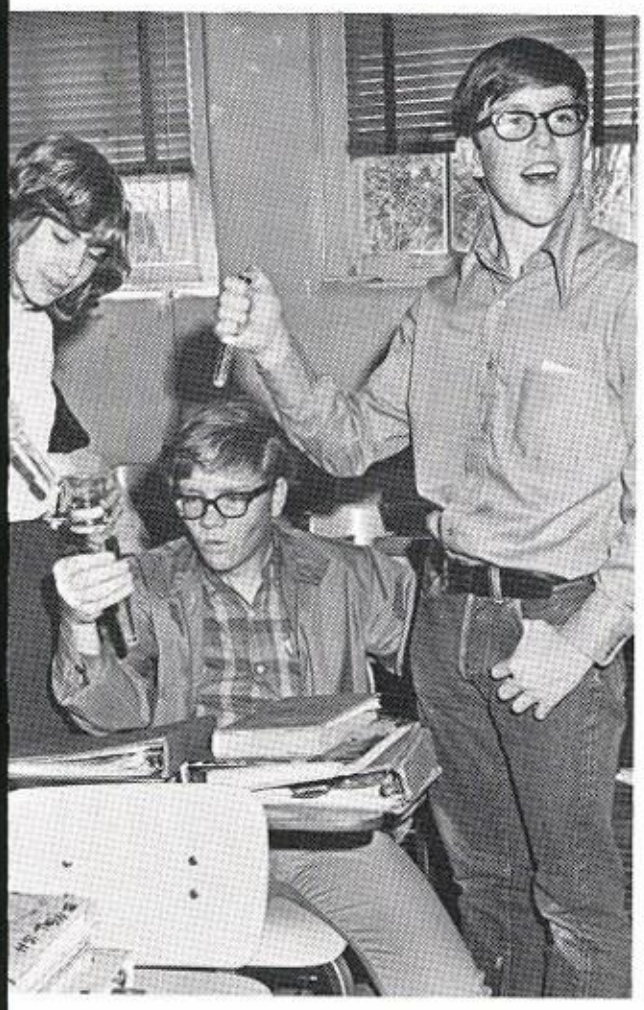


Freshmen send the spirit on!



Annette! Is this the real you?

Off to the races!



One wrong move and the whole school goes!

Faculty

Able leaders who brighten the path
with the lamp of knowledge

Administrative Authorities

The overseer of this intellectual domain is Superintendent Sam Gray, Jr. Mr. Gray is known and respected by all the students at M.H.S. and is esteemed a truly good example. From his guiding light, aided by the school board, many students receive the help and interest necessary to make successes of their lives.

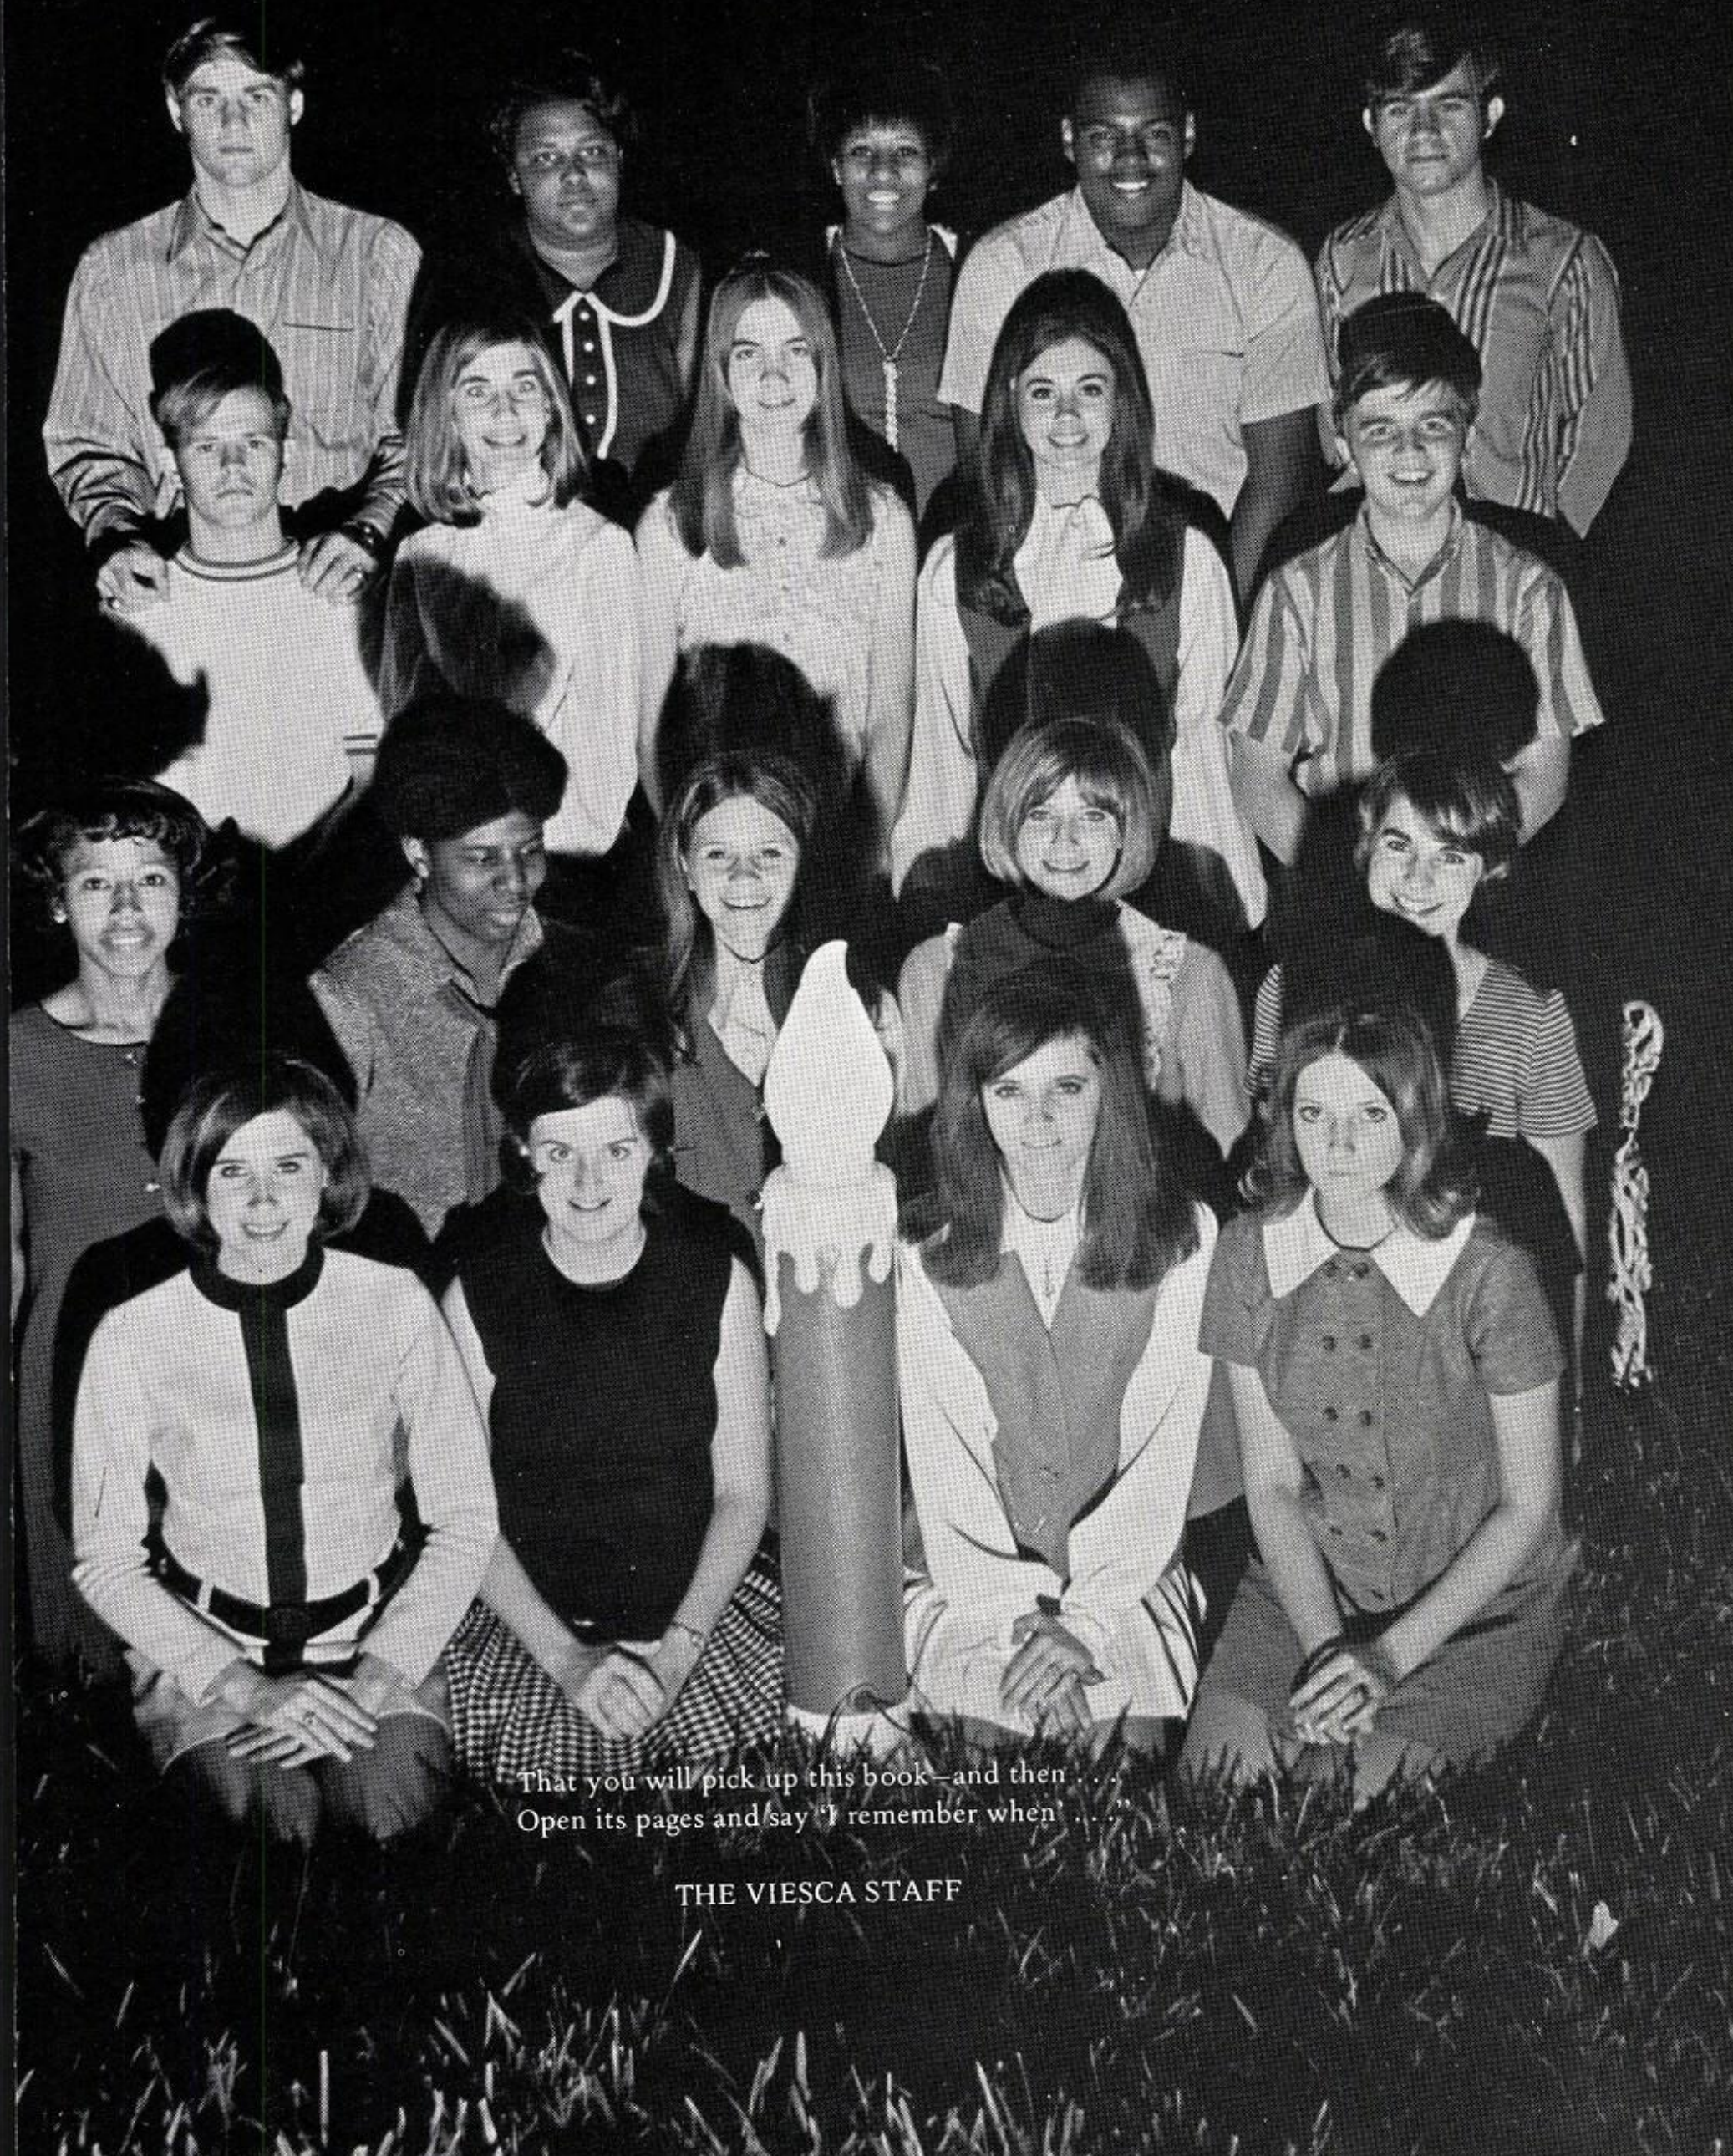
"For you who leave this one of many stages:
Memories are pressed between these pages.
To capture M.H.S. spirit has been our desire,
To light the candle and make it your fire.



That you will pick up this book—and then . . .
Open its pages and say "I remember when' . . ."

THE VIESCA STAFF

It is better to light one candle
Than curse the darkness.

—Adlai Stevenson

The candle of your life has burnt down a whole year; and in that time your flame has sputtered, flared, and glowed from your high school experiences. If this annual has captured a spark of your memory that will brighten your world or another's, then our hopes have been fulfilled.
